A MORE INCLUSIVE, DIVERSE, AND EQUITABLE CHURCH

The Sistine Chapel with the Creation Story and the Last Judgment by Michelangelo as well as the world-renowned Rafael Rooms are often referenced when speaking about the Vatican Museums. Some people might make mention of the early Christian collections with the famous Good Shepherd and numerous Christian Sarcophagi. Others will remark about the amazing collection of modern and contemporary sacred art started by Saint Pope Paul VI. But who would expect to find a vast collection of indigenous art and artifacts from Africa, Asia, the Americas and Oceania in the Vatican Museums?

In 1925, Pope Pius XI organized a major exposition of art and artifacts that reflected the artistic, cultural and spiritual traditions of the different peoples of the world. Of the 100,000 objects that were sent for the exhibition some 40,000 were given to the pope and remained in the Vatican collections after the exhibition. This was the beginning of what was then known as the Vatican's Ethnological Museum.

A few years ago, Pope Francis renamed this museum and gave it the title of Anima Mundi or Soul of the World. At the same time he asked that this museum be completely re-imagined and be given a much more prominent place among the different collections in the Vatican Museums.

During the opening of the partially completed Anima Mundi Museum in October of 2019 Pope Francis commented on the transparency of this new museum. All walls and exhibition cases within the Anima Mundi Museum are made out of highly transparent glass which allows the visitor to experience art from one continent while seeing art from all the other continents. Pope Francis said: "In these showcases, over the course of time, thousands of works coming from every part of the world will find space, and this kind of installation is meant to place them effectively in dialogue among themselves. And as works of art are the expression of the spirit of peoples, the message received is that one needs to always look at every culture, at the other, with openness of spirit and with benevolence."

STRATEGIC AREAS OF FOCUS

The Basilica of Saint Mary is committed to the future growth of our parish. The Our Parish Our Future plan outlines the three strategic areas of focus for the next five years. This plan builds upon the parish's strong vision, mission, and values.

The Arts

Move, inspire, and transform individuals and communities through excellence in the arts and creative practices.

Inclusivity

Build a culture where people feel valued, welcome, integrated, and included.

Homelessness

Respond to the needs of people experiencing or at risk of homelessness. These three areas of focus were strategically selected through a comprehensive, contemplative process with our parish leadership, staff, and consultants.

The three areas will unify and inspire collaboration across our parish and resonate throughout our commitment to the community.

Learn more about the strategic direction of our parish at mary.org/ourfuture.

On October 7, I was able to visit the Anima Mundi Museum with Fr. Nicola Mapelli who is the director of this museum. He spoke about the objects in the transparent cases as ambassadors of the different cultures in our wonderfully diverse world. I was very moved by the deep longings; the fears and hopes; the joys and sorrows all of us share as they are expressed in these many objects, no matter where and when they were made. We are so very different from one another, and yet we are so very much the same.

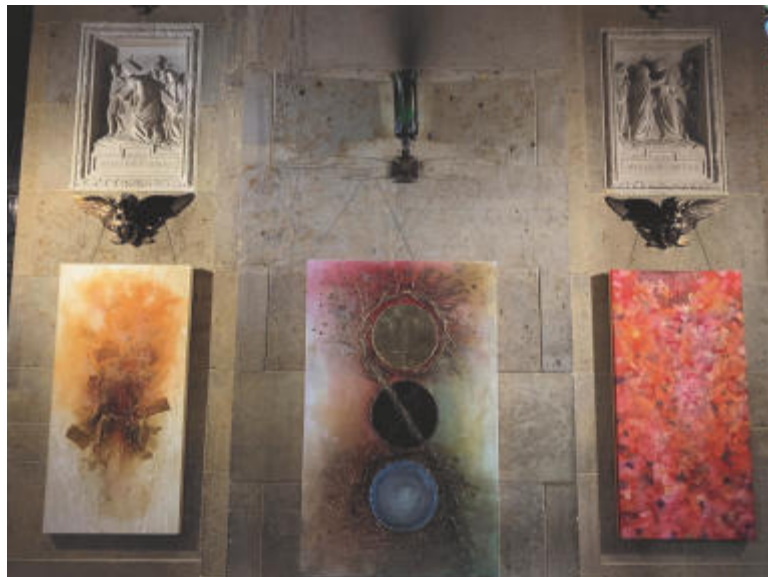

The following Wednesday, during his weekly audience Pope Francis spoke about the relationship between Christian freedom and our diverse cultures during his meditation on the Letter of St. Paul to the Galatians. He was clear to state that welcoming the Christian faith does not "involve renouncing the heart of cultures and traditions, but only that which may hinder the newness and purity of the Gospel."

True Christian freedom, the Pope said, enables us "to acquire the full dignity of the children of God," while allowing us to remain anchored in our own cultural heritage and at the same time being open to what is good and true in every culture.

The Pope deeply lamented the "many errors" that have occurred in the history of evangelization "by seeking to impose a single cultural model." These errors, he said, have deprived the Church of "the richness of many local expressions that the cultural traditions of entire peoples bring with them."

It was not lost on me that my visit to the Anima Mundi Museum and Pope Francis' meditations fell on either side of October 11, a day known by some as Columbus Day and by others as Indigenous People's Day.

As we move forward toward a world and a Church that is more inclusive, diverse, and equitable let us take an honest look at our past, let us be transparent about our present and let us courageously march toward the future, embracing the open and respectful dialogue so needed for the well-being of our world, our church, our community and ourselves.

A PILGRIMAGE WITH ST. MARTIN DE PORRES: PATRON SAINT OF RACIAL RECONCILIATION

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 9:30AM-1:30PM

St. Martin de Porres said, "I only cure you. It is God who heals you."

