17th Sunday

I N O R D I N A R Y T I M E

“And I tell you, ask and you will receive; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you.” - Lk 11:9

From Father Philippe Vigneron

“ETERNAL LIFE HAS ALREADY BEGUN”

First, I'd like to congratulate you, because, if you are reading these lines, it means that, unlike me, you are reading the bulletin of the Parish, and even better, my article. I hope that the Lord will reward you for this act of Charity ;-)

Since I hardly comment on the second reading in my homilies, I chose to share some of my thoughts about the passage of the letter to the Colossians that we heard this weekend. Saint Paul exhorts his brothers and sisters to welcome the grace they have received when they have been baptized. They were buried with him in baptism, in which they were also raised with him.

These words remain as true today as when they were first said. Let us take time today, or this week, in our personal time of prayer, to thank God for the grace we received the day we were baptized. Baptism is a sacrament we receive only once. Why? Because the grace of baptism is given every second of our life on Earth. Baptism is a perpetual begetting. Since we have been baptized, we have been Children of God, and the Father has never stopped telling us: “You are my child, whom I love”.

Therefore, anytime I sin, I reject these words, but anytime I do what is good, I welcome the will of the Father, I welcome his love, and I'm already sharing his eternal Life. May God give us the grace to become who we really are: the Children of the Almighty and ever living God!

Fr. Philippe +

SCRIPTURE REFLECTIONS FOR NEXT SUNDAY, 18TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME:

First Reading:

For what profit comes to man from all the toil and anxiety of heart with which he has labored under the sun? (Ecc 2:22)

Second Reading:

If you were raised with Christ, seek what is above, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God. Think of what is above, not of what is on earth. (Col 3:1-2)

Gospel:

“God said to him,
‘You fool, this night your life will be demanded of you; and the things you have prepared, to whom will they belong?’” (Lk 12:20)

LISTENING DEVICES

There are assistive listening devices available for use during Mass if you are having trouble hearing the Liturgy. The devices are connected directly to our sound system to help the hearing impaired. A listening device pack can be picked up in the Sacristy before Mass and returned there after Mass for sanitizing. If you have any questions, feel free to call the parish office.

NEW LOCATION FOR CONFESSIONS

Confessions will take place in the office at the end of the hallway. This space will provide for both a face to face or anonymous confession. It will be a longer walk, but has better lighting and is easier to access.
