From Our Pastor...

Today, we celebrate the solemnity of Corpus Christi—the Body of Christ--emphasizing that Jesus is really present in the Eucharist. What is bread and wine at the beginning of Mass is changed (transubstantiated) into Christ's body and blood at the consecration when the priest prays over the gifts and calls down the Holy Spirit.

I really don't understand why people have a hard time believing it. If Jesus fed the 5,000 with five loaves and two fish, I believe he can change bread and wine into his blood. Jesus says, "This is my body" and "This is my blood." "Do this in remembrance of me" We are called to obey his command. Even St. Paul believes it. If the saints believed in the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist, then me too.

Blessings,

Fr. Mike

PARISH NEWS

MERCY COMMITTEE NEEDS HELP

There will be a tote in the Parish Center Hallway at all Masses this weekend to restock the shelves for the Mercy Care packages. This is a ministry to our parishioners who have lost loved ones. Items needed, new & unopened: small boxes of plastic silverware, plates, cups, Kleenexes, paper towels, napkins, toilet paper. Thank you!

NOW HIRING

St. Bonaventure Church is now hiring a full time Secretary/Receptionist for the church office/rectory. The Church Receptionist serves as the front desk presence for the church, presenting a professional and welcoming image for parishioners, visitors, and vendors during the week. This position is an hourly position that requires approximately 32 hours per week. Monday through Thursday 8:30 a.m. - 4:30 p.m., and Friday 8:30 a.m. - 12:00 p.m. For more information please call 402-564-7151. Job applications can be picked up at the St. Bon's Parish Office. Accepting applications until June 24, 2022.

DRESS UP, NOT DOWN FOR SUNDAY MASS, EVEN IN SUMMERTIME

"Every year, this sensitive summer subject crops up: What to wear for church. We Minnesotans spend much of the winter bundled up in jackets, sweaters, hats and gloves, and we relish the day when warmer weather lets us peel off all those layers. But how much is too much? What is appropriate for church?"

The Catechism of the Catholic Church says that when it comes to the celebration of the Eucharist, "Bodily demeanor (clothing) ought to convey the respect, solemnity and joy of this moment when Christ becomes our guest" (No. 1387). Clothing ought to reflect respect and solemnity. When it comes to church clothing, it is time to "dress up," not "dress down."

When I served St. Benedict the African Catholic Church on the South Side of Chicago, it was customary among African-American Catholics there to wear one's "Sunday-go-to-meeting-clothes," a slogan for the best clothes in one's closet. When people came to Mass, they looked sharp.

In the Holy Land and Rome, there are signs at many sacred sites and security guards that refuse admittance to those who are dressed inappropriately.

Consider how you may dress if you were invited to meet the president at the White House or attend a formal dinner. Doesn't a visit to meet Jesus and attend his great banquet, the Eucharist, rank higher? Shouldn't how we dress reflect this? The Lord deserves our Sunday best."

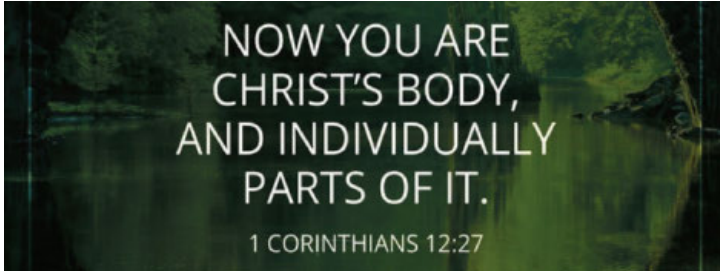

~Father Michael Van Sloun

CORPUS CHRISTI

Padre Jairo Congote

Al recordar y recibir el Cuerpo de Cristo hay que tener presente que nosotros somos el Cuerpo de Cristo, y que como el Pan sacramental hemos sido consagrados por el bautismo para ser comunión y comunidad. En la Sagrada Comunión recibimos lo que somos, dice san Agustín. En nuestra Eucaristía miramos y recordamos el pasado, el sacrificio de Cristo en el calvario y de tal manera nos comprometemos a la comunión de unos con otros en una convivencia amorosa y compartida, que ya desde aquí de algún modo, anticipamos la comunión y la Eucaristía perfecta que esperamos gozar con Dios en su gloria. La Eucaristía no es una paz y un amor superficial; es también un desafío y una tensión hacia un mundo mejor; es el revivir de la pasión de Jesús en el amor.

En mi opinión se necesita la gracia de Dios y mucho tiempo para que uno pueda a llegar a comprender lo que Nuestro Señor Jesucristo quiso decir cuando afirma que es el pan vivo que baja del cielo, y que cualquiera que lo come tendrá vida eterna. De lo contrario nos estuviéramos todos peleando con tal de comer de este pan todos los días y nuestras iglesias estarían a reventar de tanta gente que le cree a Jesús y que quiera vivir eternamente.

De todas maneras en mi calidad de sacerdote me he sorprendido mucho al ver cómo algunas personas en diferentes etapas y situaciones de la vida Dios les ha concedido la gracia de poder experimentar su presencia real en la Sagrada Eucaristía. Es conmovedor ver a los niños probar y saborear el Pan de Vida en el día de su Primera Comunión. Les parece mentira que Dios les regale tanta felicidad ni que decir de aquellos que están desahuciados en los hospitales. Algunos en lecho de muerte reciben con gozo y esperanza la Santa Hostia que en otras épocas muy seguramente rechazaron o desaprovecharon. En esa etapa crítica parecen finalmente entender que quien coma de ese Pan no morirá para siempre. Que alegría, que así sea al final del peregrinar por este mundo, uno pueda finalmente entender que Jesús habla muy en serio cuando nos presenta su cuerpo como aquel que nos da vida eterna.

Hay otras personas que podrían beneficiarse del Pan de Vida y no pueden por estar en las cárceles y prisiones en donde hasta esta opción se les convierte en escasa y poco probable. Ellos parecen que comprenden que la Eucaristía es el centro de nuestras vidas pero ahora les es casi imposible asistir a la Santa Misa por su condición de internos. Por eso mi invitación a todos los lectores es vayan a Misa, acérquense a la Eucaristía no se esperen a que se les haga demasiado tarde. Jesús les quiere alimentar con el Pan de su Palabra y de su Cuerpo para llevarlos después a participar del banquete de vida eterna en el cielo.

4 THINGS EVERY CATHOLIC PARENT SHOULD MAKE SURE THEIR CHILDREN KNOW BEFORE LEAVING HOME:

You are loved. It has been proven over and over that young adults who know beyond any doubt that their parents love them are less likely to engage in risky behavior, including premarital sex, drugs and alcohol. This doesn't mean you will condone all their choices or bail them out of every difficult situation, but it does mean that in a changing world, your love will be a steadfast constant they can rely upon.

Know your faith. The "real world" is going to challenge our children's Catholic beliefs. Catholics with a weak knowledge of the teachings of the Church often fall victim to evangelization by other faiths, or, worse, fall away from faith completely. Even if your children have had the best Catholic education, don't assume they fully understand what they've been taught. Take time to discuss the faith. Listen to your children and ask pointed questions.

The Church is your home. Make sure your children know that they may be leaving your family home, but they never have to leave their church home. When bouts of homesickness threaten (as they probably will), a nearby Catholic Church and the Mass can be a touchstone of safety in what can feel like an impersonal world.

Pray daily. As important as friends are, friendship with God is even more important. Our children need to understand that friendship with God requires time and energy. While it is true that God is always there waiting for us, and that God does, in fact, take the initiative to contact us, we need to spend time every day in prayer in order to know and understand God's will for our lives.
