13th Sunday

I N O R D I N A R Y T I M E

[Jesus] answered him, "Let the dead bury their dead. But you, go and proclaim the kingdom of God." - Lk 9:60

With all of the attention as of late on Fr. Fink's and my departure, I don't want to leave overlooked your attention as a Parish on those of you who make it all come together and work: the Parish Staff, the volunteers and those who quietly and generously work behind the scenes. That's what makes this Parish a viable community of faith, and attracts others to want to be here, too.

That natural abilities and talents each of you has, coupled and enlivened by the Gifts of the Holy Spirit and a willingness to share them all makes for a successful combination. It also ensures a needed continuity when other things change, such as the Pastor. It's the glue that holds a parish life itself together, the collective memory of your life of faith and the social bonds between you. When all is said and done, priests come and go, but the culture that all of you contribute to creating as a Parish family remains and grows.

I want to leave you with this last thought: consider yourselves to be what this Parish is all about. Each one of you is an integral component in the wondrous spiritual edifice of the Spirit (see 1 Peter 2:5; Ephesians 2:21-22). In working together, praying and worshipping together, sharing together the stewardship responsibility of the mission and ministry that God has called and entrusted to you, you will become more and more each day, each year the people whom God has called to be his own and to declare through what you do the marvelous deeds of God (see 1 Peter 2:9).

Support your new priests, keep them in prayer, support them in their ministry, and keep up the good work! May God bless each and everyone of you.

SCRIPTURE REFLECTIONS FOR NEXT SUNDAY, 14TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME:

Isaiah 66:10-14c: Jerusalem is fulfilled as an image of the Church, and thus, as a promise of what God will do on behalf of all those who dwell in her through faith.

Galatians 6:14-18: The "new creation" which God creates in the believing soul will bring "peace and mercy, "and upon whom will come "the grace of our Lord, Jesus Christ."

St. Luke 10:1-12, 17-20: As the disciples go out "in pairs to every town and place [Jesus] intended to visit," they were thus to witness both to their trust in God to provide for the work entrusted to them, and to the love for each other that they were to preach.

Welcome Fr. Andrew Brinkman and Fr. Philippe Vigneron.

As announced in the June 16 Catholic Spirit Fr. Andrew Brinkman has been assigned as moderator and priest-in-solidum and Fr. Philippe has been assigned as priest-in-solidum of the Church of Maternity of Mary and Church of the Holy Childhood.

Priest-in-Solidum. What does that mean?

As taken from Wikipedia:

In 1983 the Catholic Church introduced the possibility of entrusting the pastoral care, of one or more parishes to a team of priests in solidum. This provision in the 1983 Code of Canon Law, which resembles ancient models of pastoral care in the Roman titular churches with their colleges of priests, was introduced to help resolve some of the difficulties facing many dioceses. These difficulties include shortages of priests, overpopulated urban parishes, depleted and scattered rural parishes, and decline in attendance at Mass. This model of pastoral care is viewed as a practical way of promoting pastoral co-responsibility, as well as fostering a greater sense of the presbyterium among the priests of a diocese.

ZOOM UPDATE

Online streaming of the Mass on Zoom is temporarily suspended. Please remember Jim Evanoff in your prayers as he recovers from bypass surgery.

PETER'S PENCE COLLECTION

This week we will take up the Peter's Pence Collection to support the Universal Church and the work of the Holy See, including helping Pope Francis to carry out his charitable works. Envelopes are at the usher tables. Make checks payable to Holy Childhood. Thank you.

RUMMAGE SALE UPDATE $4,078.00

A sincere Thank you to Teddy Vitali and Jenny Coyne for heading up the recent Rummage Sale. An additional thank you to the dozen or so volunteers who did everything from picking up and dropping off, unpacking, sorting and then packing up, manning sales tables and the kitchen, preparing, serving, and cleaning up the Sloppy Joes and other food and beverages and anything or anyone I might have missed. THANK YOU!

Those of us who were able to clear some of the "treasures" out of our homes appreciate your hard work.

FOR THE ELDERLY

We pray for the elderly, who represent the roots and memory of a people; may their experience and wisdom help young people to look towards the future with hope and responsibility.

FOOD TRUCKS

Maternity of Mary and MMSA will be hosting Food Truck Thursdays beginning June 2nd from 5:00 - 8:00 p.m. We are so happy to be able to gather again outdoors. Everyone is invited to come and enjoy a meal and reunite with friends!!
