From Our Pastor...

HAPPY PENTECOST!

With all this wind we've experienced lately, we have received a preview of what the Apostles felt in the upper room—only theirs was MUCH more joyful!

The Memorial Day Mass at St. Bonaventure Cemetery was very well attended, despite the blustery weather—but no rain!

This Saturday, June 4, two men were ordained to the priesthood: Brett Jamrog and Minh Tran. Fr. Jamrog is assigned to Norfolk, and Fr. Tran is assigned to Fremont. Please pray that these men live a priesthood that is happy, healthy and holy. My ordination took place June 4, 2005. My greatest joy is to accompany people at the most important times of their lives.

Please pray for vocations to the priesthood. Not only pray, but identify those who are a “diamond in the rough” that have a love of God and a heart for service. Please let me know of these young men. Currently, we have 105 priests in the Archdiocese. In 10 years, we will have 80. It is everyone's responsibility to provide for a flourishing priesthood and health of the Church. With limited resources, we are having to rethink how ministry will be accomplished in the near future. Priests, and their teams of parishioners, have boldly begun planning for the future. You can learn more at journeyoffaith.org. Our parish will keep you informed as things develop.

Join us for a St. Bon's Town Hall in the Parish Center next Saturday after Mass to learn more about our parish financial strategic plan (StratPlan25) for parishioner and school family involvement, parish financial stability and how to address the final cost of Project 2020. The same presentation will be given next Sunday June 12 after the 10:30am Mass. BEHOLD our plan. BELIEVE that you have a voice to make improvements. BELONG to the process of making St. Bon's a thriving parish!

The Holy Spirit is really moving in our parish!

Blessings,

Fr. Mike

PARISH NEWS

LANDSCAPE NEWS

An enormous thank you goes out to the following individuals who have volunteered to keep our landscape weed free this season: Mary Hall, Pat Bogus, Rod and Janel Brune, Kathie Kresha, Brenda Tubbs, Sharon Swanson, the Brett and Angie Rusher family, Milan Levos, Tom and Tami Williams, Joe Chohon, Tim and Carla Hottovy, Gail Behesch, Sue Henggeler, Steve Hollinrake, and Larry, Laurie, and Kimberlie Cemper. This is an important (and huge) task toward keeping St. Bonaventure's landscape looking TipTop! This year we added the area around the grade school to our list of responsibilities. We are in desperate need of ONE MORE “weed puller” on the east side of the school in order to have the entire campus covered. Please call Steve Hollinrake at 402-942-3279 to volunteer.

MERCY COMMITTEE NEEDS HELP

There will be a tote in the Parish Center Hallway at all Masses this weekend to restock the shelves for the Mercy Care packages. This is a ministry to our parishioners who have lost loved ones. Items needed, new & unopened: small boxes of plastic silverware, plates, cups, Kleenexes, paper towels, napkins, toilet paper. Thank you!

LOL SEEKING A NEW VICE PRESIDENT!

Ladies of the Lord is seeking a new Vice President for '22-'23. Ladies of the Lord is made up of all the St. Bon's Catholic women parishioners who call each other to holiness through faith, prayer, service, community and evangelization. Come join this fun and meaningful ministry today! For questions please contact any of our current LOL Officers:

President: Connie Ritter - 402-926-1197

Secretary: Deb Hamling - 402-276-0292

Treasurer: Kayla Arasmith - 402-276-8034

STRATPLAN 2025

TOWN HALL PRESENTATION

Come and participate in this brief presentation on Project 2020 and addressing the final costs. Presentations will be held in the Parish Center with snacks and beverages provided.

When:

~ June 11, 2022 after the 5:00 pm Mass

~ June 12, 2022 after the 10:30 am Mass

HOPE TO SEE YOU THERE!

MEALS ON WHEELS THANK YOU!

Thank you to Ashley Karges & children, Bill & Pat Bogus, Deanna Hoffman, Joe & Jane Tooley, Jerry Duren, Tim & Patty Held, Bob & Chris Steinke and Jim & Sue Murphy for delivering Meals on Wheels the week of May 23rd to the homebound. St. Bon's next scheduled week is August 1. God Bless!

PENTECOST

SPANISH

ANUNCIOS en ESPAÑOL

VEN ESPÍRITU DIVINO: PENTECOSTÉS Padre Jairo Congote

Pentecostés es la gran celebración del Espíritu Santo. Ante la palabra “espíritu” a veces surge una resistencia que brota de ciertos prejuicios. La fe en Jesús hace que prime el valor del espíritu, ciertamente nuestra fe no es “espiritualista”, desencarnada o inhumana. Pues no niega ni minusvalora el sentido, la necesidad y la autonomía de lo terreno y corpóreo, sino que lo asume y lo proyecta desde dentro con dimensión trascendente. Lo cual es elevar, dignificar y darle plenitud a lo humano. Nuestra religión es profundamente humanista, pues abriendo al hombre a la dimensión trascendente, al espíritu y a Dios, le brinda plenitud.

