BROTHERS AND SISTERS, ALL...

It seems any direction you look, these days, there is trauma, grief, loss, and sadness. More than ever, life seems colored by weariness and struggle. While people continue to hold on to threads of gratitude and faith, life is hard. Whether it is division or loss within families, violence in neighborhoods and cities, discord in local and national politics, or international suffering and brutality, these are days that call us to dig deep into our hearts to find strength.

In February 2019, the UN General Assembly set up The International Day of Human Fraternity to commemorate the signing of the Document on Human Fraternity for World Peace and Living Together by Pope Francis and the Grand Imam of Al-Azhar, Ahmed Al-Tayyeb. In this document, “the Muslims of the East and West, together with the Catholic Church and the Catholics of the East and West, declare the adoption of a culture of dialogue as the path; mutual cooperation as the code of conduct; reciprocal understanding as the method and standard.” All people were called upon to “rediscover the values of peace, justice, goodness, beauty, human fraternity and coexistence in order to confirm the importance of these values as anchors of salvation for all, and to promote them everywhere.”

Janice Andersen
*Director of Christian Life
The Basilica of Saint Mary*

This document “reflected on the level of poverty, conflict and suffering of so many brothers and sisters in different parts of the world as a consequence of the arms race, social injustice, corruption, inequality, moral decline, terrorism, discrimination, extremism and many other causes.”

With profound hope for the future of all human beings, the idea of “fraternity” was advanced. This document invites all persons to unite and work together. It seeks to be a guide to evolve a culture of mutual respect: “Faith leads a believer to see in the other a brother or sister to be supported and loved.”

The UN General Assembly called for a Second International Day of Human Fraternity in February 2022. So great is the threat to the social order—and so high the desire “to build

STRATEGIC AREAS OF FOCUS

The Basilica of Saint Mary is committed to the future growth of our parish. The Our Parish Our Future plan outlines the three strategic areas of focus for the next five years. This plan builds upon the parish's strong vision, mission, and values.

The Arts

Move, inspire, and transform individuals and communities through excellence in the arts and creative practices.

Inclusivity

Build a culture where people feel valued, welcome, integrated, and included.

Homelessness

Respond to the needs of people experiencing or at risk of homelessness. These three areas of focus were strategically selected through a comprehensive, contemplative process with our parish leadership, staff, and consultants.

The three areas will unify and inspire collaboration across our parish and resonate throughout our commitment to the community.

Learn more about the strategic direction of our parish at mary.org/ourfuture.

A COMMUNITY ROOTED IN THE GOSPEL OF JESUS CHRIST

As disciples of Jesus Christ, we:

- Practice biblical stewardship
- Share our faith with others in word and deed
- Pursue ecumenical and interfaith relationships
- Rejoice in rich diversity

As the Co-Cathedral of the Archdiocese of Saint Paul and Minneapolis, we are committed to provide:

- Inspiring liturgies and sacred arts
- Transforming life-long learning opportunities
- Engaging service to one another and justice for all fraternity as a bulwark against hatred, violence, and injustice,” Pope Francis calls all people to attention.

“Now is the fitting time to journey together...Do not leave it to tomorrow or an uncertain future...This is a good day to extend a hand, to celebrate our unity in diversity—unity, not uniformity, unity in diversity.”

“Now is not a time for indifference: either we are brothers and sisters, or everything falls apart. This is not to be melodramatic; it is the truth! Either we are brothers and sisters, or everything falls apart.”

Truly, the only answer to the suffering and trials of our day is found in our willingness to trust God and find the grace and strength to stay “committed to the cause of peace and to respond concretely to the problems and needs of the least, the poor and the defenseless.” Pope Francis warns, “the path of fraternity is long and challenging, it is a difficult path, yet it is the anchor of salvation for humanity.”

Let us walk side-by-side, in the harmony of differences, with respect for the identity of each. With concrete actions, let us be brothers and sisters, all.

