My dear friends,

Today I would like to take this opportunity to wish each of you a very blessed and happy new year. I invite you to spend a little time today reflecting on a reading from 1 John 2:20, “You have the anointing that comes from the Holy One and you all have knowledge.” As we say thank you to God for all that has been in 2021, let us say welcome to all that will be in 2022. This year will be one of new beginnings with a deep awareness that it may come with challenges. God loves each of us personally, and He calls to each of us with kindness, honesty, and truth to live with Him just one day at a time, living the Gospel simply and among God’s people.

The new year is a time to accept yourself just as you are, where you are: aggressive, lustful, fearful, or shy and withdrawn, happy, optimistic, or whatever. Notice your feelings, because our Lord speaks to us in our feelings. Allow God to work with your faults, your limitations, and your gifts. Recognize them, feel them, and accept them. Keep moving to the center of your being where our Divine Love waits to welcome you. The present moment contains the words of Jesus, “I am with you always even to the end of time.”

I pray that this year our Lord and Savior will lay His healing hands upon each of us and give us the graces needed to live happy and holy lives bringing the Glory and honor to our Lord and Savior.

I wish you joy and lots of laughter,
Sister Mary Antonice Delury, O.S.F., Pastoral Care

GOSPEL MEDITATION
Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

“We are called to live our baptism every day, as new creatures, clothed in Christ.”
— Pope Francis

What reference point do you use when making decisions? Many times, impulse takes control and decisions are made based solely on emotion and desire. We all know that these types of decisions can often get us into trouble. When a person has a confident sense of who they are and a real understanding of what is important and of value, the likelihood of kneejerk impulsive choices diminishes. Baptism gives us what we need to make well informed and purposeful decisions. By this simple gesture, God claims us as His own and provides us with the identity and purpose we need to properly live life.

It is tremendously reassuring, when we truly embrace this revelation and realize that we no longer have to wonder about the purpose of our lives or struggle to find our way. The answer of who we are in God has been given to us. We no longer have to fumble around, trip over ourselves or walk aimlessly about. Issues surrounding the sacredness of life, the meaning of death, the protection of those most vulnerable, care for the weak and the poor, offering hospitality to those in search of a home, the purpose and proper place of work, how to create a just social order, caring for creation, and understanding our roles as heralds and stewards are just a few of the wonderful gifts baptism brings. When we make decisions based on things such as these core Gospel truths we really act as Christ himself, revealing to others the new creations that we are. This is how we live our baptism.

It is difficult to walk against the tide. Yet, that is precisely what baptism calls us to do. Although we are sinners, in need of mercy and far from perfection, we are called to order our life and make decisions based upon the wisdom and guidance of Almighty God. He alone is the one who can claim us as His sons and daughters. Standing up for our principles will not make us popular. But who ever said Christianity is a popularity contest? Baptism calls us to stand up for that which goes against the grain of secularism. Standing in line with other sinners, we have our anchor to steady us in the tempests of life and God is very pleased. Forge ahead. There is nothing to fear.
EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP
Recognize God In Your Ordinary Moments
I Hope I Am Like Him

“Who is this Christ? Is he like you?”
Perhaps you’ve heard this story, often attributed to the life of St. Teresa of Calcutta. A sick man asked her this question, as he marveled at her tireless service to herself and others in the name of someone named Jesus Christ.

“He is nothing like me,” the saint is said to have answered. “But I hope I am like him.”
Though the authenticity of this exchange cannot be verified, its message rings perfectly true: all the value of our stewardship lies in its relativity to the one in whose name we perform it.

Consider the figure of John the Baptist — a magnificent, towering character even purely from a literary or historical perspective. A martyr who fed on wild locusts and boldly spoke truth to power — a man so great some mistook him for the Messiah.

But why is he great? Because he prepared the way. All his accomplishments and escapades mean nothing if they are taken out of the context of salvation history. He only makes sense relative to Christ — and this is exactly as he wanted it. “One worthier than I is coming,” he insists. And because of that humility and that total embrace of God’s will, he is given one of the greatest honors in the New Testament — he baptizes the Son of God.

Let’s examine our lives in the light of their relativity to Christ. How do we prepare the way? When Christ comes to us, what do we do? How do we leave ourselves open to be actors in God’s plan?

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK
Invite Parishioners to Reflect and Respond to Scripture

First Reading
The prophet Isaiah was called to bring words of comfort and good news to the beleaguered Israelites held captive in Babylon. How do you minister to those in your life struggling to find God’s presence?

Second Reading
Paul taught Titus that baptized believers are called “to live temperately, justly, and devoutly.” How well do you think you live by this moral and ethical standard?

Gospel Reading
We hear today the account of the baptism of Jesus and God’s words from heaven, “You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased.” What do you imagine Jesus did (prior to the start of his public ministry) that was so pleasing to God?

Totus Tuus
"Totally Yours"

is coming to SJA this summer!

Save the dates: July 17-22, 2022

NEW TO SJA! An exciting week-long summer faith experience for grade school and high school youth. A team of ArchSPM seminarians and college students will spend the week with our children to inspire, teach, and lead them in a rich experience of what it is to be Catholic.

Faith, Fun, & Friends...how can you miss? More details coming soon at SSJACS.org

The Archdiocese of Saint Paul and Minneapolis is in need of college-age men and women who have a missionary heart, love children and youth, are committed to their Catholic faith, and who feel called to share it with the youth from local parishes. The position is a two-month commitment (June 3 – July 30), which includes one week of training and one week break for the 4th of July. Each team member will receive $2,520 for their work. The deadline to register is February 1, 2022. You could be spending one of those weeks with our SJA parish youth.

Our Hands of Christ Spotlight Ministry
Parish Family Emergency Needs Fund
Helping those in our SJA community!

A small portion of the Hands of Christ collection goes into the Parish Family Emergency Needs Fund (PFEN). The purpose of the PFEN Fund is to meet urgent needs of registered individual parishioners and their immediate household families. This fund has been approved to also include current staff members of SJA/SACS. The distribution of this fund will be at the discretion of the Pastor in consultation with the Parish Business Administrator, based upon an application to request assistance. The names of recipients will not be published in the bulletin, to protect the privacy of individual parishioners. Persons seeking assistance must fill out a PFEN application and submit supporting documents which demonstrate the need. No payments will be made directly to an individual or family. Confidentiality concerning the name and specific circumstances surrounding the request will be maintained. Ten percent of the monthly Hands of Christ collection, with a maximum of $2,000 per month, is designated for this fund.
