SMALL FAITH COMMUNITIES

During our recent small group meetings for the Archdiocesan Synod, it became abundantly clear that The Basilica community, like so many communities, in so many places, for so many generations, values listening and values being heard. We met new people; we gained new perspectives; and we deepened relationships. We agreed and disagreed, we were affirmed at agreements and stretched and challenged by opposing views. Those connections and encounters gave many of us new ideas to ponder, new faces to smile at in greeting, new people to care about..

“To speak of a culture of encounter means that we, as a people, should be passionate about meeting others, seeking points of contact, building bridges, planning a project that includes everyone. This becomes an aspiration and a style of life....Implanted deep within us is the call to transcend ourselves through an encounter with others.” Pope Francis Fratelli Tutti

Encountering others can be a bit of a challenge in our large Basilica, especially in our COVID world; yet never have we been more aware of our need for each other and our need for real connection and deep conversation.

Recently, I was in a small group discussion with other staff, talking about situations of racism that permeate our culture, our cities, and our churches. We talked about that awful feeling of misjudging someone, making assumptions, often incorrect, based on race or appearance. A new voice spoke, “It is so hard to have it happen over and over again...even at your church.” In that moment, I was transcended, listening to a new voice, a very different lived experience. That small group experience created a new lens for me, an important new lens; the lived experience of my Latino colleague.

In his Encyclical Letter, Fratelli Tutti, Pope Francis speaks of Fraternity. “Fraternity between all men and women.” “Here we have a splendid secret that shows us how to dream and to turn our life into a wonderful adventure. No one can face life in isolation... We need a community that supports and helps us, in which we can help one another to keep looking ahead. How important

STRATEGIC AREAS OF FOCUS

The Basilica of Saint Mary is committed to the future growth of our parish. The Our Parish Our Future plan outlines the three strategic areas of focus for the next five years. This plan builds upon the parish's strong vision, mission, and values.

The Arts

Move, inspire, and transform individuals and communities through excellence in the arts and creative practices.

Inclusivity

Build a culture where people feel valued, welcome, integrated, and included.

Homelessness

Respond to the needs of people experiencing or at risk of homelessness. These three areas of focus were strategically selected through a comprehensive, contemplative process with our parish leadership, staff, and consultants.

The three areas will unify and inspire collaboration across our parish and resonate throughout our commitment to the community.

Learn more about the strategic direction of our parish at mary.org/ourfuture.

it is to dream together...By ourselves, we risk seeing mirages, things that are not there. Dreams on the other hand are built together."

Our Basilica is a community that supports and helps us; at The Basilica there is an energy for meeting and gathering in small faith communities, for dreaming together. Are you interested in being a part of a small faith community? Would you like to meet regularly, in person or remotely, to dig into Scripture or Catholic Social Teaching, Parenting, or Prayer practices? Are you already a part of a group through a book club, a prayer group or other Basilica ministry? For information on Basilica Small Faith Communities, beginning January 2022, contact the Learning Office at cedwards@mary.org or 612.317.3414.

"Together we can seek the truth in dialogue, in relaxed conversation or in passionate debate. To do so calls for perseverance; it entails moments of silence and suffering, yet it can patiently embrace the broader experience of individuals and peoples...The process of building community, be it local or universal, can only be undertaken by spirits that are free and open to authentic encounters." Pope Francis

NICENE CREED (Please stand as you are able.)

IBELIEVE IN ONE GOD, THE FATHER ALMIGHTY, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic, and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.
