Nicene Creed

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead
and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Gloria in excelsis

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins
of the world,
have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our
prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone
are the Most High,
Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

Remember in prayer: Lillian Hemmen, Emmett & Bernadette Schumann, Eileen Barreca, Starla Himebaugh, Carolyn Erickson, Ken Magsamen, Darrell Stortz, Tex Pentecost, Cheryl Mills (sister of Peg Short), Rafael Saumell (son-in-law of Bill & Pat Offerman), Patricia Ehr, Steve Isley

VOCATION VIEWS

The three kings in today's Gospel traveled a great distance at considerable cost to offer their richest gifts to the Infant Jesus. How far will I go and what will I offer to do homage to this newborn King and Savior?

8th grade parents!

Indee H.S will hold their 2022-2023 "To Be" 9th grade registration night on Tuesday, February 1st at 6:30 p.m. in the auditorium. This is a very important meeting for all current 8th graders and their parents/guardians to attend. They will go over freshmen schedules, four year plans, and how to register for next year's classes online. They will also create an account with Hawkeye Community College that evening. The purpose of creating an account with Hawkeye is because throughout the course of a student's high school career they will likely take at least one course which is worth college credit (most of our shop classes, several FCS classes are worth college credit!) and they must have an account created to do so. They ask students to bring their chromebook, a writing utensil, and their social security number (must have) in order to complete registration that evening. They look forward to seeing you on February 1st.

New Year's Blessings:

Our lives are made of days and nights, of seasons and years, for we are part of a universe of suns and moons and planets.

We mark ends and we make beginnings and, in all, we praise God for the grace and mercy that fill our days.

Let us now pray for God's blessing in the new year.

Remember us, O God;

from age to age be our comforter.

You have given us the wonder of time,

blessings in days and nights, seasons and years.

Bless your children at the turning of the year

and fill the months ahead with the bright hope that is ours in the coming of Christ.

You are our God, living and reigning, forever and ever. Amen.

New to the Area--

Welcome to the John Paul II Cluster!

We are delighted that you've joined us for worship during this great season, and we hope that you'll return to pray with us often. As a church community, St. John's and St. Patrick's, we offer lots of services to our members in addition to our weekly worship. If you have moved into the area or are now an adult with your own household, we invite you to become a member. Feel free to call the cluster office at 319-344-7191 if you would like to join, or have questions about our parishes.

From the Desk of Fr. Beckman:

"When Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, in the days of King Herod, behold, magi from the east arrived in Jerusalem (Matthew 2:1). This week we have an opportunity to reflect on the universality of the Church and celebrate the multicultural society and Church that are witnesses to the inclusiveness that Christ asks of us in the work of his redemption. In the Gentile magi, the divisions of culture, religion, and nationality are reconciled as we proclaim in Psalm 72: "Lord, every nation on earth will adore you." This is the first instance of God expanding the Abrahamic Covenant beyond the Israelites. For nearly 2000 years, Abraham is usually listed as 1850 B.C., the Hebrews/Jews/Israelites have been God's chosen people. Now, with the arrival of Jesus, the promise of God's kingdom expands to include all of humanity – Jew and Gentile alike. This is modeled for us when the emissaries from a completely different country arrive to honor him and claim Jesus as their Lord too.

This week's readings are all about people from different cultures and tribes coming together to celebrate the Lord. In the first reading, Isaiah describes a caravan of nations gathering in the light of the Lord. In the second reading, Paul makes the case for salvation outside of the Jewish faith when he informs the Ephesians that "Gentiles are coheirs, members of the same body, and copartners in the promise in Christ Jesus through the Gospel" (Ephesians 3:5-6). The special covenant between God and Abraham now extends to all nations, including those outside the Hebrew faith. This isn't something Paul proposes for the first time in his letter to the Ephesians. It begins the week Jesus is born, when the leaders of nations with no ethnic relation to Israel come and pay a tiny Hebrew boy homage.

The Bible does not number or name the magi, but it is an eighth century saint and first English historian Bede the Venerable who named them Melchior, Caspar, and Balthasar, thus numbering three. In the gifts the magi offer to the Christ Child, there is again the hint of the paschal mystery: the myrrh of embalming anticipating the great sacrifice of his life for the forgiveness of sins, the frankincense that fragrancd the temple sacrifices and burned before the holy of holies, and the gold of precious value fit for a king. The magi return home by another route because they have been changed and now live another life with the Christ Child to guide them. The new light that has come into the world.

The most important gift we can offer Christ – the gift that is worth more than gold, frankincense, and myrrh – is the wealth of our love for him. The oblation/offering/sacrifice of our love in service of him each time we come to Mass and receive his precious body and blood. In this way, we say to him I want to be united to you, now, and for all eternity. I want to make the sacrifice to serve others in your name out of love for God and my neighbor worldwide. O star of wonder, star of night, star with royal beauty bright, westward leading, still proceeding, guide us to thy perfect light.
