CALLED TO BE LIGHT

During weekend Mass at a parish we were visiting, I pointed out the Book of the Gospels that the priest was holding up to our now five-year-old daughter. She noticed the gold décor on the cover and said, "It's so shiny!" I told her it had to be bright because it had all the stories of Jesus in it. I don't know if that made much of an impression, as she went right back to coloring, but hopefully she will always know of Jesus as the light of our world.

This weekend's Gospel continues the Sermon on the Mount we began last weekend with the Beatitudes. In today's story, Jesus tells his disciples (and all of us) that we are indeed both salt and light. He does not say we are called to be those things, but that we are salt and light now. However, if we do not use the gifts we are given, they can be lost.

The First Reading from Isaiah connects to this Gospel in calling the Israelites to have their "light shine forth from the darkness." This particular passage is significant in that "it is addressed to the Israelites who have returned from exile in Babylon and are now charged with the responsibility of building a new nation. Isaiah likens this restored generation to a light that will shine forth for other nations to behold. While it is clear that political and military concerns will be on the minds of those attempting to rebuild their nation, Isaiah pays particular attention to their treatment of the poor," (Fr. Stephen S. Wilbricht, CSC).

There are many concerns that we all have to be attentive to in our families and communities. Continuing poverty, homelessness and economic instability for so many, political and racial division, climate change and its ongoing effects, mental health challenges, all of these and more pose challenges to us locally in the Twin Cities, our state and nation. How are we able to be light in our families and communities that we are told we are in these readings?

One temptation I experience in times of uncertainty is to look inward and focus on my own needs, wants and desires. I find unfortunately I can do that quite easily, and it can be difficult to turn my gaze outward to those in need, either in my family or beyond. Isaiah was indeed prophetic in calling the Israelites to always look beyond themselves to those in need and on the margins if their nation was going to be an example for others. What a beautiful and arduous call for all of us.

The Basilica community has a decades long tradition of reflecting on and living out the Church's Social Teaching, and we continue striving to do this daily. This coming Lenten season, we invite you to join together after the 9:30 Mass for a speaker series on various components of our Catholic Social Teaching. Fr. Daniel will begin the series, and we have wonderful local speakers from St. Thomas to continue helping us reflect each week. This will be both in person and on Zoom; you can sign up on mary.org and plan to join us for the entire series or whenever you are able. May God bless all of our efforts to be salt and light as individuals and as a parish community.

GIVING

TAX-SMART GIVING

Do you have a traditional IRA? Are you, or will you soon to be, 70 ½ years old? If you answered “yes,” did you know you may make a tax free qualified charitable distribution (QCD) directly from your IRA to The Basilica Landmark and The Basilica of Saint Mary without increasing your taxable income or taxes? This is a popular, tax-smart option for giving. Funds transferred from your IRA will not subject your Social Security income to higher tax levels and if you are 72 or older, will count toward your required minimum distribution (RMD).

To take advantage, please contact your IRA plan administrator or Sue, Development Officer, at 612.317.3421 or smcguigan@mary.org to learn more.

*Because circumstances may vary from person to person, donors should discuss plans with a professional tax advisor.

THE BASILICA LANDMARK

Your financial gifts to The Basilica Landmark’s Annual Fund help to preserve, restore, and advance the historic buildings and campus.

We invite you to join our efforts by making a gift to The Basilica Landmark’s Annual Fund today. Please donate online at thebasilicalandmark.org/give or by calling the Development Office at 612.317.3472.

IBELIEVE IN ONE GOD, THE FATHER ALMIGHTY, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic, and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

O Thou, the Central Orb
Charles Wood (1866-1926)
The Basilica Cathedral Choir

O Thou, the central orb of righteous love, pure beam of the most High,
eternal Light, of this our win'try world,
Thy radiance bright awakes new joy in faith,
hope soars above.

Come, quickly come, and let thy glory shine,
gilding our darksome heaven with rays divine.
Thy saints with holy luster round Thee move,
as stars about Thy throne,
set in the height of God's ordaining counsel,
as Thy sight gives measured grace to each,
Thy power to prove.

Let Thy bright beams disperse the gloom of sin,
our nature all shall feel eternal day,
in fellowship with Thee,
transforming day to souls erewhile unclean,
now pure within. Amen.

This is how all will know that you are my dis - ci - ples: if you have love for one an - oth - er, if you have love for one an - oth - er.
All will know that you are my dis - ci - ples.
