"A Message from Fr. Anthony Wroblewski"

By now you will have heard the news that Fr. Trevor and I are going to be transferred to new assignments this upcoming summer. As I had stated this weekend, I was neither expecting, nor asking for, a transfer. On July 1 we will begin our new positions at Our Lady of the Lakes parish in Nisswa and Pequot Lakes and Pine River. This happens to be currently a parish of three sites but one canonical parish. The plan for a long time has been to combine these parishes into one, but with two Churches. The Pine River site will remain. However, land had been purchased for a new Church to be built between the towns of Nisswa and Pequot Lakes. But no Church has yet been built, and they are out of room at their current locations. Since this is a growing area, it is critical that they get their building project under way.

Nisswa, Pequot Lakes and Pine River are on Highway 371 just north of Brainerd. These parishes have provided three young priests to our diocese, with the most recent being ordained last year: Fr. Scott Padrnos. There is great potential there, with more people moving into the area as well. So, getting their house in order, so to speak, has become a critical issue for the bishop. I am one of very few priests in our diocese who has experience in building, from my first assignment at Holy Family where Fr. Andy and I built their whole new complex in our fair city, to St. Francis Church addition and School projects, to my last one that I was completing when called here: building a new Church at All Saints in Baxter, MN. Building is one of those skills that you hope you never have to do again, but then end up doing because of your experience!

Bishop Felton has also asked me to keep my Diocesan position as Director of Ministry to Priests, which will mean a lot of travel back here to Duluth. So, Fr. Trevor will be coming with me to provide a great deal of needed help while I concentrate on raising funds, doing the building project, and continuing my Diocesan work. This will be the first time in living memory that they will have both a pastor and associate. Unfortunately, the housing situation is poor, so the bishop has announced the move very early to give the parish time to obtain a place for us to live. Finally, as I said on Sunday, the new rector here will be Fr. Seth Gogolin. I know him very well, and have great confidence in him and his abilities. Please pray for all of us as we head in to this transition period.

The Knights of Columbus Monsignor O'Shea Council invites all Catholic men to take the exciting step to join the Knights of Columbus and to participate in charitable service to our parishes and communities. Visit kofc.org/joinus today or call Bob Spehar 218-349-5051

Cathedral of Our Lady Tenebrae Service: You are invited on Good Friday, April 7 at 7 PM, to the Cathedral of Our Lady of the Rosary (2801 East Fourth Street) for a Tenebrae Service. The Tenebrae is an evening of solemn readings and music offered by the Cathedral musicians that allow us to enter into the mystery of the Lord's suffering and death.

Food in Church: We have seen, more and more, people bringing food and drinks into our churches. We do ask that you respect the churches by not doing so. Though we understand that snacks at times need to be brought for very young children, we also ask that you clean up, as best you can, the crumbs and such that often they tend to leave behind before you leave the pew. Many thanks!

Faith Formation: Jesus' promise of eternal life is a central element of our Catholic faith. In today's Gospel we hear the story of Jesus raising Lazarus from the dead. In raising Lazarus from the dead, we hear Jesus foreshadowing the good news of his own Resurrection. Jesus acts in complete obedience to his father and shows his power over death so that when He dies, those who believe in him might remember that and take hope.

In Jesus' conversation with Martha, Martha through her grief of losing her brother, tells him that she believes in resurrection. Her response shows great faith, affirming her belief in eternal life and Jesus' connection to this promised salvation.

As we are in the midst of grieving the loss of our secretary and friend Anny, the message of today's Gospel hits very close to home, and reminds us of how thankful we are to have our faith.

We find hope in the fact that we as Catholics believe that by Jesus' death and Resurrection, he conquered death and won eternal life for us. We profess this belief each week on Sunday when we pray the Nicene Creed.

As we enter into the fifth week of Lent, I pray that we all remain like Mary and Martha, confident in Jesus' promise of eternal life. I pray that we all continue to find hope and confidence in Jesus, the Resurrection and the life.

God Bless,

Sonya

Faith Formation continues as normal next week.
