From Our Pastor...

This weekend, we celebrate the solemnity of The Most Holy Trinity, which honors the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. The early Church believed in the Trinity from the very beginning, but it was formally stated at the Council of Nicea in 325 A.D. (which we profess at Sunday Mass) because heresies arose from people believing that Jesus was only a man or was created by God. All persons in the Trinity have always existed without beginning and are of equal power. This can be hard for us to fathom, but some theologians such as Justin, Irenaeus, Athanasius, Augustine and Thomas Aquinas, to name a few, have helped us understand this mystery a little better.

Blessings,

Fr. Mike

KEEPING THE FAITH ALL SUMMER LONG

Here are some ways for all of us to grow our Faith this summer:

Make Mass a priority - Gathering together with the Church to receive Christ is essential to our faith.

Do some spiritual reading - Set aside some special time for reflection on a spiritual topic, such as the lives of the saints.

Visit a holy place - Take a day trip to a monastery, shrine or famous church, and experience some of the different types of spirituality that are all part of the Catholic faith.

Simplify your life - Sort through clothing, toys, sports equipment & other possessions; have a garage sale and donate the proceeds!

Do something for someone else - Reach out to people in need. Summer is a time for resting, reaching out and growing - mind, body and spirit. ~Adapted from Our Sunday Visitor

ANUNCIOS en ESPAÑOL

LA TRINIDAD, MODELO PARA LA VIDA CRISTIANA

Padre Jairo Congote

A algunos de nosotros, la Trinidad nos trae a la mente la historia de san Patricio al convertir a los irlandeses mostrándoles una hoja de trébol preguntándoles si era una sola hoja o eran tres a la vez. A otros la Trinidad les hace recordar a San Agustín, quien antes de escribir su Tratado sobre la Trinidad, acostumbrada a pasear meditando por la playa; allí vio a un niño que había hecho un hoyo, pretendiendo meter toda el agua del mar en el hoyo que había hecho. El niño -un ángel- le dijo que era más absurdo el pretender meter o entender el misterio de la Santísima Trinidad en su cabeza.

Antiguamente, se ponía el énfasis sobre la Trinidad como un misterio muy lejano pero después del Concilio Vaticano Segundo, se ha pasado a mirar a la Santísima Trinidad mucho más como un modelo para la vida cristiana. La trinidad no es algo simplemente incomprendible, sino algo que hay que asimilar y hacer parte de la vida cristiana. Las relaciones entre las tres Personas de la Trinidad deberán ser el modelo para las relaciones vitales que deben existir en la familia, en la sociedad y especialmente en la Iglesia. Cada persona Divina habla de las demás en los términos más positivos y sagrados. El Padre dice que hay que escuchar a su Hijo, el muy amado. El Hijo, Jesús, presenta su doctrina y sus milagros como algo que ha recibido del Padre, Jesús anuncia a sus discípulos que lo que ellos no entienden, lo entenderán luego cuando reciban al Espíritu Santo quien será su mejor maestro y los llevará a la plenitud de la verdad, El Espíritu vendrá a dar testimonio en favor de Jesús. ¡Que hermoso sería si nosotros habláramos de los demás en términos tan positivos! Creemos que en Dios hay tres Personas distintas y diferentes que viven en unión y comunión total y que las tres son iguales en gloria y majestad, por lo cual todas las personas de la Trinidad reciben la misma adoración y la misma gloria. En la familia, en la sociedad y en la Iglesia, estamos llamados a imitar lo que profesamos creer de las Personas Divinas.

Estamos llamados a respetar y apreciar las distinciones y diferencias entre las personas humanas, sin negarlas ni excluirlas. Los hijos no necesitan ser como sus papas, ni las hijas como sus mamas; las mujeres no necesitan ser como los hombres. Las diferencias enriquecen y hacen muy hermosa la humanidad.

Como las Personas Divinas, tenemos que mirarnos unos a otros como iguales, sin sentirnos superiores a los demás. El mayor título de honor que una personas puede tener es el de ser Hijo o Hija de Dios. Fuimos consagrados en el bautismo y somos parte de la familia de Dios. Los títulos que da el mundo palidecen cuando se comparan con nuestro título que nos viene de Dios. Todas las personas merecen honor y respeto, especialmente las que pertenecen a nuestra misma familia de fe. En este mundo todos somos pecadores y cuando veamos que una persona cae o falla en algo, no estamos llamados a criticar sino a extender una mano que le ayude a volver al buen camino.

Oremos en esta fiesta de la Santísima Trinidad para que las diversas maneras en las que Dios ha escogido revelarse a su Iglesia nos sirvan de inspiración y guía para nuestra vida cristiana. Esto es precisamente lo que ha buscado y deseado siempre la Iglesia. Démosle a nuestro prójimo pues nuestro testimonio de la Santísima Trinidad en nuestras vidas.

UP TO THE JOB

Have you ever had a job for which you didn't feel qualified? I think we all have, whether it was a paying gig or not. A lot of us parents often feel in awe of the magnitude of that role and lose sleep worrying that we made the wrong decision in one situation or a bad call in another. Some of us feel intimidated by what our communities need from us, on the parish level or in our personal relationships. Or maybe we are simply dreading a task that seems too big, too overwhelming — that necessary basement cleanout, or the weekly organization of family schedules.

When we don't feel qualified, we don't want to do the work. We get stuck in our own fear. That's the birthplace of procrastination, self-doubt and bitterness. When we look inward at our own abilities, we can only see all the traits that aren't there. The intelligence, the dexterity, the ambition — whatever it is we lack, we get stuck on it.

I've got good news and bad news. I'll start with the bad news: none of us are qualified for the call of discipleship. We simply aren't. We don't have the love or grace or strength to get the job done.

Now I'll give you the good news: God knows this, and He doesn't care. Stewardship does not insist that we possess every good quality — no, as a way of life, stewardship recognizes that we lack so many qualities. But it shows us where to find the love and grace and strength we need. Stewardship does not demand that we know every answer; it merely reminds us who to ask when we don't.
