Tolerance is an Active Virtue...

Dear parishioners,

The emerging theme from our scripture readings on this 26th Sunday of Ordinary Time hinges on the importance of tolerance and willingness to sharing God's gift freely without reservation or discrimination. Have we not often tried to fit God into a mold we made of him. Sometimes in our zeal to make sure that Jesus' message will retain all its power and efficaciousness, we fall into the temptation of being either too rigid or too liberal. We corner ourselves to a particular group, or party, or political class. Unfortunately, those who do not belong in any of these groups are denied the access to speak in Jesus' name.

Our society at large is drifting through the cracks of these labels of conservatism, liberalism, and now "wokism." Each party acts as if they alone know and possess the truth. The notion of tolerance emerges forcefully in the first and third readings. Previously, Moses complained to God that burden of governing his people was too much to bear. So, God directed him to select some men who will assist him. God favored a shared responsibility, taking a portion of Moses' charismatic spirit and distributing it among those selected men. The two men Eldad and Medad received the gifts too outside the normal process. Moses trusted aid Joshua objected to them receiving it but Moses overruled his objection. This teaches us to be careful not to over institutionalized everything. We must give room for the Spirit to stir us into action for good work. Sometime it is necessary to resist institutional control especially if it impedes God's work. St. James admonishes us that faith without good work is dead. Therefore, virtuous living becomes a proof of authenticity of a charismatic spirit.

In the gospel, Jesus argues that anyone who engaged in the work of expelling demons in his name even though not part of his company is involved in a good work. The person should not be stopped. The tolerance of Jesus and Moses sheds light on how we ought to approach issues that often bring great conflict, division and war. This is not to say that those who are fraudulent should not be called out. For a fraudulent person lacks the authentic spirit from God. Charity should be extended to those who try to act in the name of the Lord. Some may be misguided, but fraternal correction becomes necessary.

It is part of the spiritual work of mercy to instruct the ignorant, and lead those in error to truth. The Lord admonishes against causing scandal or leading others to sin. To scandalize means to put an obstacle in a person's path. It is deliberately blocking one's journey on the path of virtue. It creates a serious moral injury. And the gravity of such sin can be seen from Jesus' strong condemning curses. We have come a long way in understanding this virtue of tolerance. We are called not to be passive, but inclusive with a positive thrust toward living life.

Tolerance is opposed to bigotry, racism, or sexism. No restriction can be placed on God's action and neither should we stand in the way. Saint James continues to punch harder in his usual straightforward manner addressing issues concerning social injustice. His words speak powerfully today to our current societal ills. He admonished against corruption in all levels of the society, especially the exploitation of the poor. Jesus, Moses and James call us to action, to do good and make room for tolerance in church, society and business. Tolerance is an active virtue that opens our hearts and broadens our visions.

In his mercy, I remain sincerely yours in Christ

Fr. Vitalis Anyanike,
Pastor

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP- RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOU

Breaking the Stewardship Mold

Have you noticed how we always tend to pigeonhole one another — and ourselves? “I could never serve on the Parish Council. That’s for Rick and Ellen and that whole group of people who have done it for years.” “Greg takes care of faith formation in the parish — he always has. He doesn’t need my help.” “I can’t afford to give the big bucks like those families who sit up front can. My offering wouldn’t matter even if I did increase it.”

Thinking like this is a good indication that we aren’t in conversation with God about what His will is for our lives. If we have already decided what we are and are not meant to do, we aren’t likely to pray over it, to discern it.

We have to be open to the spirit of the Lord wherever it leads us, regardless of what we or others have come to expect from us. We human beings come to believe that we are such good judges of what others can offer — or what we ourselves can offer. But God has plans for us to which we aren’t privy. God calls everyone to serve Him in the way that pleases Him best, and only He can decide what that is. Everyday Stewardship demands a continual accounting of who we can be, what we can offer — even if it’s outside our comfort zone, even if it’s something that never occurred to us before.

There’s only one Person who can tell us what God wants from us. Do we even think to ask Him?

STAND UP FOR LIFE Life Chain 2021

Our task is not simply to pray, but to pray God's will. And what is His will? That His people would humble themselves, pray, seek His face, and turn from evil. Then, He will hear, He will forgive, and He will heal. His eyes will open, and His ears will hear our prayers.

This is why, since 1987, LIFE CHAIN has sought to lead the body of Christ in repentance and prayer regarding legalized abortion. We exist as a call to the Church—to humble, pray, seek, and turn. When we gather together, and come before our God, we believe that hearts will change.

Please join our Parish section of The Life Chain from 2:00 –3:00 pm on October 3rd at 66th-67th Dodge Street (north side). A tailgate sponsored by our Knights of Columbus and Respect Life Group will follow after the event. Your one hour of witness could change a mother's decision, a father's decision, or a family decision.
