PASTORAL LETTER FROM REVEREND MICHAEL BECKER

CONSECRATION OF RUSSIA

As I write this column, Pope Francis is scheduled to consecrate Russia and Ukraine to the Immaculate Heart of Mary on Friday, March 25, 2022, during a Penance service in St Peter's Basilica. The same act is simultaneously to be performed in Fatima by Cardinal Konrad Krajewski. The reason for the consecration is because on July 13, 1917, in Fatima, Portugal, our Lady appeared to three little children and asked for the consecration of Russia to her Immaculate Heart, stating that if this request was not fulfilled, Russia would spread "its errors throughout the world, promoting wars and persecution of the Church." She continued, "The good will be martyred; the Holy Father will have much to suffer, various nations will be destroyed." On October 31, 1942, Pope Pius XII made a consecration of the whole world to the Immaculate Heart of Mary and on March 25, 1984, Pope John Paul II did the same. The actions of the two popes no doubt contributed to the end of WWII and the dismantling of the Soviet bloc. Sister Lucia of Fatima confirmed that the solemn and universal acts fulfilled what our Lady asked for at Fatima. Nevertheless, I cannot help but think that we need more from Russia. The world needs Russia to return wholeheartedly to her Christian roots and in so doing to put an end to communistic atheism. Furthermore, as she is the springboard for modern day abortion, it would be fitting that she of all countries would eliminate the tragic holocaust, becoming a witness for all other countries to follow suit. Finally, she is the lynchpin for Christian unity. Should the Russian Orthodox Church find it in her heart and theology to reunite with the Roman Catholic Church, many other Orthodox Churches and even Protestants would find tremendous inspiration to join the movement, fulfilling a great desire which rests in the heart of Jesus: "I pray . . . that they may all be one, as you, Father, are in me and I in you, that they also may be in us, that the world may believe that you sent me" (John 18:20-21).

The glorious Russian Orthodox Church has some great saints, including the wonder-working St. Seraphim of Sarov who became a monk, and then in turn a hermit! One day bandits came to his hermitage in the woods to steal what they could find. They beat him with the wood of an ax until he fell unconscious. As a result, he walked hunchback for the rest of his life. Nevertheless, St. Seraphim went to the courts, interceding on behalf of the robbers, forgiving them entirely. A disciple named Motovilov once interviewed St. Seraphim, but could hardly look at the holy man, for St. Seraphim's face was "brighter than the sun." A second holy man of the Russian Orthodox Tradition is St. John of San Francisco, also known as John of Shanghai, because he served in China for a time as a bishop in the Russian Orthodox Church outside of Russia. When the communists took over in China, he and other Russian Orthodox members fled to the Philippines, a number ultimately landing on the west coast of the United States. St. John of San Francisco lived a very holy life, full of fasting and prayer. He ardently loved and served the sick, orphans and widows. He is an incorruptible saint, his body lying in a glass sarcophagus in the Holy Virgin Cathedral: Joy of All Who Sorrow, on Geary Boulevard in San Francisco, a great place for a spiritual pilgrimage.

I love to pray the Rosary, and I know many of our parishioners do so daily, on behalf of family members, the Church, and world, including Russia. One other spiritual discipline which individuals could undertake as recommended by Mary at Fatima, is the first Saturdays devotion. Our Lady of Fatima promised "to assist at the hour of death with the graces necessary for salvation all those who, in order to make reparation to me, on the First Saturday of five successive months, go to confession, receive Holy Communion, say five decades of the Rosary, and keep me company for a quarter of an hour, meditating on the fifteen mysteries of the Rosary." The Rosary and the First Saturdays Devotion are two great ways to assist in the transformation of our world.

Summer Camp

SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

Can you help sponsor a child this summer?

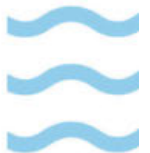

Totus Tuus

In house Summer Experience

Grades 1-12

Catholic summer camps transform the faith life of children and teens! This summer, we are offering three different opportunities to pass on the Catholic faith to new generations:

- "Totus Tuus" Totally Yours camp for children and teens
- "Damascus" Catholic Youth Summer Camp for middle school students
- "Monumental" VBS for Pre-K and Kindergarten students

Damascus

High Adventure Overnight Camp

Grades 5-8

Will you help make it possible for our children and youth to encounter Jesus and to learn how to live a Christ-centered life?

We are asking parishioners to help sponsor these camps to make them more affordable for families. Your gift ensures that new generations will receive the Faith and pass it on to others.

