RECLAIMING TRUST

At their annual meeting this past November, the Bishops of the United States approved a document on the Eucharist entitled: “The Mystery of the Eucharist in the Life of the Church.” As part of their follow-up efforts, it was reported that the bishops have begun planning for a Eucharistic Congress in 2024. The goal of this effort is to rekindle an understanding of and devotion to the Eucharist. The bishops plan to set up a nonprofit organization to handle logistics and raise $28 million over the next two years to cover the costs of the event and all the work leading up to it.

Part of me is very excited about this idea. The Eucharist is at the heart of my faith. As Catholics, we believe that Jesus Christ is really and truly present in the Eucharist. Not present just in memory, not present just symbolically, and not present just spiritually, but really and truly present. How this can be we don’t know. That it can be is our abiding belief. It is an act of faith. And faith, as we read in the Letter to the Hebrews, is “Confident assurance of what we hope for; conviction about things we do not see.” (Hebrews 11:1) In the Eucharist we receive the body of Christ so we might be and bring the Body of Christ to the world.

Unfortunately, a recent poll by the Pew Research Center found most self-described Catholics don’t believe this core teaching on the Eucharist. In fact, just one-third of U.S. Catholics (31%) say they believe that “during Catholic Mass, the bread and wine actually become the body and blood of Jesus.” This is very concerning. At a minimum it suggests we have our work cut out for us if we are to help people understand the beauty, the wonder, and the miracle of the Eucharist.

Now I have to admit candidly that a part of me questions whether one of the reasons for the lack of belief in our teaching in regard to the Eucharist is a lack of trust in those who proclaim and teach about the Eucharist. While I don’t think that a straight line can be drawn from the lack of belief in the Eucharist to a mistrust of priests and Bishops, I do think it is harder to believe the message, if you don’t trust the messenger.

STRATEGIC AREAS OF FOCUS

The Basilica of Saint Mary is committed to the future growth of our parish. The Our Parish Our Future plan outlines the three strategic areas of focus for the next five years. This plan builds upon the parish's strong vision, mission, and values.

The Arts

Move, inspire, and transform individuals and communities through excellence in the arts and creative practices.

Inclusivity

Build a culture where people feel valued, welcome, integrated, and included.

Homelessness

Respond to the needs of people experiencing or at risk of homelessness. These three areas of focus were strategically selected through a comprehensive, contemplative process with our parish leadership, staff, and consultants.

The three areas will unify and inspire collaboration across our parish and resonate throughout our commitment to the community.

Learn more about the strategic direction of our parish at mary.org/ourfuture.

A COMMUNITY ROOTED IN THE GOSPEL OF JESUS CHRIST

As disciples of Jesus Christ, we:

- Practice biblical stewardship
- Share our faith with others in word and deed
- Pursue ecumenical and interfaith relationships
- Rejoice in rich diversity

As the Co-Cathedral of the Archdiocese of Saint Paul and Minneapolis, we are committed to provide:

- Inspiring liturgies and sacred arts
- Transforming life-long learning opportunities
- Engaging service to one another and justice for all

Especially since the sexual abuse crisis, I think people have found it difficult to trust priests and Bishops in our church. Sexually abusive priests were routinely transferred from parish to parish at least until the Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People which was initiated in 2002. Since then, while this practice has stopped, and while there has been a general acknowledgement of a failure on the part of church leadership, this came slowly and grudgingly. Also, and more importantly, personal apologies on the part of priests and Bishops have been nonexistent for the most part. I think this has led to a lack of trust in priests and Bishops, and in many instances a lack of trust in what they teach and proclaim. I don't think this credibility problem is going away on its own.

