SAY A SPECIAL PRAYER FOR OUR DECEASED PRIESTS

"A Message from Fr. Anthony Wroblewski"

I have a friend who was born in another country, but came here to the United States to work as a priest. He's a kind man, who didn't always appropriate the English language well or quickly. Every now and then, when he'd use a wrong word in a sentence, we would gently correct him. One of those moments came at a dinner party, and when leaving, he said to the host, with a smile on his face: "Thank you for your hostility!" After a quick moment of surprise, someone whispered, "He meant hospitality!"

Later on, reflecting on that rather funny episode, I realized that those two words are very closely related, not just in pronunciation, but in how the lack of hospitality can lead to some form of hostility. Why do I mention this now? It's because I truly believe that Christian hospitality and stewardship aren't possible without one another. The word stewardship refers to the Catholic approach to the gifts that God has bestowed upon us. Certainly that has always meant taking stock of the blessings I have, and tithing support to my church. But in an even broader way, it is living out a commitment to be Christ-centered rather than self-centered. That means seeking out and responding to the needs always of others. Profound gratitude, justice and love become the fundamental motives for giving back to God. Everything that God has given to us is intended to serve the divine plan. Therefore, our life is to be lived in gratitude toward God. In a variety of ways, we as disciples of the Lord Jesus Christ, share our time, talent and treasure to build up the Church and make our world a better place.

So as the obligation to Mass is re-imposed, others will be coming to our churches even more now. And our various ministries will begin again and need your help! Yes, you who are reading this article! The Church needs you, and God has chosen you, to go out into all the world. Every Christian is to take an active part in the life of the Church and to share the gifts of salvation. That means helping people be connected to Christ and the salvation He brings to all, whether it be at Mass on Sunday, in your neighborhood, or even in the workplace. The more a person feels "connected" to our own parishes, the more they will respond to all that God asks of him or her.

Stewardship is an expression of discipleship, with the power to change how we understand and live out our lives. Disciples who practice stewardship recognize God as the origin of life, the giver of freedom, the source of all they have and are and will be. They are deeply aware of the truth that "The Lord's are the earth and its fullness; the world and those who dwell in it." They know themselves to be both recipients and caretakers of God's many gifts. They are grateful for what they have received and eager to share their gifts out of love for God and one another.

With the general dispensation being lifted we will be making calls to our parishioners. If you wish to opt out of getting a phone please call the office with first and last name or phone number or fill out the form in the newsletter as soon as possible.

Faith Formation: Today's Gospel describes the end of a day of teaching in Jesus' ministry. At the end of the day He leads His disciples away from the crowds and into the boats that they will use to cross the Sea of Galilee and where you hear the story of Jesus calming the storm. In the Gospel today Jesus questions whether the disciples have faith. Faith is a gift from God that allows us to believe and trust him. Faith is also our response to God and is expressed by how we live our lives. We demonstrate faith when we trust God in all circumstances. Children experience worry and concern about many things. As they grow their worries become different and more worldly. As parents and families, we listen to these worries and concerns and put them into perspective. When we do this, we teach them to have faith in God. Worries and concerns are part of human life. Jesus teaches us that we should try not to let worries and concerns consume us. Jesus teaches us that our faith should help to lead us to trust in God's protection and love, no matter how strong the storm of life around us is. Like the disciples, we too can bring our worries and concerns to Jesus in prayer. If we feel that Jesus is sleeping, have faith and courage to wake Him and present him with your needs.

When we bring our worries to Jesus in prayer, Jesus can help us see things from God's perspective. Ask Jesus to help strengthen your faith as you pray about a situation in which you need to "have faith." Gather together as a family and ask that Jesus will help you have faith in God's love and protection to help weather the storms of life.
