Season of Passiontide. The last two weeks of Lent comprise the season of Passiontide. As the Church directs her attention in earnest to the sufferings of our Lord, in a sense she now goes into mourning. Anything of joyful sentiment is completely subdued: the statues are draped in violet; the psalm Judica me is omitted at the prayers at the foot of the altar; and the Gloria Patri is absent throughout the Mass, indicating the grave offense against the Holy Trinity through the ploys to arrest and crucify our Savior. Passiontide serves as a great opportunity to renew the resolve of our Lenten penances, which sometimes tends to wane as Lent progresses.

Holy Week. As last year, All Saints has the privilege to use the rites of Holy Week prior to the reforms in 1955, granted by a limited indult to the Fraternity of St. Peter. Some noticeable changes will be in the increased length of the Passion narratives, which begin with the Last Supper, thus tying together the institution of the Holy Eucharist and the Crucifixion as one and the same sacrifice. On Good Friday, Holy Communion is only received by the celebrating priest, who alone stands at that liturgy in persona Christi; as it is the day our Lord died, the Church bids the attending faithful to fast from reception of Holy Communion, which in striking fashion brings out the absence of Christ. And the Holy Saturday liturgy is conducted during the day. Further information and some excellent catechesis can be found online at www.pre1955holyweek.com.

As was announced, along with solemn Masses throughout the week, we will be blessed to have Bishop Cozzens celebrate the Mass for Holy Thursday; Bishop Joseph Perry, an auxiliary of Chicago and good friend to the Fraternity, will celebrate the liturgies on Good Friday and Holy Saturday. The 10:30 morning Mass on Easter Sunday will include a small orchestra, as was done at Christmas.

We welcome sixth-year seminarian Brendan Boyce who will assist with the ceremonies and Masses throughout the week. Other seminarians from the local seminary, as well as some local priests, will also visit through the week.

All are strongly encouraged to make the most of this week as possible, as we pray with the Church through our Lord's suffering and death for our salvation. By the grace of God, much is able to be offered liturgically here at All Saints, so consider at least attending the Sacred Triduum. And if at all possible, even with some inconvenience, take Good Friday off from work and attend the afternoon devotions and liturgies; it is the day our Lord died.

Good Friday - Fast and Abstinence. Current Church laws binds anyone between the ages of 21-59 to the fast, which permits for one (meatless) meal and two lighter supplements; eating between meals is not permitted; water, black coffee, or tea do not break the fast. Abstinence from meat and meat products applies to anyone 14 years and older.

Park 'n' Walk. While cleanup of the Parish Center debris should be near completion, it is possible that the parking lot may not be available by Good Friday. Parking on Good Friday may be a little more challenging since the Webster school is in session. The lot at Webster can be utilized outside of school hours. When parking on the street, please be sure not to block the driveways of the local residents. Thank you for your attention and patience in these regards.

Grocery Apostolate. Anyone who may be interested in being part of a rotating schedule to buy and deliver groceries for the priests, please contact the coordinator Karen Hastreiter at karenhastreiter@yahoo.com for more information. For those interested in doing the same thing for the sisters, please contact the coordinator Carmen Braaten at braaten3@yahoo.com. May God reward your generosity.

Enrollment in Direct Deposit can be done by clicking on the "Online Giving" link on the parish website and creating an account to enable automatic recurring gifts; one-time gifts are also possible through this link without creating an account. Check and cash donations are still welcome, but as the envelope system has been discontinued, for cash donations to be credited for tax purposes, please be sure to put your name and address on the envelope that is used so it can be identified and recorded. Thank you!
