Gospel

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Stewardship Prayer

God our Creator,

you made us all that we are and gave us all that we have. Help us to live a life of gratitude by using your gifts to serve others in your name.

Jesus my Redeemer,

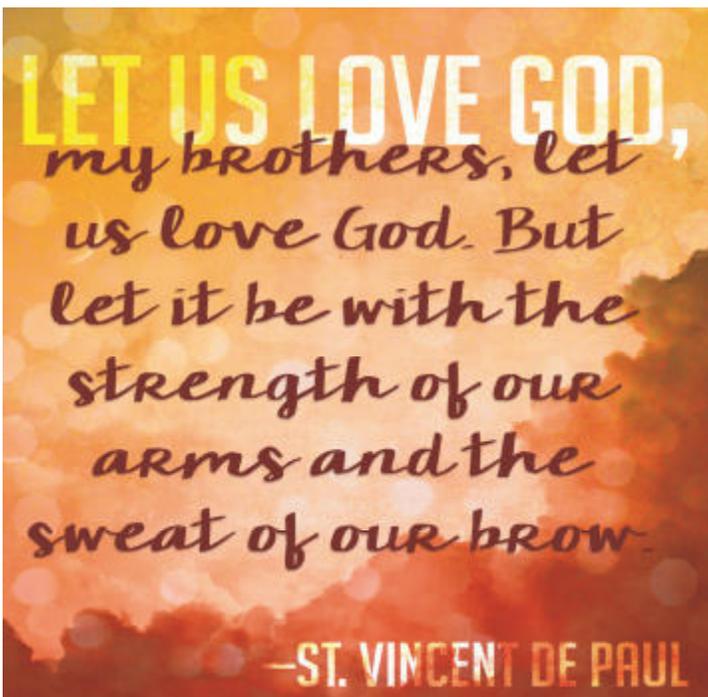

you call us to share your life by loving service to others. Grant us the courage to live as your disciples.

Holy Spirit of God,

fire our hearts with your love and make us good and generous stewards of your life within us.

We pray Lord,

that you open the minds and hearts of all the people of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Parish, that we may joyfully accept your call to live as stewards of your abundant gifts for our salvation and your greater glory. Amen.

THE BANE AND BLESSED

It has happened often. But for me this moment stands out. It was especially grace filled.

I stopped at Kwik Trip. As I left the store a young man greeted me. Perhaps he was forty years old. He smiled and said, "I will never forget the kindness of the people at St. Elizabeth Church." He said when he needed help most, the good people of St. Elizabeth Church helped him. I told him I was glad we could help, and the food pantry was still available to him. He told me he knew that to be true but "right now things are going much better." But he will always remember that when he needed it most, God's people not only helped him but walked with him.

Every day we ask God the Father to give us "our daily bread." Never can we pray thinking only of ourselves. We must never pray thinking only of my needs, my wants, my hunger. We pray as God's children and ask for "our" bread. That means we also pray for bread for others. Those who have an abundance of bread are called to share. When Jesus tells us to ask the Father for "our daily bread" he is also telling us: "Give them something to eat yourselves" (Mark 6:37).

I know one person who knows where that is happening.

The Lord be with you.
Father John Parr

The #1 reason people don't become Catholic is because....

no one has ever invited them!!!

Do you know someone who might be interested in becoming Catholic or who has questions about the Catholic faith? Could this be the fulfillment for which your family is looking? If so, please contact Fr. Parr or Mr. Pat Brueggen for more information on the SEAS RCIA program. Pick up a brochure in the back of church...and pass it on.

Classes begin in October on Tuesday evenings or by appointment.

Offertory Hymn

Psalm 42 (As the Deer Longs)

1. As the deer longs for running streams, so longs my soul for you, O God.

My soul does thirst for the living God, when shall I come to see your face?

2. My tears have fed me day and night, while some have said, "Where is your God?"

But I recall, as my soul pours dry, the days of praise within your house.

3. Why do I mourn and toil within, when it is mine to hope in God?

I shall again sing praise to him, he is my help, he is my God.
