"A Message from Jacob Toma

Hello, my name is Jacob Toma. I am a seminarian studying for the Diocese of Duluth and have been assigned to the Cathedral to do a year of pastoral work. This will include things such as serving at mass, helping with faith formation, and teaching in the school. The pastoral experience will also include working somewhere part time. I am excited to serve this community and look forward to meeting all of you.

I grew up in Side Lake, Minnesota which is north of Hibbing. I am the eldest (24 years old) of four children. I have one brother and two sisters. My brother Josh is 22 and served in the army as a sniper. My sisters Eleanor (16) and Coraline (11) are both deaf and blind and have other medical needs. My Mom works part time at the church in Hibbing and my Dad is a deputy sheriff and a permanent deacon. Some of my hobbies include cooking, hunting, fishing, scuba, football, and Warhammer 40K. I used to work as a dishwasher, cook, bartender, personal care assistant, and maintenance worker. My favorite saints are St. Josemaria Escriva, St. John Chrysostom, St. Maximillian Kolbe, St. Maria Goretti, and Mary.

My vocation story began when I was about five. I was really into knights and shining armor. Naturally when my family went to mass one day, I saw the Knights of Columbus. THEY HAD SWORDS. This was the coolest thing ever, guys with swords in church! My grandmother told me that I could serve God as a knight when I grew up. That idea of servitude to God is something that still resonates with me today. I went to Catholic elementary school and would dress up as a priest for career day and would play mass in my living room. When I went to high school I began to grow deeper in prayer and my relationship with God. This happened through spiritual direction and diocesan youth camps. My junior year of high school I started taking classes at Hibbing Community College. I had a surplus of free time so I would volunteer at the church. When I wasn't mopping the floors or setting up for funerals, I would have time to pray. When I did this, I would feel a deep peace at the end of the day. Eventually I discerned that the Lord was calling me to enter seminary, and the rest is history in the making.

I cannot wait to meet you all and have been praying for your parish. I look forward to sharing these next few months with you and hope to serve you as Christ would. Please pray for me that I would be a holy priest and always strive after the heart of Christ. Thank you and God bless you.

In Christ our hope,
Jacob Toma

Pyx Policy: We are so grateful for all of you who bring the Lord's presence in the Eucharist to those who are unable to get to Mass. The Diocese requires us to know who is bringing the Eucharist to the homebound, and to whom they are going. The Diocese also requires the parish to maintain records and ensure proper training. For those who bring the Eucharist to the homebound, we need you to click the link found in the weekly newsletter or contact Greg (greg.jung@duluthcatholic.org or 218-623-5013) to complete a questionnaire so we have a better understanding of who is distributing Holy Communion and so we can follow up with the required training.

Faith Formation: As we look ahead to this upcoming week and the start of Lent it's only fitting that in today's Gospel, we hear three very important parables. Jesus' three parables in this week's Gospel are a reminder of the importance of continued learning, prayer, reflection, and humility in our discipleship.

Being a disciple of Jesus means that we show our love for God in what we say and do. We shine God's light in the world when we are "lit from within" with God's grace, willing to examine our own conscience and recognize our own need for transformation through Jesus. He teaches us that mature discipleship involves learning, self-reflection, and acting with integrity.

As busy parents responsible for our children's physical, emotional, and spiritual growth, we may sometimes be challenged to find time and energy to care for ourselves and attend to our own spiritual needs. Yet we know that taking that time for ourselves can improve our family relationships and help us guide our children in their faith.

As we enter into Lent this Wednesday, take some time for yourself. Reflect on what areas of your life you would like to focus on this Lenten Season.

God Bless,

Sonya
