Synod on Synodality

Dear friends in Christ Jesus, you might have noticed that we are reciting the Synodal prayer to the Holy Spirit during the Masses. You might have also heard during the Masses to mark your calendars for our parish cluster gathering on February 26, Saturday at St. Anne Church Basement from 9:00 am – 11:30 am. What is this synod all about? And how are we to participate in the synodal process? Let me explain this:

In 2023 Pope Francis and all the Bishops of the world are coming together and they would like to know what's happening in the local churches. The main theme for this upcoming synod is "Communion, Participation, and Mission". It has been nicknamed the "synod on synodality"—a term that, despite Pope Francis' efforts to popularize it, may still leave some scratching their heads.

To understand synodality, we first need to understand what a synod is. Simply put, a synod is a meeting or assembly of church leaders. The idea of a synod has New Testament roots in Acts 15.

If we look a few years back we see that Pope Francis had held extraordinary synods, like those on the family, young people and the Amazon, more often than previous popes. The scope of extraordinary synods has also expanded under Pope Francis: Before each gathering, he has urged bishops to hold local listening sessions in their dioceses, and he has invited more laypeople to participate in the bishops' meetings in Rome.

What is synodality?

"Synodality" refers to the way that these synods make decisions. It is a model that includes listening to a broad range of people and then discussing the issues together with the goal of hearing where the Holy Spirit is calling the church. Practically, Pope Francis has said, this means not entering the discussion with the idea that there will be "winners" who get their way and "losers" who do not but leaving agendas at the door, speaking with parrhesia (a Greek word that appears in the New Testament and means "frankness," "boldness" or "courage"), listening humbly and being open to others' ideas. In theory, no topic is off-limits, and disagreement is welcome.

After the discussions, the bishops of the synod draft a document and vote, paragraph by paragraph, to approve it. The pope uses that document to inform his decisions following the synod.

Ultimately, the goal is to reach a consensus, which does not always mean the idea that most people support will be embraced by the pope. For example, during the Synod on the Amazon, the majority of bishops voted in support of allowing married men to be ordained priests in order to ameliorate the priest shortage in the region. Pope Francis chose not to go forward with approving the proposal because, as he revealed in a personal note to the Jesuit journal La Civiltà Cattolica, he believed the majorities decision did not reveal a true consensus reached through prayerful discernment.

"There was a discussion...a rich discussion...a well-founded discussion, but no discernment, which is something different from arriving at a good and justified consensus or relative majority," he wrote. "We must understand that the Synod is more than a parliament; and in this specific case it could not escape this dynamic." (To Be Continued...)

(Please note that some of the above information is taken from the article in the America Magazine titled "What is Synod" dated on 10.08.2021)

First Confession Humor...
 En route to church to make his first confession, my nervous seven-year-old grandson asked me what he could expect.
 "Confession is where you tell all the bad things you've done to the priest," I told him. He looked relieved.
 "Good. I haven't done anything bad to the priest."

Congratulations! Each year, St. Anne Catholic School recognizes and honors a Distinguished Alum and Advocate. This year's Distinguished Alum is Ann (Schachtner) Austreng. Ann's four daughters currently attend our school and Ann is our Home and School committee co-chair. Mrs. Thate always keeps our school and students in her prayers and can be found in the front pew during our weekly children's Masses. Thank you, Ann and Rosann for the many ways you promote and share your love of Catholic education with others!
