ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

An inward transformation occurs in a person who decides to follow Jesus Christ. Things change. They see the world differently, understand their journey more deeply and profoundly, have their sights fixed on eternity and union with God and hold themselves to higher standards and virtues. It requires a conscious choice to be a Christian, and this choice must be renewed at least daily. While the basic premise of Jesus' message may appear heart-warming and straightforward: love of God, neighbor, and self, the implications of doing so are challenging. The true disciple is called to live radically, and often finds themselves at odds with the world or even with those in their own homes. Holding ourselves to higher standards comes with a price. We have to leave other things behind. It is difficult to be people of faith, hope, and love in a world often fixated with its own fulfillment and self-absorption. Justice, temperance, prudence, and fortitude require sacrifice if they are to be lived with integrity. God's ways are not ours. This becomes crystal clear to those who have enough courage to stand against the tide. Putting love into action requires that we challenge accepted modes of doing business and fight complacency. This is what makes the saints stand out as witnesses. They are simply sinners, just like us, who persevere. People do not want to be told that they're sailing their ships in the wrong direction. Clinging to their insistence and need to be correct, they can become defensive when challenged. This can happen even with those closest to us. As much as the Gospel calls us to unity, it also can easily create division. When we love seriously, we encounter more than feelings of warmth and acceptance. "What does love look like? It has the hands to help others. It has the feet to hasten to the poor and needy. It has eyes to see misery and want. It has the ears to hear the sighs and sorrows of men. That is what love looks like (St. Augustine)." Love also has the courage and honesty to tell people what they may not want to hear but need to, and model, without wavering, a life of humble, loving, and faithful service. Don't lose heart! There are many examples of faith before us and around us. If Jesus endured the voices of opposition, so too can we. There is no need to apologize for speaking the truth.

LANDSCAPING NEWS

Mary's Meditation Garden is looking beautiful thanks to the our enthusiastic and knowledgeable gardeners Sue Henggeler, Steve Hollinrake (both pictured) and Annette Hellbusch. Tree planting, bushes, flowers, river rock and pavers have been lovingly placed. Thank you to all our landscaping teams for keeping our St. Bonaventure Church campus beautiful. The staff in the parish office here lots of compliments from parishioners and visitors.

DO YOU FEEL LIKE YOU ARE CALLED TO SERVE AS LECTOR OR EMHC?

We are always in need of Lectors and EMHC's. Is this something God is asking you to help with? Please prayerfully consider one of these ministries. This year the Archdiocese is offering "online" sessions for anyone interested in helping out with these Liturgical Ministries. Online Archdiocesan liturgical formation sessions for EMHC and Lector candidates is now being held. Please call Belinda in the parish office and we will get you signed up and the link to get registered.

RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS

Would you like to know more about the Catholic Faith? Have you been thinking about joining the Catholic Church? Are you a baptized Catholic who has not received the sacraments of Eucharist and Confirmation? If you answered "YES" to any of these questions, then take a look at the Saint Bonaventure RCIA process! The RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) is a process for those interested in learning more about the Catholic faith and considering membership in the Catholic Church. If you are interested, we would like to journey with you in this experience. RCIA meets on Tuesdays from 6:30-8:00pm beginning on September. For more information, email Cheryl Rambour at crambour@stboncc.com or call 402-564-7151.

ANUNCIOS en ESPAÑOL

Que Arda Fuego

Padre Jairo Congote

¿Qué sentido puede tener que Jesús diga que su venida es para establecer la división y que desea incendiar nuestro mundo? ¿Acaso hemos malinterpretado el mensaje de Jesús? ¿Nos equivocamos al decir que Jesús es el Príncipe de la Paz? No es así. Jesús traerá la paz. Pero su paz no será completa hasta el último día, cuando Jesús establezca el reino de Dios. Antes de ese momento, el papel de la paz debe ser considerado más cuidadosamente. Como antiguo monje, hermano religioso y ahora párroco puedo decir que cuando seguimos a Jesús, llegar a la paz no siempre es pacífico. La verdadera paz es más que la ausencia de hostilidad. Es una vida que se construye sobre la bondad y la justicia. Mientras vivamos en un mundo donde la injusticia y el mal están presentes, es necesario oponerse a ese mal e injusticia. Y oponerse al mal no es pacífico. Jesús nos llama a la paz, pero llegar a la paz es con frecuencia inquietante y doloroso.