Given the above, while I think we have much good and important work to do in helping people understand our teaching and belief in regard to the Eucharist, I believe that rather than a Eucharistic Congress, a better starting point might be an "apology" tour. By this I mean that dioceses across the United States should shut down their usual activities for 6 to 12 months, and priests and Bishops should visit every church, chapel and mission in their diocese and listen to people's pain and sadness in regard to the way our church has handled the sexual abuse crisis. We should listen until we weep and our hearts break. Then we should apologize over and over again until people are ready to believe and accept our apologies. Perhaps if and when people start to trust us again and they see the love of Jesus in our words and actions, they might more readily believe that Jesus is really and truly present in the Eucharist.

HELPING UKRAINE: CATHOLIC RELIEF SERVICES

The Archdiocese recommends that donations be made to Catholic Relief Services at crs.org.

Your help is needed in Ukraine where there are already more than 2.9 million people in need of assistance!

There is great risk of additional suffering both within Ukraine and for those who are fleeing to neighboring countries for safety. CRS and our partners need immediate support to meet both ongoing needs as the situation intensifies.

CRS and Caritas partners on the ground are preparing across Ukraine and in bordering countries, ready to provide safe shelter, hot meals, hygiene supplies, transport to safe areas, counseling support and more.

INCLUSIVITY

EQUITY, DIVERSITY, INCLUSIVITY

The Basilica EDI Position Statement provides a foundation for our work on racial justice and offers a framework for defining goals (mary.org/edi). We have identified four EDI goals to address over this year. This work will intersect every facet of our parish community. If you would like to get involved in this important work, contact Frank at fchristopher_sk@hotmail.com or call 612.317.3477.

TRUE LISTENING

"Most people do not listen with the intent to understand; they listen with the intent to reply. They're either speaking or preparing to speak. They're filtering everything through their own paradigms, reading their autobiography into other people's lives." - Stephen R. Covey

Most of us know this type of listening. With an Emmaus Listening Minister, you'll experience an entirely different type of listening, of having someone present to you, and of being cared for. Contact Wendy at 612.317.3474 or wcaduff@mary.org to have a trained volunteer listener reach out to you to find healing and wisdom within. All conversations are confidential and free.

HOSPITALIZED?

Please take the time to let The Basilica know if you have been hospitalized, whether it's a planned stay or completely unexpected. We'd like to offer prayer support and accompany you in ways that best meet your needs. Because of privacy laws, too often we don't know when our parishioners are ill or recovering from surgery. If you or a family member call or email to let us know, we can work in tandem with the spiritual care department at the hospital and continue to offer caring ministries and spiritual support once you are released. You can contact Wendy at wcaduff@mary.org or let the receptionist at the rectory's front desk know.

SVDP COIN BANKS

St. Vincent de Paul coin banks can be found at the back of church or near each side door. Fill them with coin or cash during Lent and return them to Mass on Holy Thursday. Consider making this a part of your Lenten practice.

GIVE

EASTER ENVIRONMENT FUND

Join us in the joys of reflection and renewal this Lenten Season. Each Easter, The Basilica abounds with Easter lilies, symbols of the resurrection. Please consider a gift at mary.org/give. A gift in honor or memorial of a loved one received by Sunday, April 3 will be acknowledged in our Easter Mass Booklet.

THE 2022 BASILICA FUND AND EASTER GIFT

Support The Basilica by making a gift to the 2022 Basilica Fund. The Basilica's year-to-date revenue is down, and our expenses are up. While we are tightening our belts wherever we can, we still need your assistance. As members of The Basilica community, help us financially support our parish programs, ministries, and services. Consider a gift to the 2022 Basilica Fund whether you are participating in our community in person or through livestreaming masses and virtual programming. This Easter, please consider making a special gift to ensure our church remains a place of hope and a symbol of God's love. Please give online at mary.org/give or scan the QR Code with your phone's camera.

Ave verum corpus
natum de Maria Virgine:
Vere passum,
immolatum in cruce pro homine:
cujus latus perforatum
fluxit aqua et sanguine:
esto nobis praegustatum,
mortis in examine:
O Jesu dulcis! O Jesu pie!
O Jesu, Fili Mariae.