LENTEN OBSERVANCE

The Christian faithful are to do penance through prayer, fasting, abstinence, and by exercising works of piety and charity. All Fridays through the year, and especially during Lent, are penitential days.

ABSTINENCE: All who have reached their 14th birthday are to abstain from eating meat on Ash Wednesday and on all Fridays during Lent.

FASTING: All those who are 18 or older, until their 59th birthday, are to fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. Only one full meal is allowed on days of fast. Two other meals, sufficient to maintain strength may be taken according to one's need, but together they should not equal another full meal. Eating between meals is not permitted, but liquids are allowed. The obligation does not apply to those whose health or ability to work would be affected seriously.

For God Commanded Angels
Felix Mendelssohn (1809-1847)
The Basilica Cathedral Choir

For God commanded angels to watch over you, that they shall protect you, in all your living keep you,
for their hands will uphold and guide you,
lest you dash your foot against a stone, stumbling;
for God commanded angels to watch over you;
for their hands will uphold and guide you,
for they shall protect you, in all your living keep you.

*Si fui motivo de dolor, oh Dios, si por mi causa el débil tropezó,
si en tus caminos yo no quise andar,
¡perdón, oh Dios!*

If I have been the source of pain, O God,
if to the weak I have refused my strength,
if, in rebellion, I have strayed away,
forgive me, O God.

*Si vana y fútil mi palabre fue, si al que
sufria en su dolor dejé,
no me condenes, tú, por mi maldad,
¡perdón, oh Dios!*

If I have spoken words of cruelty,
if I have left some suffering unrelieved,
condemn not my insensitivity,
forgive me, O God.

*Si por la vida quise andar en paz, tranquilo, libre y sin luchar por ti,
cuando anhelabas verme en la lid,
¡perdón, oh Dios!*

If I've insisted on a peaceful life,
far from the struggles the gospel brings,
when you prefer to guide me to the strife,
forgive me, O God.

*Escucha, oh Dios, mi humilde de confesión
y librame de tentación sutil preserva siempre mi alma en tu redil.
Amén, amén.*

Receive me, O God,
this ardent word of prayer,
free me from temptation's subtle snare,
with tender patience, lead me to your care.

INVITATION TO COMMUNION

Priest: Behold the Lamb of God, behold him who takes away the sins of the world. Blessed are those called to the supper of the Lamb.

Assembly: Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

COMMUNION PROCESSION

There Is a Longing
Quigley

There is a long-ing in our hearts, O Lord, for you to re-veal your-self to us. There is a long-ing in our hearts for love we on-ly find in you our God.

MEDITATION

9:30

Humbly, I Adore Thee
Martha Helen Schmidt
The Basilica Cathedral Choir

Humbly I adore thee, Verity unseen, who thy glory hidest 'neath these shadows mean;
lo, to thee surrendered, my whole heart is bowed,
tranced as it beholds thee, shrined within the cloud.

Taste and touch, and vision to discern thee fail;
faith that comes by hearing, pierces through the veil,
I believe whate'er the Son of God hath told;
what the truth hath spoken, that for truth I hold.

O memorial wondrous of the Lord's own death;
living Bread that givest all thy creatures breath,
grant my spirit ever by thy life may live to my taste my sweetness, never failing give.

Jesus, whom now hidden, I by faith behold,
what my soul doth long for, that thy word foretold:
face to face thy splendor, I at last shall see,
in the glorious vision blessed Lord, of thee.

11:30

I Want Jesus to Walk With Me
Traditional Spiritual, arr. Raymond Haan
Mundus

I want Jesus to walk with me.
All along my pilgrim journey, I want Jesus to walk with me.
In my trials, Lord, walk with me.
When my head is bowed in sorrow, I want Jesus to walk with me.
When I am dying, Lord, walk with me.
When I am on my bed of sorrow, O Lord, I want Jesus to walk with me.