Hay una distinción importante que debemos tener en cuenta para dar sentido a las palabras de Jesús en el Evangelio. La diferencia entre mantener la paz y servir a la paz. Los cristianos no están llamados a mantener la paz, sino a servir a la paz. Si hacemos del mantenimiento de la paz nuestra máxima prioridad, nunca nos permitiremos molestar o perturbar a nadie. Este enfoque corre el riesgo de encubrir la injusticia y el mal que están presentes entre nosotros. Cuando se tolera el mal, mantener la paz es contrario al reino de Dios.

Si hacemos del mantenimiento de la paz nuestra máxima prioridad, nunca nos permitiremos decir que una relación concreta es abusiva y debemos cambiarla. Nunca nos enfrentaremos a la realidad de que nuestro matrimonio es destructivo y nos alejaremos de él. Si mantener la paz es nuestra mayor prioridad, nunca tendremos el valor de enfrentarnos a un miembro de la familia por su alcoholismo o de hablar sobre el abuso verbal o sexual en el lugar de trabajo. Es posible que hasta el día de hoy estemos sufriendo por decisiones que algunas personas han tomado para mantener las cosas en silencio.

No estamos llamados a mantener la paz. Estamos llamados a servir a la paz. Por supuesto, esto no significa que enfadar a la gente sea valioso por sí mismo. Enfadar a la gente es con frecuencia imprudente y contraproducente. Pero en un mundo donde existe el mal, la oposición y la confrontación son a veces necesarias para servir a la paz. Podemos ser llamados a servir a la paz marchando contra una ley injusta o una guerra injusta. Podemos estar llamados a servir a la paz oponiéndonos a alguien con autoridad que ignora los derechos de otra persona. Podemos estar llamados a servir a la paz diciendo la verdad en nuestra familia, en nuestro lugar de trabajo o en nuestra iglesia, incluso decir la verdad, aunque sea un problema y se corra el riesgo de dividir a la gente.

¿Estás sirviendo a la paz o estás manteniendo la paz? Esta es una pregunta crucial. Si acabamos cubriendo el mal en un esfuerzo por mantener la paz, con el tiempo estaremos viviendo una mentira. Y esa mentira al final nos destruirá. Pero si podemos, con prudencia y fuerza, oponernos al mal que nos rodea, estaremos sirviendo a la paz. Nuestros esfuerzos para enfrentarnos al mal son, por supuesto, jugar con fuego. Pero cuando encendemos un fuego para destruir las fuerzas que se oponen al Reino de Dios, Jesús diría: "¡Deje que arda".

SEEKING THE TRUTH BIBLE STUDY

Sign Up Now: Seeking Truth Bible Study series to start again at St. Isadore's this fall. A 22-week Bible study Isaiah will start on Wednesday evenings beginning Sept. 14th in the Family Room at St. Isadore's. Two sessions will be offered: 4:30pm-6:00pm and 6:15pm-7:45pm. We will be using Sharon Doran's Seeking Truth video bible series which has been commissioned by the Omaha Archdiocese. Each week consists of a 45-50 minute video and then a small group discussion time to go over questions covered in the week's lesson. During the series we will not meet during holiday weeks. All are welcome! Sign up is taking place during the month of August. Space will be limited. Before and after all weekend masses on Aug 20th/21, there will be someone available in the narthex at St. Isadore's to answer any questions you may have. You are welcome to sign up by contacting Laurie Lange at 402-564-8053, laurielange5@gmail.com or Bonnie McPhillips at 402-276-1287, bonniewilliam1983@gmail.com

Thank you, TeamMates Volunteers!

The TeamMates Mentoring Program would like to give a special thanks to St. Bonaventure church members Michelle Cruise, Jared Johnson, Jeff Kosch, Melissa Kosch, Kim Loseke, Kati Odbert, Willie Piitz, Clete Pillen, Jill Spale, Traci Wickham and Christi Wiese who volunteer with TeamMates.

Find out how investing a little time (just one class or lunch period per week) can make a tremendous difference to a child in our community. The one-to-one mentoring take place at the school and can include a variety of activities such as scrap booking, shooting hoops, playing games or just visiting. TeamMates is looking for additional mentors to make an impact in our community for the upcoming school year. To learn more about the rewards of mentoring, call 402-564-8326 or visit www.teammates.org