Uno de los mayores problemas es la carencia de espíritu; y, como contrapartida y en compensación, el exceso de materia en sus diversas formas: corporalidad y sexo, productividad y consumismo. Así, el vacío existencial viene a ser el denominador común. Nos sentimos vacíos, íntimamente insatisfechos de vivir una vida sin sentido e incapaz de llenarnos de felicidad; porque carecemos de espíritu y de razones para vivir, trabajar y amar a los demás; en definitiva, porque nos falta proyección trascendente para nuestra existencia de hombres limitados.

Nos hacemos humanos en la medida en que nos abrimos a Dios y a los demás. Bajo la acción del Espíritu nos encontramos y reconciliamos con Dios y con nosotros mismos; y nos abrimos a la comunión gozosa con él y con los demás como hermanos. En la medida en que falta el Espíritu crece el miedo y se cierran las puertas. Los apóstoles estaban reunidos en una casa con las puertas cerradas por miedo a los judíos. Paralizados por el temor. Les faltaba la presencia de Jesús y el don del Espíritu que él les infundió con su visita. Este es el dato real: en la medida en que falta el Espíritu, aumenta el miedo, la apatía, la inacción, la duda, el silencio, la ineficacia. El miedo y el apocamiento rondan hoy también a la Iglesia y nos acosan a los cristianos como en un principio a los apóstoles. Tenemos miedo y no somos testigos porque no creemos en la fuerza del Espíritu para anunciar hoy la resurrección de Jesús como la esperanza de la humanidad, como verdad que vence la injusticia, como paz y libertad que fundamentan la dignidad y los derechos de la persona, como vida que supera la muerte y la opresión, como amor y fraternidad que derrotan al odio y la violencia, como única liberación capaz de crear hombres nuevos transformando las personas y las estructuras sociales. Los efectos de la ausencia de Espíritu son devastadores. En la medida en que se ausenta el Espíritu disminuyen la fe y la esperanza y crece el miedo en la Iglesia. Y en la misma proporción en que hay miedo en la comunidad eclesial, se paraliza la misión, crece el autoritarismo legalista, se acentúa el dogmatismo, se produce el estancamiento, falta el dinamismo creador: en una palabra, se cierran las puertas y ventanas al mundo. Se le tiene miedo al mundo, a la novedad, al progreso, al cambio; en definitiva, recelo ante la vida, que es evolución. Entonces se quiere atar y manipular el Espíritu; inútilmente, pues sopla donde quiere, como el viento. Eso sería olvidar la revolución de pentecostés en la historia religiosa de la humanidad. En un mundo sin espíritu ¿sabemos los cristianos testimoniar el Espíritu y dar razón de nuestra esperanza? ¿Caminamos realmente según el Espíritu? Son preguntas inevitables que nos plantea la festividad que hoy celebramos. ¡Cuántos miles y millones de creyentes celebramos hoy pentecostés! ¡Ven, Espíritu Santo; llena los corazones de tus fieles y enciende en ellos el fuego de tu amor!

Pentecost Sunday

Even though Pentecost is rightly celebrated in late spring, the robust experience of a New England fall can provide a profound metaphor for reflection. A full expression of fall colors is beautiful to behold. But, with all of its majesty and beauty, the observer knows the experience of death is soon to come. Creation will be dark and barren for a while. Pentecost cannot be separated from the cross. Before God's transformative, life-giving power can bear fruit, we must first die.

Pentecost is all about leaving the lifeless dead wood behind and allowing God, through the power of the Holy Spirit, to create something new. These Pentecost creations happen repeatedly over and over again. The birthing process of the Church is ongoing. God is always bringing life out of death and creating something where there was once nothing. That is why the fall is such an apropos metaphorical season for Pentecost. In order to really receive the gift of the Holy Spirit we have to die to what we once knew and what no longer works.

When fire and wind find their fullest expression, they are in no way gentle nor kind. They have the potential to level anything in their paths. We are experiencing great turmoil in our world, nation, and our Church. Whether the result of circumstance or the work of the Holy Spirit, much of what we knew to be normal and constant is changing. Common systems and institutional structures that may have worked for a time no longer do. When the old and familiar need to be left behind, God creates something new. Change and disorder do not need to be our enemies. They always bring opportunities for something exciting and new. What we need is untiring faith, firm hope, and perfect love.

What we need is for the Holy Spirit to enlighten us to see what is important and what we must do. "O Holy Spirit, descend plentifully into my heart. Enlighten the dark corners of this neglected dwelling and scatter there Thy cheerful beams." (St. Augustine) If we experience joy, even in the midst of turbulence, then we will know we are exactly where God needs us to be. If not, then perhaps there is a lesson in the decaying leaves that graciously descend to the ground on a crisp fall day.

KEEPING THE FAITH ALL SUMMER LONG

Here are some ways for all of us to grow our Faith this summer: Make Mass a priority - Gathering together with the Church to receive Christ is essential to our faith.

Do some spiritual reading - Set aside some special time for reflection on a spiritual topic, such as the lives of the saints.

Visit a holy place - Take a day trip to a monastery, shrine or famous church, and experience some of the different types of spirituality that are all part of the Catholic faith.

Simplify your life - Sort through clothing, toys, sports equipment & other possessions; have a garage sale and donate the proceeds!

Do something for someone else - Reach out to people in need. Summer is a time for resting, reaching out and growing - mind, body and spirit. ~Adapted from Our Sunday Visitor
