APRIL 17, 2022 (EASTER SUNDAY)

FROM FATHER TOM

Brothers and Sisters,

Happy Easter! I wish you and your family the peace and joy of the risen Lord.

We hear the Victimae Paschali Laudes proclaimed at the Easter Sunday Mass. We know it commonly as the Easter Sequence. A short piece of poetry before the Gospel is proclaimed. It is meant to help us focus our hearts and minds on the resurrection of Jesus Christ. The sequence evokes images of sacrifice and new life. A moment within the celebration of Mass to let our hearts be caught up in the tremendous love of God and the wonderful gift of new and everlasting life that Jesus wins and gifts to us today. I hope that you would prayerfully read through the Sequence and let Easter joy fill you with hope, life, and peace.

God bless you,
Fr. Tom

Victimae Paschali Laudes (Easter Sequence)

Christians, to the Paschal Victim Offer your thankful praises! A Lamb the sheep redeems Christ, who only is sinless, Reconciles sinners to the Father. Death and life have contended in that combat stupendous: The Prince of life, who died, reigns immortal. Speak, Mary, declaring What you saw, wayfaring. "The tomb of Christ, who is living, The glory of Jesus' resurrection; bright angels attesting, The shroud and napkin resting. Yes, Christ my hope is arisen; to Galilee he goes before you." Christ indeed from death is risen, our new life obtaining. Have mercy, victor King, ever reigning! Amen. Alleluia.

SUNDAY'S READINGS

FIRST READING:
This man God raised on the third day and granted that he be visible, not to all the people, but to us, the witnesses chosen by God in advance, who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. (Acts 10:40-41)

PSALM:
This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad. (Ps 118)
Or Alleluia.

SECOND READING:
Think of what is above, not of what is on earth. For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. (Col 3:2-3)

GOSPEL:
For they did not yet understand the Scripture that he had to rise from the dead. (In 2023)

Saint of the Week

St. Anselm of Canterbury left his home in Italy to travel as a young man and ended up at the monastery in Bec, France, which was known for the teachings of its leader, Lanfranc. Anselm rose quickly to become abbot of the community and his writings are now compared in importance to those of St. Augustine.

In 1093 Anselm was appointed Archbishop of Canterbury by William II Rufus, the son and successor of William the Conqueror. However, at the time there was a controversy in Europe over whether kings or the pope had the power to invest bishops. Anselm, who believed only the pope should have the right to invest an ecclesiastical authority, spent much of his time as Archbishop exiled in Rome.

St. Anselm's teaching and works of theology are his most important contribution to the Catholic faith. He is considered of the fathers of scholastic theology and his chief achievement in philosophy was the ontological argument for the existence of God. His work, Cur Deus homo? taught that atonement for sins could only be achieved through Christ. He was canonized in 1494 and named a Doctor of the Church in 1720.

Gospel Meditation

What are the "fruits" of holy Communion? The Eucharist, like all sacraments, offers its own unique grace. We receive a special share in God's life that helps us in our faith journey. We are given all we need to sustain and nurture our relationship with God. The Eucharist is the source and summit of the Christian life. Everything we are and everything we hope to become is found in this sacrament. It is essential to the life of the church, to each member of the church. Without it, there is no church. The Eucharist is the center of our spiritual life & has enormous effects on our growth, our holiness, and our way of life.

The fruits of holy Communion are the benefits one receives from the sacrament. These fruits of holy Communion are discussed in the catechism in the article on the Eucharist. The primary benefit is union with Christ. We become one with him sacramentally, just as we hope to become one with him for eternity. The Eucharist also separates us from sin, both past and future. It forgives the venial sins of the past and, by the love we receive, protects us from mortal sin in the future. The church community is also unified and strengthened by the Eucharist. It unites us to the poor and offers the pledge of eternal life.

CHOOSE JOY IN CHRIST

- Joy in every circumstance. Because of Jesus, we can experience joy in every circumstance – in good times & in difficult situations.
Philippians 1:9-11
- Joy in unity with others. There is joy when people are unified together in peace & love.
Philippians 2:1-2
- Joy that is never ending. Never ending joy is produced in our lives when we have a relationship with God.
Philippians 3:1
- Joy in contentment. No matter what we face, we can be content knowing that God takes care of our needs.
Philippians 4:8-9

SHARING FAITH STORIES

Sharing stories of God at work is one of the best ways to grow in faith together! Here are five great questions to ask at home to get the faith storytelling started.

- Why did God create the world?
- What did Jesus say from the Cross?
- Why did Jesus die on the Cross?
- What is your favorite Bible Story & can you tell it to me in your own words?
- What happens on Easter Sunday?
- Where do we encounter Jesus today?
