St. Cecilia, Virgin and Martyr, III Class

12:15 PM (Simple High) Coreen Wagenbach

One of the most famous and venerated of Roman martyrs, her body was discovered in 822 and transferred to the church that bears her name in Rome. It is difficult to determine when she lived, although some accounts place her martyrdom during the pontificate of Urban I (222-230). She is the patroness of musicians.

+Tuesday, November 23

Red

St. Clement I, Pope and Martyr, III Class

12:15 PM Steve Elfstrom

The third successor of St. Peter, he governed the Church from A.D. 88 to 97. He is listed in the canon of the Mass and is an author of a pastoral letter to the Corinthians, one of the oldest extant documents of the Church.

+Wednesday, November 24

White

St. John of the Cross, Doctor, III Class

12:15 PM Charles, Sharon, and Jeremy and Jodie

Miller; Shawn Oglesbee Family

One of the greatest masters of the spiritual life, he entered the Carmelites and collaborated with St. Teresa of Avila in the reform of the order. He was a man of complete self-renunciation with a great love of the Cross.

St. Catherine of Alexandria, Virgin and Martyr, III Class

9:00 AM (Thanksgiving Day) Sandy Mouton; Justin

Nelson Family; John Donahue Family; Brian and Sarah Berglof

Legend has made of her a young Christian of Alexandria (Egypt) who rejected the advances of Emperor Maximinus. She is the patron of philosophers.

+Friday, November 26

White

St. Sylvester, Abbot, III Class

7:00 PM Ruth Ann, William, Keely, and Timothy

Lacina; Maria Gerard Lacina, Tasney Broussard

Born of noble parents, when present one day at the funeral of an illustrious man, a relative of his, he was struck by the hideous appearance of the body of one who had been so handsome. He left all and retired to the desert where he practiced penance and meditation and eventually founded the Congregation of the Sylvestrines.

+Saturday, November 27

White

Our Lady of the Miraculous Medal, IV Class

9:00 AM Stephen and Anthony Berns, Katherine

Mahon, Jaxxon Lacina

Our Lady appeared in 1830 to St. Catherine Laboure and showed her the pattern of the Medal now universally known as the "Miraculous Medal" because of the many wonders which it has pleased God to work by its means in His Church.

PARISH NEWS

+ A blessed and happy Thanksgiving to all of you!
+ Collection: Thurs. Nov. 11 -Wed. Nov. 17 will be printed in next week's bulletin.

+From our Meals for Families Coordinator Mrs. Jenessa Graczyk: "If you are interested in receiving updates for opportunities to make meals for families, please join the Meals for Families flocknote. These will no longer be sent through the Sodality group."

+ We have completed preliminary architectural work for the parish center. This means that we now have some idea of how large the building will be, how it will be arranged and what the cost is. Before developing our plan and signing a contract with a construction company it is necessary to do some fundraising. I will be starting this process immediately after Thanksgiving week if all goes well. At some point in December we will organize a parish wide meeting, perhaps on a Saturday, for all the adults. In this meeting we can show you the plans as we have them, respond to questions and ask you for your help in making it happen. There are a few things to keep in mind, A) everyone has ideas and many of them are good. However, we cannot do them all. I am happy to hear people's ideas but please do not forget that I cannot do everything. B) Buildings are expensive. This parish can only do what you enable it to do so please be generous. C) Things take time. No doubt we all wish this building were complete NOW but it will probably be a year under construction and I do not know how long the fundraising and other preliminary work will take. Please be patient. Thank you very much!

In Christ, Fr. Pelster

QUOTES FOR YOUR REFRIGERATOR 'ON BEING THANKFUL'

From Some of the Saints

- “In all created things discern the providence and wisdom of God, and in all things give Him thanks.” - St. Teresa of Avila
- “No duty is more urgent than that of returning thanks.”
- St. Ambrose
- “A man wanted to do evil, but first prayed as usual; and finding himself prevented by God, he was then extremely thankful.”
-St. Mark the Ascetic

- “Prayer is an aspiration of the heart. It is a simple glance directed to Heaven. It is a cry of gratitude and love in the midst of trial as well as joy.”—St. Therese Lisieux
- “Out of gratitude and love for Him, we should desire to be reckoned fools.”—St. Ignatius of Loyola
- “O my God, let me remember with gratitude and confess to thee thy mercies toward me.”—St. Augustine of Hippo
- “Thank God ahead of time.”—Bl. Solanus Casey
- “Gratitude is the first sign of a thinking, rational creature.”—Bl. Solanus Casey

FINAL THOUGHT - A Reflection on Today's Epistle from The Liturgical Year by Dom Gueranger

Thanksgiving, and Prayer! There we have the epitome of our Epistle, and an eloquent conclusion of the Apostle's course of instructions: it is also both summary and conclusion of the Year of the sacred Liturgy. The Doctor of the Gentiles has been zealous beyond measure in his fulfillment of the task assigned to him by Mother Church. Of a certainty, the fault is not his if the souls he undertook to guide, on the morrow of the descent of the Spirit of Love, have not all reached that summit of perfection which he longed we should all get up to! Those who have gone bravely forward in the path which, a year since, was opened out to them by holy Church, now, by a happy experience, know that that path most surely leads them to the life of Union, where divine charity reigns supreme! Who is there that, with anything like earnestness, has allowed his mind and heart to take an interest in the several Liturgical Seasons, which have been brought before us and been celebrated by the Church during the past twelve months, has not also felt an immense increase of light imparted to him? Now, light is that indispensable element which delivers us from the power of darkness, and translates us, by the help of God, into the kingdom of the Son of his love. The work of redemption, which this his beloved Son came down upon earth to accomplish for his Father's glory, could not do otherwise than make progress in those who have, with more or less fervor, entered into the spirit of his Church during the whole Year, that is, from the opening of Advent, right up to these the closing days of the sacred Cycle. All of us, then, whosoever we may be, should give thanks to this Father of Lights, who hath thus made us worthy to be partakers, somewhat at least, of the lot of the Saints.

The just man cannot possibly remain stationary in this world; he must either descend or ascend; and whatever may be the degree of perfection to which grace has led him, he must be ever going still higher, as long as he is left in this life. The Colossians, to whom the Apostle was writing, had fully received the Gospel: the word of truth, which had been sown in them, had produced abundant fruit in faith, hope, and love: and yet, instead of relenting, on that account, his solicitude in their regard, it is precisely for that reason that St. Paul, who had prayed for them up to then, ceases not to go on praying for them. So let us do—let us go on praying. Let us beg of God that he will again, and always, fill us with his divine Wisdom, and with the Spirit of understanding. We need all that, in order to correspond with his merciful designs. If the new Year of the Church, which is so soon to begin, find us faithful and making fresh progress, we shall be repaid with new aspects of Truth in the garden of the Spouse, and the fruits we shall produce there will be more plentiful, and far sweeter, than in any bygone Year. Therefore, let us make up our minds to walk worthy of God “with dilated hearts,” and bravely, for the eye of his approving love will be ever upon us as we toil along. Oh, yes! let us run on in that uphill path which will lead us to eternal repose in the Beatific Vision!
