God delights in you. How do you feel when you hear that? Delight usually comes with an exuberant flow of joy that seemingly arises from one's toes with the expression of great glee. Reflecting upon the deep measure of joy God has in us can be a source of joy for ourselves. Delight is infectious. A very young brother and sister were playing on the beach when the all too familiar ice cream truck made its daily rounds. The boy shook with excitement and delight as he took his sister's hand and exclaimed, "The ice cream man is here, isn't it great!" As they ran off toward the truck, one could hear the girl reply, "Yeah, I can't wait!" The experience of a child's delight in something so simple as ice cream, lifts our spirits from our burdens and transports us to the lighter, more innocent side of life.

Life is not meant to be a burden. Believe it or not, God actually wants us to be happy! In fact, the wedding feast at Cana shows us that God even puts His blessing on our happiness. It is okay to celebrate the wonder of ourselves and others. Life is good. It is always interesting to note that Jesus saves the good wine until last. You would think it would be the other way around. The superb quality of Jesus' wine points to the superior quality of life we find in Christ. It is not a life of burdens but a life of wonder and delight! In Christ, we are lifted from the superficial and mundane to a life of purpose, hope, and love.

God is with us through the long haul, through the challenges and sorrows as well as the successes and accomplishments. In spite of the fact that we often wander from the path, God's celebratory delight in us remains. As spouses are asked to remain faithful to each other through whatever life brings, God remains faithful too. This promise remains through this life and into the next. All we have to do is take the advice of Jesus' mother to heart when she says, "Listen to him." This wisdom saves us from foolishly giving in to the illusion that we can make better wine than Jesus.

AGUA EN VINO

Padre Jairo Congote

Uno tiende a pensar que Cristo sólo hacía milagros para sanar defectos o enfermedades o posesiones diabólicas en las personas. Comparado con lo que implica devolver la vista a un ciego, el milagro de convertir agua en vino parece casi sin importancia. Pero no fue trivial para Cristo, por dos razones: una, porque no es trivial para él atender al ruego de su Madre; dos, porque cada detalle de nuestra vida es importante para él. Nuestro Dios no cuida sólo de lo grande y voluminoso de nuestra existencia sino que está atento a lo pequeño y discreto: quien ama no quiere sólo dar vida sino también alegría. Jesús en una ocasión estuvo presente en unas bodas compartiendo el gozo y la alegría de los novios y también cómo Él, que era un invitado, al final los convidó a todos y les dio un vino mucho mejor.

La palabra de Dios nos dice que de la misma forma Jesucristo hoy quiere compartir la alegría y la fiesta de su amor. Jesucristo comparte todas nuestras ilusiones, esperanzas y alegrías; todo el deseo de felicidad que tenemos, las ansias de plenitud y la realización personal, el anhelo de empezar un nuevo hogar... Todo lo que sentimos, deseamos y queremos vivir, en la medida que es sincero y auténtico, es compartido y bendecido por el mismo Dios.

Jesucristo se compromete a darnos su fuerza. De la misma manera que Jesús les dio el vino mejor, también a nosotros nos quiere dar su gracia para que seamos fieles a los compromisos que delante de Él asumimos.

Por el sacramento del matrimonio se comprometen a vivir su amor de una manera total y completa. Entregándose el uno al otro. Se comprometen a vivir el amor de la misma forma que lo han aprendido de Dios: un amor generoso, que busca siempre el bien y la felicidad de la persona amada, un amor capaz de sacrificio y perdón; por esto, de la misma forma Jesucristo se compromete a ayudarles, a darles su gracia, a fin de que su amor sea capaz de superar todas las dificultades que puedan encontrar en su camino. En su matrimonio no todo será de color de rosa, no les faltarán dificultades, pero pueden estar seguros que la ayuda de Dios no les faltará nunca y les dará fuerza para que su amor pueda superar los momentos difíciles que vengan: dificultades económicas, enfermedades, momentos de incomprensión. La bendición que se recibe es signo de que nunca les faltará la fuerza del Señor para ser fieles al compromiso que asuman delante de Él.

Estamos llamados también a convertir el agua en vino. De la colaboración entre Jesús y María surgió un hecho admirable, el primero de los signos obrados por el Señor. Y san Juan nos ha subrayado que la conversión del agua en vino fue motivo de alegría para los novios que veían cómo su fiesta corría el riesgo de "aguar" por causa de un descuido, y para los invitados que así podían continuar alegres la fiesta. Y al mismo tiempo, hizo que creciera la fe en Jesús de los discípulos que habían presenciado el hecho. También ustedes están llamados, ejerciendo cada uno su papel propio, a "convertir el agua en vino". Que de las cosas más habituales y cotidianas, esas que valoramos tan poco, esto es "el agua", ustedes deben hacer "vino", algo de valor, sabroso y que alegra a quien lo bebe. Su amor, su fidelidad en las penas y en las alegrías... es lo que convertirá lo vulgar y diario, el "agua", en motivo de alegría para los demás, para aquellos a quienes traten y los observen. Y así a la vez en su amor harán visible a Dios, Aquel a quien nadie ha visto pero a quien san Juan se atreve a definir como "el Amor". De esta manera siempre que ustedes actúen con amor será motivo de que aumente la fe de los que los observen, de la misma manera que creció la fe en los discípulos que acompañaban a Jesús y a su madre en las bodas de Caná. Todos estamos llamados al amor.

MUSIC MINISTRY

"Those who sing, pray twice." -St. Augustine

Music lifts our hearts and helps us engage more fully as we use multiple senses - sight, speech and sound. Join a choir or pull together a small group, play an instrument, participate in Praise & Worship, organize rehearsals, and help us grow music ministry. We share God's love through the beauty of creating and sharing music and singing with others. We need volunteers who are willing to make this happen! Call Dianne at 402-564-7151.

Children's Scholarship Fund

The 2021-22 school year marks the 20th year that the Children's Scholarship Fund of Omaha has provided essential tuition assistance to students in our Columbus Catholic schools. The beauty of the program is that every dollar raised in Columbus is matched and returned! If you donate $50.00 it could return as a $125.00 or even a 150.00 scholarship!

This year, our Columbus goal is to raise $26,000.00 for CSF by March 31, 2022. To date we have received $1,125.00 in donations—so please give your prayerful support to this important scholarship opportunity! Checks should be payable to: Children's Scholarship Fund and if you drop them off at the rectory, Scotus or in the collection basket, we'll be sure that they are delivered, and credit given to the Columbus goal.

Your donation may be tax deductible, CSF is a designated 501 (c) 3. This scholarship program is impactful! Since its inception in 1999, CSF has provided $841,109.65 in scholarship support to students in the Columbus Catholic Schools! For more info. about CSF, contact John Schueth at Scotus: 402 564 7165 ext. 109.

NEBRASKA Walk for Life

With Guest Speaker Ashley Bratcher

Award-winning actress of "Unplanned" and "Princess Cut"

Ashley starred in "Unplanned" despite being told that Hollywood would blacklist her for doing an openly pro-life role. Later, when Hollywood stars threatened to boycott her home state of Georgia because of a new pro-life law, Ashley fought back, even calling boycott leader Alyssa Milano personally. In addition, Ashley, whose own mother visited an abortion clinic before changing her mind and carrying her to term, has partnered with Heartbeat International for a scholarship program so women with unplanned pregnancies can continue their education.

Come support the pro-life cause and listen to this brave woman's heart-lifting story!
