THE NEED FOR CONVERSION OF HEART IS ALWAYS IN SEASON

As we move from ordinary time and prepare for the great season of Lent, we are reminded that each of us – all of us – are sinners who need God’s grace and forgiveness. After Pope Francis was elected pope in 2013, he gave an extraordinary interview. When he was asked by the interviewer who is Jorge Bergoglio – he paused in reflection and then said, “I am a sinner.” This was not for show but a humble and deep recognition that before God, we are all beggars and sinners in need of forgiveness. The call to conversion of heart – metanoia – is always in season as we seek to become more like God.

In the first reading from this weekend’s Mass, we are called to “Be holy, for I, the Lord, your God, am holy.” The Second Vatican Council affirmed the universal call to holiness – all of God’s people are called by God so seek holiness – to seek a life pleasing to the Lord. For years, some Catholics believed that holiness was realistically applied to the life of priests and religious. Have you spent considerable time among priests and religious – we struggle living holy lives as much as any Catholic in the Church. Rather, God calls all his children to holiness because God knows that this is where true happiness is found. When our lives reflect the goodness of God, we experience greater freedom and light – and faith becomes more attractive to others, because of the authenticity of our witness.

As a priest, there is no liturgy more moving to me than Ash Wednesday. We often see more Catholics in attendance on Ash Wednesday than holy days of obligation throughout the year. I am moved by the sincere desire for repentance on the faces of those gathered. There is a personal and collective sense of our need for God and our desire to turn away from sin. The outward manifestation of the death of Christ in the ashes placed on our foreheads not only reminds us of our own mortality, but also reminds us that, through the cross and resurrection of Christ, we pass from death to new life. In Lent, we are invited into the depths of Jesus’s Paschal Mystery – his life, his passion, and his death, as we wait with hope for the promise of new life which we celebrate with joy at Easter.

LOCKED OUT: CONCEPTS OF CRIMINALITY AND HOUSING SECURITY IN OUR COMMUNITY

THURSDAY, MARCH 30

11:30AM-1:00PM

ZOOM VIRTUAL WEBINAR

What comes to mind when you hear the word criminal? How does that impact your understanding of crime?

Join us as we explore “criminality,” how it impacts housing insecurity, and how we might shift the conversation to better untangle criminal justice and housing justice in our community.

We will hear from Emily Baxter from We Are All Criminals followed by a panel of Minnesota voices working on housing security, restorative justice, and juvenile support. Fr. Daniel Griffith will join the panel discussion.

Presented by Catholic Charities of St. Paul and Minneapolis.

This webinar is free to attend, and all are welcome. Register at cctwincities.org.

For the past several weeks, we have been reading from Paul’s Letters to the Corinthians. Corinth, during the time of Paul, was a bustling Mediterranean port city which was marked by diverse cultural influences – some of which were aligned to the nascent Christian faith and others opposed. Not only does Paul call the Corinthians to practice charity and to be united in the faith, he also calls them to remember that their bodies are temples of God and that the “Spirit of God dwells in you.” This message is for us as well and should mark our approach to the world. Many of the Corinthians struggled with worldly desires and this certainly seems to ring true today. Lent is a time to reorient ourselves. As sojourners whose true home is in heaven, we are called to seek that which is above – to set our faces and our lives toward the Kingdom of God. This process requires us to acknowledge those dark places, places of sin and selfishness, which need the grace of transformation. What idols have crowded into our lives, the masters we serve and place before God?

During the season of Lent, the Church calls us to embrace prayer, fasting, almsgiving. Each of these Lenten practices is a discipline that allows us to become more holy and less attached to the world. These practices also move us beyond ourselves to a deeper union with God and more compassionate love of our neighbor. Prayer lifts our hearts beyond self-preoccupation to the God who made us and calls us to enter into a deeper union with the Trinity. Fasting invites us to move beyond earthly desires in a way that unites our small sacrifice to the ultimate sacrifice of Jesus. Almsgiving moves us beyond ourselves to the good and needs of our neighbor – especially those who suffer on the margins and in whom Jesus himself is sublimely present.