As an opportunity to seek God's healing for ourselves and for our community, there will be a pilgrimage on Saturday, November 6th to honor the great saint and to seek his intercession days after his feast of November 3rd.

The pilgrimage will begin in prayer at Ascension Catholic Church at 10:30am. Pilgrims will walk to the former site of St. Martin de Porres Catholic Church on the Northside for reflection, then they will conclude the pilgrimage in prayer at The Basilica of Saint Mary from 12:15-12:30pm.

There will be an optional pancake breakfast at Ascension starting at 9:30am, and lunch will be served at The Basilica from 12:30-1:30pm. A bus will shuttle pilgrims back to Ascension. The pilgrimage is free to attend, and it is sponsored by Ascension Catholic Church, The Basilica of Saint Mary, Modern Catholic Pilgrim, and the University of St. Thomas. Register at mary.org/deporrespilgrimage. For more information, contact Janice at jandersen@mary.org or 612.317.3477.

ICON OF HOPE: PANEL DISCUSSION

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 14, 1:00PM, LOWER LEVEL

Join us for a panel conversation about our partnership with the Maronite Archeparchy of Damascus and the icon that inspires it. The Damascus Partnership offers a unique opportunity to be received, converted and sent forth, like St. Paul, as witnesses of Good News in our own day. Through a relationship of mutuality and solidarity, we are called to learn from one another; to be inspired and consoled by one another; and to encounter in our midst the presence of Christ. For more information visit mary.org/iconofhope or contact Janice at jandersen@mary.org or 612.317.3477.

IMMIGRANT SUPPORT MINISTRY

There are many issues calling for our attention as we prayerfully read scripture and hear the daily news. The issue of immigration continues to call us to attend to the most vulnerable in our midst. Look for ways to learn about and get engaged in the work of immigration at The Basilica. Basilica parishioners continue to accompany families who are refugees, including those from Afghanistan, support families seeking asylum in Minnesota and walk with those who are facing deportation each day. If you would like to be involved in the work of The Basilica Immigrant Support Ministry, contact Janice at jandersen@mary.org or call 612.317.3477.

OCTOBER IS NATIONAL DISABILITY EMPLOYMENT AWARENESS MONTH

AIM: The Basilica's Access and Inclusion Ministry (formerly the Disability Awareness Ministry) is participating in the National Disability Employment Awareness Month (NDEAM) this October.

The theme for NDEAM 2021, "America's Recovery: Powered by Inclusion," reflects the importance of ensuring that people with disabilities have full access to employment and community involvement during the national recovery from the COVID-19 pandemic. NDEAM is held each October to commemorate the many and varied contributions of people with disabilities to America's workplaces and economy. For more information, contact Janet at 612.317.3508 or jgrove@mary.org.

DEEP LISTENING

"So, when you are listening to somebody, completely, attentively, then you are listening not only to the words, but also to the feeling of what is being conveyed, to the whole of it, not part of it." -Jiddu Krishnamurti

It's hard to imagine what could be more important, or a better gift to someone, than to offer the gift of deep listening. Learn how to do this with intensive training in the Emmaus Ministry. Training in February but inquiries and interviews with a member of the Leadership Team are happening this fall. Contact Wendy at wcaduff@mary.org or 612.317.3474.

PRAYER SHAWLS

Our parish community has given away over 1,375 prayer shawls as visible, tangible signs of love and support to those in need. Every person who receives one is prayed for, by name, each time we gather. If you would like to knit or crochet with us in this ministry, or request a shawl for yourself or a loved one, please contact Wendy in the Caring Ministries Office at wcaduff@mary.org or call 612.317.3474. Our ministers are knitting at home and once again meeting in person twice each month to knit, pray, and build relationship. Intertwine with us!

GRIEVING?

Join us Saturdays from 10:00-11:30am to hear a speaker on various topics of grief and loss, and talk in small discussion groups with others experiencing a similar loss. St. Mark's Episcopal Cathedral is hosting the Downtown Grief Coalition every Saturday morning from now through the end of December; masks required. No fee, but donations gratefully accepted. No registration or RSVP needed; come when you can. Call 612.317.3454 or go to mplsgriefsupport.com for more details.

MENTORSHIP PROGRAM

Prisoners or Patients (PoP) has been developing a mentor program for people leaving a Minnesota State Prison, who are on the milder end of mental health issues that are impacting their re-entry into the community. We are now accepting applications for mentors. The orientation and trainings will begin in November 2021. For more information, please contact Janet at 612.317.3508 or jgrove@mary.org.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

LeBlanc

Our Savior Jesus Christ destroyed death and brought life to light through the Gospel.

HOLY GOSPEL

Mark 10:46-52

(The acclamation is sung after the Gospel.)

HOMILY (Please be seated.)

NICENE CREED (Please stand as you are able.)

I BELIEVE IN ONE GOD, THE FATHER ALMIGHTY, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic, and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

John Rutter (b.1945)

This is the day

The day which the Lord hath made

We will rejoice and be glad in it.

This is the day.

O praise the Lord of heav'n: praise him in the height.

Praise him, all ye angels of his: praise him, all his host.

Praise him, sun and moon: praise him, all ye stars and light.

Let them praise the Name of the Lord.

For he shall give his angels charge over thee: to keep thee in all thy ways.

To keep thee in all thy ways.

The Lord himself is thy keeper

The Lord is thy defence upon thy right hand;

So that the sun shall not burn thee by day

neither the moon by night.

The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil:

yea, it is even he that shall keep thy soul.

The Lord shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in:

From this time forth

From this time forth for evermore.

He shall defend thee

He shall defend thee under his wings.

Be strong, and he shall comfort thine heart,

shall comfort thine heart,

and put thou thy trust

thy trust in the Lord.