Hail, true Body,
born of the Virgin Mary,
Who has truly suffered,
was sacrificed on the cross for mortals,
Whose side was pierced,
whence flowed water and blood:
Be for us a foretaste (of heaven)
during our final examining.
O Jesus sweet, O Jesus pure,
O Jesus, son of Mary.

Rejoice With Me!
Emily Lund
The Basilica Cathedral Choristers

A shepherd tending his sheep one day saw that one had wandered away.
He found his sheep, oh, could it be that Jesus,
like him, would look for me?

A woman having a very hard time searched her house for her lost dime.
She found her coin, oh, could it be that Jesus, like her, would look for me?

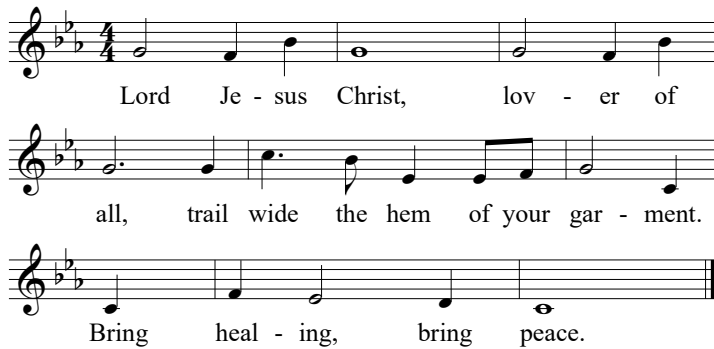

Rejoice, rejoice! Rejoice with me!
Hear Jesus say, hear Jesus say, "Rejoice, rejoice with me!"
When Jesus tells a story, it is plain to see the he will find us when we're lost and say, "Rejoice with me!"

A father's son had gone far away, so he watched the road each day.
He saw, he ran, oh, could it be that Jesus, like him, would look for me?

Kyrie eleison. Christe eleison. Kyrie eleison.
Lord, have mercy. Christ, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.

MEDITATION

9:30

Carol of the Stranger
Abbie Betinis (b. 1980)
The Basilica Cathedral Choir

Peace and grace be to this house Where all are welcomed in;
Receive the guest, receive this heart: Tell the Stranger, tell.

Tell the Stranger what you cannot tell
Those who love you and desire your joy. Tell.

Make tall your walls, make long these beams, Who once believed alone;
Make wide the circle, feed the fire: Tell the Silence, tell.

Tell the Silence what you cannot tell
Those who love you and desire your joy. Tell.

Blessings be upon this place, Let every wound be healed,
Let every secret, every dream; Tell the Angel, tell.

Tell the Angel what you cannot tell
Those who love you and desire your joy. Tell.

Peace and grace be to this house All will be returned;
Let every soul be called your own, Tell the Mystery, tell.

Tell the Mystery what you long to tell
Those who love you and desire your joy. Tell.

11:30

Lord, Lead Me Day by Day
Handel / arr. Hal Hopson
The Basilica Cathedral Choristers

Lord, lead us day by day.
Be thou our friend and guide,
In darkness be our light, In sadness be our joy,
In trial be our constant hope. Lord, lead us,
Be Thou our friend and guide, Our light, our joy,
In trial be our constant hope. Lord, crown us with thy love,
Protect us by Thy grace, And guide us in Thy truth,
O Lord, on Thee we call, we lift our voices high,
O hear our prayer to Thee.

5:00

It Is Well with My Soul
Philip Bliss, arr. John Purifoy
Juventus

When peace like a river attendeth my way,
When sorrows like sea billows roll; whatever my lot,
thou hast taught me to say it is well, it is well with my soul.

My sin, oh, the bliss of this glorious thought; my sin, not in part, but the whole is nailed to the cross and I bear it no more,
praise the Lord, praise the Lord, O my soul!

And Lord, haste the day when the faith shall be sight,
The clouds be rolled back as a scroll. And the trump shall resound and the Lord shall descend, even so, it is well with my soul.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION (Please stand as you are able.)