What will our souls look like on Easter Sunday? This Lenten season invites us to embrace deep metanoia as we die and rise with Christ and experience new life that awaits those who follow God.

ASH WEDNESDAY

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 22

EUCCHARIST, 7:00AM, NOON*, 5:30PM* LIVESTREAMED

Eucharist with the Distribution of Ashes will be celebrated in The Basilica.

Join us for a vegetarian soup luncheon on Ash Wednesday, February 22 after the noon and 5:30pm Masses. Soup and bread will be served at 1:00pm or 6:30pm, in the Teresa of Calcutta Hall (lower level of the church). The event is free, but offerings are accepted.

THE PILGRIMAGE: AN INTERFAITH CIVIL RIGHTS JOURNEY

SUNDAYS IN MARCH, 4:30PM

Over Martin Luther King weekend, Minneapolis senior clergy traveled to Atlanta, Birmingham, Selma, and Montgomery for an interfaith civil rights journey.

Our hearts and souls were touched as we prayed together at significant moments, sharing each of our traditions’ words of healing and reconciliation. We are bringing our pilgrimage back to Minneapolis to share the lessons and insights we gleaned on this remarkable multi-faith journey.

Please join us for a series of three presentations of our trip, and for panel discussions and worship to commemorate the convergence of Ramadan, Passover and Easter on three consecutive Sundays in March at 4:30pm.

- March 12 at Temple Israel - video premiere and panel discussion
- March 19 at Westminster Presbyterian - video premiere and panel discussion
- March 26 at Fellowship Ministry Baptist Church - an interfaith service of song and reflections.

VOLUNTEER

AIM

The Basilica's Access and Inclusion/ Disability Awareness Ministry is looking for people interested in helping with our annual Resource Fair this Spring. If you would like to contact organizations, help with programming on the day including set up and clean up, please contact Janet at 612.317.3508 or jgrove@mary.org.

RESTORATIVE JUSTICE

Restorative justice is an approach to justice that emphasizes living in right relationship and resonates deeply with Gospel values and Catholic social teaching. The Basilica is committed to grounding and growing in understanding and living the principles of restorative justice. If you would like to learn more or to be part of a team actively engaged in facilitating this engagement and growth, please contact Janice at 612.317.3477 or jandersen@mary.org.

WHAT'S MISSING?

After hearing from those with lived experience of homelessness and from various agencies and faith communities, it was clear that more opportunities to build community and form relationships were needed in Minneapolis. The Basilica created "Side by Side Saturdays," where parishioners and St. Vincent de Paul ministry guests can learn, grow, and serve together. Currently "Side by Side Saturdays" focus on the theme of personal wellness with speakers each week discussing meditation, movement, art, journaling, and mindful eating. What more can we do? Help us develop ideas for 2023 as we are seeking leaders for this innovative ministry. Contact Julia at 612.317.3413 or jfreeman@mary.org for more info.

LITURGICAL MINISTRY

Share your spiritual gifts by becoming a volunteer liturgical minister (Minister of Hospitality, Acolyte, Lector, or an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion) to enhance and support our worship together. Contact Melissa at mstreit@mary.org or 612.317.3417.

Visit the list of current volunteer opportunities at mary.org/volunteer.

ICON CLASSES

SATURDAYS, MARCH 4, 11, 18, 25

9:00AM-1:00 PM

Painting an Icon is a prayerful meditative process. The Basilica offers the opportunity to experience this during Lent. The image selected for the 2023 Icon Class is Our Lady of Sorrows/Theotokos of the Seven Swords, venerated in the East as Softener of Evil Hearts. Deb Korluka will lead these workshops. Contact Deb at 612.889.5868 to register.

MUNDUS

Our Contemporary and World Music Choir, enlivens the 11:30am liturgy two times a month from September through May. ARTIST'S RECEPTION: SUNDAY MAY 28, 1:00 PM

"I translate universal spiritual truths and scripture into abstract paintings that speak to others, regardless of their traditions. To form visible signs of invisible grace, I use abstraction which—so powerfully through light, color, and texture—speaks directly to the heart. I layer my paintings with symbolism," Linda McCray, Clancy, Montana.

