Happy Feast of the Baptism of the Lord!

Friends, we are celebrating the feast of the Baptism of the Lord this Sunday (01.09.2022). This reminds me of our cute little angels who will be getting baptized in the upcoming days. We have three baptisms scheduled in the next three weeks. How wonderful it is to see our angels getting baptized in the Church. They bring new life into the Church. They bring God's love to our midst with their presence. Thanks to you parents for having your children baptized in God's Church.

I always ask the parents when they come to see me to have their child baptized - what is baptism and what are your Christian responsibilities towards the child? The parents always give me wonderful answers and it's amazing to see the amount of love they have for their children. We all love our children and God loves our children.

By baptism we are all cleansed of our original and actual sins and as a result of that an indelible mark is left on our souls. It is because of this indelible mark we became the children of God forever. When Jesus was baptized God the Father spoke and said, "You are my Son, the beloved; my favor rests on you." When we are / our children are baptized God the Father says over each of us the same words, "You are my son/daughter/child, my beloved; my favor rests on you." What a wonderful sacrament it is that it makes us God's children forever. I believe that today is the perfect day to say a prayer for our parents who had us baptized, the priest or the deacon who baptized us, the baptismal godparents who promised to stand by us and our own baptismal godchildren who we likewise promised to help and guide. Just take a moment and say a prayer. God bless!

Sarah teaches science and religion to middle schoolers at St. Croix Catholic School in Stillwater, MN. She had a simple but deep encounter with the Lord at age 12, at which point she committed to daily prayer and love of God. Now, her greatest joy is teaching her students (average age 12) how to properly interpret the scripture, how to hear God speaking in prayer and how to respond to Him. After graduating high school she spent two years as a missionary with NET Ministries where she helped lead over 130 retreats. She then went on to study Theology, Evangelization, Catechesis, as well as Education at Benedictine College.
