SAY A SPECIAL PRAYER FOR OUR DECEASED PRIESTS

"A Message from Jenny Campbell"

Dear Parishioners,

Thank you for welcoming our new organist and pianist Brian Kapp. It has been such a pleasure to have him here at the Cathedral over the past month, and I am so thankful to have him in this role as our music ministry embarks on more changes. It is with gratitude and sadness that I announce my departure from the Cathedral this May. Our family will be relocating to Mount Pleasant, Michigan, where my husband Jefferson will be taking on the role of Dean of the College of Arts and Media at Central Michigan University.

Jeff and I have called Duluth home for the better part of two decades, and while we are very excited for his new job opportunity, we will miss this community dearly. I have been honored to serve as your choir director and music director for the past seven years, and I thank you all for welcoming me into your Cathedral family. I have gained invaluable experience in liturgical music and enjoyed so many beautiful and deeply meaningful moments with you all. This was a calling I never expected and one that I will always treasure. With two little boys at home (Benjamin 5 and Theodore 2), the Cathedral has been my place of respite from life's chaos.

We will be posting my job very soon, and I am confident an excellent candidate will emerge. Please keep our family in your prayers and know that I will miss my Cathedral family so very much! I have experienced blessings beyond measure in this place and I wish the same for you all as you continue living in the image of Christ.

Peace,
Jennifer Campbell

Faith Formation: We are to treat others as we want to be treated.

In today's Gospel reading, this is how Jesus describes how we are to act toward one another, often referred to as the "Golden Rule". We follow Jesus' command when we love and forgive all people, even when it's hard.

Teaching children at a young age to treat others as they want to be treated supports them in developing traits such as generosity, empathy, and compassion. Traits such as these, will greatly benefit them in living their life in a merciful way.

Our children today face significant moral challenges. As they face these challenges, we can support them by reminding them about mercy, a primary quality that God gives us. We can also help them understand that our call to be merciful, as God is merciful, is a call to act in ways that exceed expectations. They are the good moral choices that go above and beyond what we need to do. Facing moral challenges most likely occur on a daily basis for our children. They can happen at school when their friends are being teased by other classmates or a friend wants to see the answers on their paper. They even face them at home when they may be asked to help watch their siblings or to help with chores.

Jesus describes many opportunities that will arise in our lives when we will be faced with having to make good moral choices. The moral choices that Jesus describes, however, sound like they might be difficult to choose. Which is true, some of the choices in our lives will be hard to make and sometimes when we make a choice, things won't turn out how we hoped. We may even wish we could go back and make a different one.

It is not uncommon to wish for another chance when facing the decisions, we must make each day. In these instances, it is important to remember that God doesn't just forgive us one time. God forgives us over and over again. God doesn't show love to us just one time; God shows us love all the time. God goes the extra mile for us, just as we are to go the extra mile for others and show them the mercy God shows us every single day. God Bless, Sonya There is no faith formation class next week Wednesday, February 23rd. Have a great break.