BASILICA YOUNG ADULTS

BYA BIBLE STUDY

THURSDAYS, 6:45PM
ST. JOSEPH CHAPEL

During the Lenten season, Catholics look for different ways to enhance their spiritual lives. One great way young adults have grown in their faith lives during Lent in the past is to join in our Bible study. We will look at the upcoming Sunday Mass readings each week through this season as we always do. Plan to join us if you can! This is another nice way to meet other young adults if you are new to The Basilica and looking for community. You can also sign up for our weekly emails about Bible study and other BYA events. For more information, contact Ben at bcaduff@mary.org.

BAPTISM

ZOOM: BAPTISM CLASSES

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 29
6:30-8:30PM, ZOOM

Baptism preparation for parents of infants and children under six: If you are expecting a baby, or in the process of adopting a child, please plan to attend one of our baptism preparation classes. Classes are offered frequently and encourage a better understanding of the sacrament, challenge parents to consider their own faith, and discuss how to pass the faith on to their children.

Those planning on having their child baptized at The Basilica of Saint Mary must be registered members of the parish. Godparents are welcome to attend the class, too. More information, a schedule of dates and times, and registration is online at mary.org. For more information, contact Christine at cmoore@mary.org or 612.317.3439.

Anyone is welcome to join this weekly group of folks. Right now, the group is looking at the upcoming Sunday Mass readings. You can join the group in person or via Zoom. Contact Ben at bcaduff@mary.org for more information or simply join the group. The group will not meet on Monday, February 20.

RCIA

WE HAVE 12 ADULTS DISCERNING ABOUT THE CATHOLIC FAITH

Several of our inquirers are in need of sponsors. What does a sponsor do? Sponsors reach out to candidates on a monthly basis by phone, over coffee, or after Mass to talk with candidates about their faith. Sponsors are everyday Catholics. They are not teachers (you don't need to be an "expert" in Catholicism). Sponsors are welcoming parishioners who are willing to befriend our candidates and help them get to know our Church. Please reach out to Christine at cmoore@mary.org.

INTERESTED IN LEARNING MORE ABOUT BECOMING CATHOLIC?

Would you like to know more about becoming a baptized Christian? Do you want to make your First Holy Communion or be Confirmed in the Catholic Church? No need to wait until fall to join! Interested learning more? Contact Christine at cmoore@mary.org or 612.317.3439.

CHRISTIAN LIFE

SHOE DRIVE TODAY

This weekend is our final collection of new or gently used shoes and boots for the local Shoe Away Hunger Program. If you have shoes or boots to donate, but don't have them with you today, feel free to bring them to the Rectory over the next week and just tell the receptionist they are for Shoe Away Hunger.

FEBRUARY'S MINDFUL ACTIVITY - MOVIES THAT BRING US JOY

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 25, 2:00PM, AMBROSE/TERESA ROOM

Last movie will be Miracle (2004). Doors will open at 2:00pm for seating and movie theater treats. Films begin at 2:30pm. No charge. Please register at mary.org/mentalhealth.

BECOMING HUMAN: DISMANTLING RACISM

Becoming Human is a series of six online workshops on the roots of white supremacy and steps we can take to engage more humanely with others. The Basilica will offer this course, designed by faculty at the University of St. Thomas, free of charge during Lent. Members will watch short lectures independently and come together every other week on Zoom to share learnings and envision ways to enact a new future.

Modules include a look into white supremacy and the American legal system, the war on drugs, mass incarceration, the white savior complex, and using our gifts as well as tools such as the Blackness of God to bring personal and social transformation. Our group will meet together on Zoom for six alternating Thursday evenings from 6:00-7:30pm beginning Thursday, February 23. If you're interested in participating, send an email to Ric Blanchard at ricblanchard@gmail.com.

USE YOUR VOICE FOR JUSTICE: UNITED FOR LIFE

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 10:00-2:30PM, MINNESOTA STATE CAPITAL, ST. PAUL

Join Catholics from throughout the Archdiocese for United for Life, a pro-life advocacy day at the Minnesota State Capitol. Together, we will care for women, children, and families by inspiring legislators to fight for the fundamental rights of all human beings, from conception to natural death. You will get to hear from a variety of inspiring speakers. This free event at the Capitol will include a rally, educational opportunities, and meetings with your lawmakers. For more information contact John at 7chomm@gmail.com or 612.827.1797. Register at archspm.org/united-for-life.

