JUNE 12, 2022 (THE MOST HOLY TRINITY)

FROM FATHER TOM

Brothers and Sisters,

A hallmark of a vibrant and flourishing parish community is always seen in two elements. Those elements are relationships and outreach. This Sunday we celebrate the Solemnity of the Holy Trinity. This is the central belief of our faith that God is one God in three persons, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. We see in the Holy Trinity, a relationship of communion. That is to say, each member of the Holy Trinity is united in action and love with each other. The relationship produces a love that is enduring and eternal. From this relationship of love goodness reaches out beyond the persons of the Holy Trinity and becomes creative. The universe and everything in it are a result of the outreaching love of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

As a parish community we are meant to emulate the community of the Holy Trinity. In relationship as we worship, pray, and actively love with my fellow parishioners, and also for my fellow parishioners. When we do this through our worship of God at Mass, in individual, family, and communal prayer we actively imitate the community of the Holy Trinity. Strong relationships, ones free of comparison and judgment make a parish community that can transform the secular community. The outreach that comes from a community united in heart and mind brings to its corner of the world the power of divine love. That love, the same love shared and lived in the Holy Trinity, can build up, heal, and bring comfort.

The Holy Trinity overflowed in creative love and we are the good result of that overflowing love. Where does the world and our local community need this love and goodness flowing from the hearts of St. Joachim's parishioners? Ponder that question and then let's act as our God has acted. To create, build up, heal, and give life.

God bless you,
Fr. Tom

Respect Life

"In modern times, children in their mothers' wombs and those approaching the end of their lives are certainly among the 'least of these' in our world's estimation. Practices such as abortion and assisted suicide tragically reject the truth that human life is always to be cherished and defended with loving concern. ... Through the intercession of Our Lady of Guadalupe, may Our Lord grant us the grace to truly and courageously live his Gospel of life."

MINISTRY CORNER

Fall Festival Planning Team

Our Fall Festival is an important fundraiser for our parish and a great time to gather as a parish family in faith, service and fun. As many hands make light the work, we need several volunteers to plan and carry out the many events of the Fall Festival. Could you lend us your heart and hands for this wonderful cause? It is a great way to get to know people in our parish and a beautiful way to serve our Lord and His church.

Please contact Sharon at 534-3321 to offer your helping hands.

Thank you!

SUNDAY'S READINGS

FIRST READING:

"When there were no depths I was brought forth,
when there were no fountains of springs of water,
before the mountains were settled into place,
before the hills, I was brought forth;
while as yet the earth and fields were not made,
nor the first clods of the world." (Prv 8:24-26)

PSALM:

O Lord, our God, how wonderful your name in all the earth!
(Ps 8)

SECOND READING:

The love of God has been poured out into our hearts
through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.
(Rom 5:5)

GOSPEL:

"Everything that the Father has is mine;
for this reason I told you that he will take from what is mine and declare it to you." (Jn 16:15)

OBSERVANCES FOR THE WEEK OF JUNE 12, 2022

Sunday: The Most Holy Trinity
Tuesday: Flag Day
Next Sunday: The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ; St. Romuald, Abbot; Father's Day

Saint of the Week

Saint Germaine was born in Pibrac, France in 1579 to poor parents. Her story is a heart wrenching one. She was born with a deformed right arm and hand, and her mother died when she was an infant. Her father remarried, but her stepmother brutally abused and neglected her.

As a child Germaine suffered from scrofula, a disfiguring form of tuberculosis which causes swelling and lesions on the side of the neck. Already sick, abused, and starving, she was forced to sleep in barn with sheep she tended.

Despite everything, Germaine lived each day tending her flock with joy and in prayer. Mary and Jesus became her friends. She shared what little she had and taught the children of the village about God's love. A rosary made of string knots was her constant companion. She attended Mass every day, leaving her sheep in care of guardian angels. Her flock was never attacked by wolves and never wandered. Some claimed to see the waters of the flooded river part so she could get to Mass.

She is often portrayed with an apron full of flowers because one winter day her stepmother accused her of stealing bread from the house and hiding it her apron. But when she was seized and forced to open the apron an abundance of spring flowers tumbled forth. It was this incident that compelled the villagers and even her parents to recognize her holiness.

Germaine died at 22, her poor body was found by her father, in the barn where she slept. She was buried in the village church. More than forty years later, her body was accidentally exhumed and found to be incorrupt. She was canonized by Pope Pius IX in 1867 and inscribed into the canon of virgins.
