PRAYER TO ST. JOSEPH

To you, O blessed Joseph, do we come in our tribulation, and having implored the help of your most holy Spouse, we confidently invoke your patronage also. Through that charity which bound you to the Immaculate Virgin Mother of God and through the paternal love with which you embraced the Child Jesus, we humbly beg you graciously to regard the inheritance which Jesus Christ has purchased by his Blood, and with your power and strength to aid us in our necessities.

O most watchful guardian of the Holy Family, defend the chosen children of Jesus Christ; O most loving Father, ward off from us every contagion of error and corrupting influence; O our most mighty protector, be kind to us and from heaven assist us in our struggle with the power of darkness. As once you rescued the Child Jesus from deadly peril, so now protect God's Holy Church from the snares of the enemy and from all adversity; shield, too, each one of us by your constant protection, so that, supported by your example and your aid, we may be able to live piously, to die in holiness, and to obtain eternal happiness in heaven. Amen.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK —JUNE 13, 2021

"Too many Christians regard God as pilots regard their parachute, namely, good if needed, but better if they can get along without it."

My Back Surgery is This Week

I had a spinal fusion in May, 2018 that failed; no new bone grew so there was no "fusion" of the two vertebrae where the disk was removed. The surgery this week will be more extensive as it involves removing the old "hardware" and cleaning up the original site. My doctor tells me the surgery (scheduled to begin at 7:30 a.m. on Thursday, June 17) should last four hours (the first surgery was two hours) and that I should expect to be in hospital for four days (the first surgery was 2 days). He tells me to expect 4 weeks for recovery. I bounced back very quickly the first time but don't know what to expect this time. I am praying for a good outcome and swift recovery and appreciate your prayers too.

THE WEEKEND MASS SCHEDULE WILL REMAIN THE SAME. A substitute priest will help on Saturdays. FR. PHIL SAID HE WILL TAKE BOTH SUNDAY MASSES. To allow time for that the Mass at Holy Ghost will be at 9:15 a.m. instead of 9 a.m. during my recovery. When I am able to be back in church again it will go back to 9 a.m.

Daily Masses will alternate with Deacon-led Communion Services.

"From a sudden and unprovided death, Lord, save your people."

These words, taken from the Litany of the Saints, are fairly self-explanatory. We all know what "sudden death" means but what about an "unprovided death?" This means dying without the benefit of the sacraments, especially those that are commonly called the "Last Rites" final confession, final anointing, Viaticum (Holy Communion for the last time – when possible) and Apostolic Pardon. It should be the desire of every Catholic to receive these spiritual benefits to prepare the soul for eternal life.

It is of great concern to me that many friends and relatives of the dying seem to wait until the very last minute to call for a priest (if they call at all). This is very dangerous as the number of priests grows smaller, the availability of one to be able to come at a moment's notice also declines. If you know of a loved one, relative or friend has a terminal illness, by all means, do not wait until the last minute. It might be too late.

Repairs were recently made to the air conditioning system at St. Stanislaus at a cost of $3,200. Your contributions for "Fuel" or "Capital Improvements" really help defray costs like this.

New Artwork at St. Stanislaus

You might have noticed a couple of new things on the walls of both side aisles toward the west end of the church. On the south side is a tapestry depiction of Raphael's painting "Madonna of the Chair," something I am donating from my personal belongings as I prepare to "downsize" before retirement in 2 years.

Raphael painted this somewhere in 1513-14 and is housed in the Pitti Palace in Florence. It depicts the Blessed Virgin holding the Christ Child with John the Baptist. I am donating it in memory of my parents Dr. E.W. & Kathleen Sanderson

On the north wall is a portrait of Blessed Jerzy Poplieluszko. He was born in Poland in 1947 and brutally murdered by the Communists in 1984. After he was ordained a priest in 1972 he served in a number of parishes in Warsaw and went on to become chaplain for the Solidarity movement that would eventually lead to the collapse of Communism in Poland.

Fr. Popiełuszko's sermons were routinely broadcast by Radio Free Europe, and thus became famous throughout Poland for their uncompromising stance against the Communist regime which tried to silence or intimidate him. When those techniques did not work, they fabricated evidence against him; he was arrested in 1983, but soon released on intervention of the clergy and pardoned by an amnesty.

More than 1 million people, including Lech Wałęsa, attended his funeral on 3 November 1984. He is buried in the church yard of St. Stanislaus Kostka in Warsaw. St. John Paul II prayed at his grave in 1987.

The last public words spoken by Blessed Jerzy during the meditation on the rosary October 19, 1984, give a summary of his life and may serve as guidance for us as well. "In order to defeat evil with good, in order to preserve the dignity of man, one must not use violence. It is the person who has failed to win on the strength of his heart and his reason, who tries to win by force…Let us pray that we be free from fear and intimidation, but above all from the lusts for revenge and violence."

The portrait was donated in memory of Chuck Bogus (1945-2020) of our parish.
