From Our Pastor...

Happy Memorial Day Weekend!

Many parishioners are asking, "At the main entryway to the church, I notice concrete needs to be replaced. When will that take place?" The answer is "sometime in the next few weeks." In fact, there are several areas around the campus where the concrete has cracked and needs to be replaced. We are hoping that by the end of summer, all the items on the "punch list" will be completed. With a large project like ours, there are always fixes and adjustments that need to take place. The completion of tasks is slow due to waiting for materials and labor. Thank you for your patience and taking pride in our campus!

Blessings,

Fr. Mike

ANUNCIOS en ESPAÑOL

LOS FRUTOS DE LA PAZ
DE CRISTO

Padre Jairo Congote

En el evangelio observamos la preparación gradual que reciben los discípulos para empezar a afrontar el futuro en el que la relación con Jesús no va a tener la dimensión de presencia física que había tenido hasta entonces. De cara a la nueva presencia espiritual y dinámica de Jesús, será indispensable y muy necesario contar con los siguientes tres elementos: amor, confianza y tranquilidad. El que las tiene, cuenta con la presencia de las Tres Personas divinas.

“El que ama cumplirá mi palabra”, dice el Señor, subrayando la relación entre el amor y el cumplimiento de la palabra, porque el amor verdadero es mucho más que un sentimiento afectivo; el amor es sobre todo una conducta o manera de comportarse, ya que “obras son amores y no buenas razones”. El amor de Jesús es la piedra angular de todo edificio espiritual. Jesús nos amó y nos hizo hermanos suyos y por ello nos sigue amando. Nosotros estamos llamados a trabajar por crear hermandad, amándonos los unos a los otros.

Jesús se despidió de sus discípulos prometiéndoles el Espíritu Santo que los unirá en la fe y el amor verdadero. Jesús deja a sus discípulos también su paz. Jesús que había venido a traer fuego y guerra a la tierra deja una paz que no es como la paz del mundo. La paz de Cristo no es solamente una ausencia de guerras, división y discordias, sino que es el fruto de un fuego del Espíritu con un compromiso de hermandad por la justicia en favor de los pobres.

El Espíritu de Jesús viene para inspirarnos a anunciar la Buena Nueva a los pobres y necesitados, despertando una lucha y una urgencia en el interior de los corazones. La paz de Cristo es el fruto y resultado de la obediencia a Dios, del control de sí mismo, del perdón de las ofensas y de la esperanza cierta de un futuro mejor que nos viene de Dios. Esta paz no se rige por las cosas que suceden fuera, sino por lo que sucede en el interior de los corazones.

La paz de Cristo es una paz activa y vital que solamente Dios puede darla o inspirarla dentro del corazón; es el fruto de un compromiso y de una lucha por ser fieles a los planes de Dios para nuestro mundo. Esa paz produce frutos de amor, perdón, generosidad, paciencia, alegría y aceptación de la voluntad de Dios. Es la plenitud del SHALOM que se deseaban los judíos al saludarse. Esa paz no es enturbiada y disminuida por las vicisitudes adversas de la vida, ya que el cristiano está en las manos del Padre y siempre podrá tener en mente las palabras de Santa teresa de Ávila: Nada de turbe, nada te espante, todo se pasa, Dios no se muda, la paciencia todo lo alcanza quien a Dios tiene, nada de falta, solo Dios basta.

La paz de Cristo en su Iglesia, desde los comienzos fue el fruto de un compromiso de amor en favor de los creyentes menos apreciados. A los paganos que abrazan la fe, se decidió que no había que imponerles las cargas de la fe judía que podían quitarles la paz de su conciencia. Solamente había que pedirles lo indispensable para salvaguardar la unidad en la paz y la caridad. No hay que imponer cargas pesadas sobre los creyentes y menos como lo hacían los fariseos que imponían cargas a la gente y no ayudaban a llevarlas. En la Iglesia no hay que confundir la unidad con la uniformidad. Los demás no necesitan ser como tú para ser perfectos.

DEACONS

At a parish council meeting, our pastor mentioned the need for deacons. It is something I am considering. How do I know if I have a vocation? What steps should I take next?

Any and all gifts that the Holy Spirit gives to the church are for the good of the community. As members of the Body of Christ, what one member does affects all. What the body does also affects each member. A vocation or call to ministry is tested and verified by the church. Through prayer, instruction, and service, a vocation is tested, and then acknowledged by the official call to orders or to service.

If you are considering becoming a deacon, the first step would be to talk to your pastor. He will be able to give you more specific information on the program in your diocese, what is expected of you, and how you apply. You might also begin to see a spiritual director, someone who can help you with your faith journey and vocation discernment. They do so by focusing on prayer, your relationship with God, and spiritual practices. Finally, you'll need to see the diocesan vocation director in charge of deacons to apply. Best wishes!

The Memorare

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thine intercession was left unaided. Inspired by this confidence, I fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins, my mother; to thee do I come, before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me. Amen.