2023 HOMELESS DAY ON THE HILL

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 8, 2023 STARTING AT 8:00AM

We believe that everyone deserves a safe, dignified, affordable place to call home and that homelessness is preventable. Join with others in the Twin Cities to advocate to end homelessness with lawmakers in your legislative district. We will meet at Central Presbyterian Church at 500 Cedar St, Saint Paul, MN 55101 for opening program. Later, we will make our way to the Capitol meet lawmakers. Register at mnhomelesscoalition.org.

FOCUS ON STILLNESS AND PEACE

SATURDAY, MARCH 4, 1:00-3:00PM, TERESA OF CALCUTTA HALL

Join Sarah Dutton as we learn moment by moment mindful living strategies that anyone can practice, at any time. Mindful living entails paying attention, on purpose, in the present moment, and without judgement. For more info contact Janet at jgrove@mary.org. Register at mary.org/mentalhealth.

COMMON GOOD

THRESHOLD MINISTRY

If you or a loved one have begun end of life care, The Basilica Threshold Singers are available to offer sacred songs and hymns of light and hope in a gentle blessing to open hearts, quiet fears and bring light to all who are present. Visits are held in confidence and there is no charge. Please contact Wendy at 612.317.3474 to request this ministry.

HOMEBOUND COMMUNION MINISTRY

We know that sometimes, despite our deepest desires, we are unable to get to Mass anymore. Perhaps aging or disease has made it impossible for us to celebrate Mass with the faithful as we find movement restricted and independence more limited. Or perhaps we are recovering from surgery and need communion visits for a short duration of time. The Basilica assigns a Homebound Communion minister to visit people on a regular basis, to pray with them, and to bring the Body of Christ. Please contact Wendy at 612.317.3474 or wcaduff@mary.org to request this ministry for a Basilica parishioner.

BASILICA BOOK CLUB

Join us the first Thursday of each month at 10:00am at The Basilica for thoughtful and courageous conversation. Contact Karen for further details at 612.872.7535.

CAN YOU ORDER PIZZA?

We have a volunteer opportunity that is as simple as picking up the phone and ordering pizza – and you don't even have to pay for it! During the week of March 5, The Basilica is providing food for 3-4 families without housing who are being sheltered in a hotel through the "Families Moving Forward" program of Beacon Interfaith Housing Collaborative. And, it doesn't have to be pizza – any kind of tasty kid-friendly meals are just fine. To learn more about this delicious opportunity, contact Mary at 612.669.5213 or mcubujold@yahoo.com. We are also seeking a volunteer who could pick up groceries for the families.

IBELIEVE IN ONE GOD, THE FATHER ALMIGHTY, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic, and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Ho - ly, Ho - ly, Ho - ly Lord God of hosts.

Heav - en and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

(Please kneel as you are able.)

THE LORD'S PRAYER (Please stand as you are able.)

GREETING OF PEACE

LAMB OF GOD

LeBlanc

Lamb of God, you take a - way the sins of the world, have mer - cy on us. Lamb of God, you take a - way the sins of the world, grant us peace.

INVITATION TO COMMUNION

Priest: Behold the Lamb of God, behold him who takes away the sins of the world. Blessed are those called to the supper of the Lamb.

Assembly: Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

COMMUNION PROCESSION The Hand of the Lord Feeds Us

The hand of the Lord feeds us. God an - swers all our needs. God an - swers all our needs.

MEDITATION

9:30

All Things New
Elaine Hagenberg, (b. 1979)
The Basilica Cathedral Choir

Light after darkness, gain after loss,
Strength after weakness, crown after cross;
Sweet after bitter, hope after fears,
Home after wandering, praise after tears.
Alpha and Omega, beginning and the end,
He is making all things new.
Springs of living water shall wash away each tear,
He is making all things new.

Sight after mystery, sun after rain,
Joy after sorrow, peace after pain;
Near after distant, gleam after gloom,
Love after loneliness, life after tomb.
