APRIL 24, 2022 (DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY)

FROM FATHER TOM

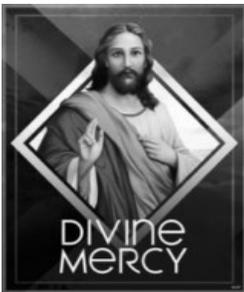

Brothers and Sisters,

This Sunday is Divine Mercy Sunday. Pope St. John Paul II instituted Divine Mercy Sunday on the Second Sunday of Easter and has asked that parishes hold Divine Mercy Devotions on that day. The devotion to Divine Mercy comes from St. Faustina Kowalska's experience of Jesus. She received from Jesus the call to spread devotion to His Divine Mercy. Mankind's need for the message of Divine Mercy took on dire urgency in the 20th Century, when civilization began to experience an "eclipse of the sense of God" and, therefore, to lose the understanding of the sanctity and inherent dignity of human life. In the 1930s, Jesus chose a humble Polish nun, St. Maria Faustina Kowalska, to receive private revelations concerning Divine Mercy that were recorded in her Diary. On May 5, 2000, five days after the canonization of St. Faustina, the Vatican decreed that the Second Sunday of Easter would henceforth be known as Divine Mercy Sunday. Then pope, St. John Paul II stated, "This was precisely the time when those ideologies of evil, nazism and communism, were taking shape. Sister Faustina became the herald of the one message capable of off-setting the evil of those ideologies, that fact that God is mercy—the truth of the merciful Christ. And for this reason, when I was called to the See of Peter, I felt impelled to pass on those experiences of a fellow Pole that deserve a place in the treasury of the universal Church." Pope Saint John Paul II, Memory and Identity (2005)

As a parish we will celebrate the Divine Mercy of the Lord with prayer and veneration of the Divine Mercy image this afternoon beginning at 2:00 pm. Please see the schedule of events in the bulletin. Deacon Scott will give a presentation on Divine Mercy, we will have veneration of the image of Divine Mercy, exposition/adoration, and benediction of the Blessed Sacrament, reciting of the Divine Mercy Chaplet, and confession will be available.

Just a few of the promises the Lord makes to those who participate in the Divine Mercy Sunday devotions:

- "I promise that the soul that will venerate this image (of Divine Mercy) will not perish. I also promise victory over (its) enemies already here on earth, especially at the hour of death. I Myself will defend it as My own glory."
- "I desire that the Feast of Mercy...be solemnly celebrated on the first Sunday after Easter...The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion (in a state of grace on this day) shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment."
- "The souls that say this chaplet will be embraced by My mercy during their lifetime and especially at the hour of their death."

Sunday Divine Mercy Celebration
2:00 pm Talk & Veneration of the Divine Mercy Image.
2:30 pm Exposition
3:00 pm Divine Mercy Chaplet
3:30 pm Benediction
 *Confessions to be heard during the celebration.
 *Social with food and refreshments after Benediction.

LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

Life is about to get very interesting for the disciples. Finding themselves questioning what happened to Jesus and whether he actually was raised from the dead, they are afraid and uncertain. In the midst of this fear, questioning, and uncertainty, Jesus decides to surprise them with a visit! This visit, complete with the gift of peace, fills the disciples with great excitement and joy. But their detailed testimony is not enough to convince their absent friend Thomas. He wants to see for himself. We struggle with belief as well. It is hard for some to give themselves over to the testimony of another. We want to see the resurrected Christ in person. God, through the gift of eyes of faith, gives us the ability to do precisely that: when we witness the healing that comes from forgiveness, the beauty that flows from love, the wonder of creation, the new life that comes after we fall, and the unique soul that lives behind each person's life. Christ is risen. Life will get very interesting for us too, when we stop unbelieving and believe!

SUNDAY, APRIL 24, 2022 | 2ND SUNDAY OF EASTER

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Central America's first saint, St. Pedro de San José Betancur (1626-1667) was born a poor shepherd in the Canary Islands. His family lands were seized because of debt, and he worked as an indentured servant until his early adult life when Pedro left his home to travel to Guatemala. His money for the journey ran out long before he arrived. He was destitute when he did arrive and was forced to join the bread line the Franciscan Friars had for the poor.

In 1655, he joined the Third Order of St. Francis. Pedro began to serve the poor, the enslaved, immigrants, abandoned children, anyone that needed him. In 1658 he was given a hut which he made into a hospital for the poor. This small start grew into a shelter for the homeless, a school for the poor, an inn for priests, and several small chapels in poor areas. He was supported by many patrons and was joined in his work by both men and women, who became the Bethlehemite Brothers and the Bethlehemite Sisters.

Pedro prayed for the souls of those in purgatory, walked through the streets of rich neighborhoods ringing a bell and calling the wealthy to repent, and ministered to prisoners. Most accounts credit him with beginning the tradition of posadas, a procession in which people representing Mary and Joseph ask for lodging from their neighbors. This tradition continues today in Mexico and Central America. Because of his work with the poor and marginalized Pedro is often referred to as the "Saint Frances of the Americas". St. Pedro was canonized on July 30, 2002, in Guatemala City, Guatemala by Pope John Paul II.

Child & Youth Faith Formation

RCIA

Please join me in welcoming Ben Mitchell, Matthew Hollermann, Greg Holzer to St Joachim Parish and Gretchen Meyer & Peyton Breuer to the Immaculate Conception Parish. Together we've completed a wonderful journey into our Catholic faith through our RCIA program. Let's all of us welcome them with open arms and say Hi when you see them!

Plant Sale

On both May 7-8 & May 14-15 after both Masses we'll have a plant sale in the Narthex with proceeds going to our youth summer camps. Thank you for your support!

Confirmation Service Project

One of our Confirmation Faith Sharing Groups made breakfast bags for The Ronald McDonald House in Rochester. A lot of the kids that stay there have early morning appointments so the breakfast bags are a quick grab to take for the day. The bags included a granola bar, applesauce, juice box, a bottle of water, an Easter egg plus a short written message of support and hope for them. Thank you Heidi Loftus and Amy Walch for organizing this and all the students for your work!