March 2022

Dear friends of Saints Joachim and Anne,

We are reaching out to ask for your support to our JACS JAM parish festival. Shakopee and the surrounding communities have always shown kindness by contributing to our annual event. We rely on the generosity of individuals and businesses to sponsor or donate to ensure its success.

Since 2019, we have given thanks for God's blessings to our parish community with our JACS JAM festival, a celebration that combines delicious food, games and entertainment for all ages, and our Catholic faith. This exciting event unites our community and helps us raise funds for many of the ministries and activities we support through our parish and school.

Be sure to reserve the weekend of August 20 and 21, and plan to join us at our Marystown campus on the outskirts of Shakopee! This family-friendly celebration truly has something to offer for everyone.

We ask you to consider partnering with us to sponsor our festival at one of the levels indicated on the back of this page. A commitment by April 15, ensures you or your business will be recognized on the marketing materials mailed to our parishioners, advertising promoted in the community, and our .5K Donut Dawdle event T-shirts. If you are not able to contribute at a sponsorship level, we will gratefully accept cash donations, prizes, and items for our great silent auction.

To sponsor, donate, or ask questions, please contact Julie Bennett at jbennett@ssjacs.org or 952-445-1319. We would be happy to arrange to pick up any donations, or you are welcome to drop off or mail them to the Saints Joachim & Anne parish office, located at the site of our parish school (Shakopee Area Catholic School), at 2700 17th Avenue East, in Shakopee, MN 55379.

The JACS JAM festival committee, parishioners of the Parish of Saints Joachim & Anne, and students of families of Shakopee Area Catholic School thank you for considering this offer and for your help in supporting our ministries and activities. We sincerely hope to see you and your families at this year's festival!

Blessings,

"33 DAYS TO MORNING GLORY"

Five-Week Small Group Marian Consecration Retreat

Group will meet on Sundays, April 10 & 24,
May 1 & 8, at 6:30 pm, and a special
Friday, May 13, ceremony & dinner at 6:30 pm.
SJA - Marystown Social Center
15850 Marystown Rd, Shakopee, MN 55379

WHAT IS A MARIAN CONSECRATION?

It means giving Mary permission to complete her motherly role in our spiritual lives of helping us to great holiness in her Son, Jesus. It also means saying, "Mary, I want to be a saint. I know that you also want me to be a saint and that it's your God-given mission to form me into one. So, Mary, at this moment, on this day, I freely choose to give you my full permission to do your work in me, with your Spouse, the Holy Spirit."

Our 33-day preparation for Marian consecration includes:

- Daily readings to reflect on four great Marian giants spiritual wisdom.

ST. LOUIS
DE MONTFORT

ST. MAXIMILIAN
KOLBE

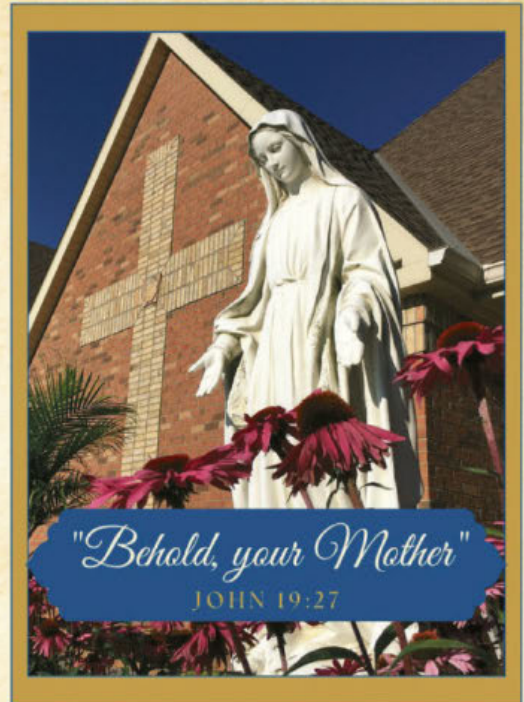

BLESSED MOTHER
TERESA OF CALCUTTA

BLESSED POPE
JOHN PAUL II.

- Sunday evening large group meetings with activities including talks and videos, as well as small group sharing of insights from daily readings.
- Friday, May 13, the Memorial of Our Lady of Fatima, we will consecrate ourselves to Jesus through Mary with a ceremony, dinner, and social.

Going to Mary is the "surest,
easiest, shortest, and the most perfect means" to becoming a Saint.

If you're looking for a simple way to be spiritually renewed, develop a deeper relationship with our Merciful Savior, and grow in holiness, join us for 33 Days to Morning Glory small-group retreat.
