From Our Pastor...

HAPPY MOTHER'S DAY!

Pope John Paul II, in his Letter to Women (June 29, 1995), he expressed his thoughts on the "feminine genius" of women. This phrase describes the special abilities of women, one of which is carrying a child in their womb. The whole document is worth a read, and extolls Mother Mary as the highest expression of the "feminine genius."

In paragraph 2 he says, "Thank you, women who are mothers! You have sheltered human beings within yourselves in a unique experience of joy and travail. This experience makes you become God's own smile upon the newborn child, the one who guides your child's first steps, who helps it to grow, and who is the anchor as the child makes its way along the journey of life."

On this day, I honor my mother, Joan (now deceased), who gave me life and nurtured me in so many ways during her lifetime. I also want to express my great gratitude for the multitude of cards, emails, texts, Facebook posts, drawings, gifts, phone calls, etc. I received for my birthday. I sure received much joy and consolation from them.

One final note: today is the graduation of seniors from Scotus High School. Keep them in your prayers to stay close to our Lord and Lady as they move forward in their lives.

Blessings,

Fr. Mike

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

Will be observed today, which is also known as "Good Shepherd Sunday." The purpose of this day is to publicly fulfill the Lord's instruction to, "Pray the Lord of the harvest to send laborers into his harvest" (Mt 9:38; Lk 10:2). Please pray that young men and women will continue to hear and respond generously to the Lord's call to the priesthood, diaconate, religious life, societies of apostolic life or secular institutes!

SPANISH

ANUNCIOS en ESPAÑOL

EL PASTOR Y LAS OVEJAS

Padre Jairo Congote

Las ovejas escuchan, conocen y siguen al pastor; este las conoce y les da Vida eterna; no perecerán; nadie las robará. Entre el pastor y las ovejas hay relaciones íntimas y comunión de vida. Jesús es el pastor de las ovejas que nos alimenta con su palabra, ejemplo y Eucaristía. Nos conoce, ama, guía y defiende. Es el pastor que escucha a las ovejas y conoce sus necesidades.

Jesús y el Padre no están en competición alguna; se alaban mutuamente. Jesús es el Hijo muy amado del Padre y Jesús ama al Padre y ama hacer siempre su voluntad. El Padre es quien ha hecho las mayores obras en la creación y quien le ha concedido al Hijo hacer sus obras milagrosas; en el plan divino el Hijo no se va a quedar atrás o va a ser menos. El Padre y el Hijo son iguales en su amor y compromiso por salvar al mundo: Nadie nos puede arrebatar ni de la mano de Jesús ni de la mano del Padre; los dos son un mismo Dios y están íntimamente unidos en todo. El Padre había mostrado su grandeza desde la creación hasta que envió a su Hijo al mundo para salvarlo. Recordemos también que esta grandeza del amor de Dios, hacia Jesús y hacia nosotros, tiene que gobernar nuestra vida cristiana, dándonos confianza para sentirnos libres de las ataduras del pecado y de la vida pasada; siempre Dios es tan grande, que es mayor que nuestra conciencia y que nuestros pecados. Por eso, Dios puede perdonarlo todo.

Recordando a Jesús como el Buen Pastor, este domingo fue designado por el Papa Juan Pablo II como un día de oración por las vocaciones al sacerdocio.

Debemos fortalecer nuestra fe en la acción del Espíritu en la vida de la Iglesia; los contratiempos se convierten en oportunidades para el bien. La universalidad de la Iglesia se desarrolla providencialmente por el rechazo del testimonio apostólico por los judíos. Pablo y Bernabé son tan valientes como lo habían sido Pedro y los apóstoles en Jerusalén. Lo único que importaba era proclamar el evangelio y continuar la misión de Cristo en el mundo; si unos no escuchaban, había que ir a otros; no había tiempo que perder en esta misión. El rechazo de los judíos y los males que les sobrevienen, impulsan a los apóstoles a irse a nuevos campos de misión, pues no hay mal que para bien no venga, y todo coopera para el bien de los que aman al Señor. Este domingo oremos por todos nuestros sacerdotes, de tal manera que le pidamos a Dios buenos y santos sacerdotes que se entreguen a su labor de corazón.
