Parishioner Highlight - Joe & Kayla Lorsung family

Joe, Kayla, Ava, Elise, Brielle & Jocelyn

Kayla and I have been parishioners at HS for over five years now. We both came to Fargo for college, got jobs here and have stayed ever since. Fargo is halfway between our hometowns (she's from western ND and I'm from northern MN), so it made a lot of sense. We have four beautiful and healthy daughters (12, 9, 5 & 3) that keep us on our toes, and we've got #5 on the way!

We are an active family and we keep busy with: Catholic School, Dance, Basketball, Family Movies, Playing Cards, Roller blading, bike riding, bonfires, boating and tripping to lake country in summer whenever possible, ice skating, & generally getting outdoors whenever possible!! That's the secret to enjoying life up here; don't let the cold keep you stuck indoors! Wool socks, hats, fleece bottoms and sweaters go a long way to making life better up here- the Norwegians have a philosophy of "Hygge" which loosely translates to "cozy". If you can feel warm and cozy, even outside, that's the best!!

Kayla and I see God's work in our lives and our family all the time!! Three years ago, we both took a huge leap of faith when Kayla went back to college to obtain her Master's Degree in Nursing (NP) and I left a good career at an A&E firm in town to start my own firm with a couple of friends. We learned A LOT about Trusting in God for everything, and we are still learning! We strive to walk in the path God has for us, going to Mass and confession regularly, praying with our kids most every day, and keeping open to how God wants to grow our own personal faith in Him and His will for us.

Our mission is to invite, form, and equip missionary disciples of Jesus Christ.

CHARISMS

We find fulfilment in loving others. Charisms are those special gifts given to us at Baptism to build up the Body of Christ. Here is how it works:

1. You are invited to get involved. Charisms are graces that come when we serve others.

2. The discernment begins by taking a Charism's workshop. You are taught how to see God working through you. The goal is to have each person discover & use 1 charism

3. Then your ready to enjoy & can help others discern theirs.

Modern Men Lack True Friends

Many men lack true friends in today's culture. Studies show that large numbers of men lack close friendships, which is correlated with less happiness, more depression, more loneliness, poorer health and shorter life spans. Friendship matters and there is a crisis in male friendship.

Modern culture confuses masculine friendship. Male friendship is portrayed as shallow, good-times focused, comically "manly" or encouragingly homosexual. Rather than seek real friends, many men are retreating into virtual worlds of computer games and "Facebook friends".

The causes of the male friendship crisis are many. Friendships do not thrive in smaller, more mobile families that have increasing levels of divorce. There has been a long-term dramatic fall in men's social involvement in church, civic and social groups. Work pressures reduce men's social time and working wives require men to help pick up the slack in parenting. Men are distracted from building friendships due to a huge media smorgasbord of TV, video games and the internet. The increasing self-obsessed narcissistic modern culture has not taught the virtue of self-giving friendship.

Friendships Through Christ

In ancient times, Aristotle stressed the importance of friendship, categorizing the types of friendships by their purpose: friends that gather for good times, friends where there is mutual utility (e.g. business, shared goals) and friends that seek the good for each other. Aquinas makes it clear that the highest good is eternal good and that Christian friendships are thus a superior form of human friendships. The Church teaches that friendship with Jesus is the highest form of friendship (CCC 142) and that those who die in friendship with God can be assured of salvation (CCC 1030).

Men can find true friendship with Jesus Christ, the Divine Friend and by building communio with other men who together share commitment to Christ. There are no substitutes for friendship with Jesus and no human friendship is complete without Christ.

Jesus Christ – Divine Friend

Jesus Christ's friendship comforts men and teaches them how to build Christ-centered friendships:

Jesus longs for friendship with others – Jesus comes to man so that the Truth can be known, to free men from sin and so that men might have access to God (Summa Theologica, III, Q40). Jesus seeks friends, spending three days in the Temple, calling the Twelve, and tirelessly travels to meet and build friendships. He seeks the comfort of His close friends in the Garden of Gethsemane.

Jesus offers, but doesn't force, friendship – John 6:66, Luke 9:53 Mark 10:31.

Has close circle of male friends – John 15:15, Matt 12:49, John 15:15

He serves His friends – Luke 4:38-29, John 11:44, Matt 14:22-33, Matt 12: 1-8, John 13:5, John 18:8

He teaches about building friendships – Matt 5:25 Matt 7:1-5, Matt 18:15-18, Matt 18:23 Luke 11:5-8, Luke 7:6 Luke, 14:10, Luke 14:12, John 2:1-11; Luke 15:6,9, Matt 20:13, 22:12.

Emphasizes table fellowship – Mark 2:15; Matt 9:10, Matt 14:13-21, Luke 22:7-39

He corrects and teaches his friends – Matt 16:23, Mark 4:10-20 Matt 14:31, Matt 26:50

He emphasizes prayer with friends – Matt 18:20, Matt 6:9-13

Makes it clear what is necessary for Divine Friendship – John 15:14

Offers His life for His friends – John 15:13

Jesus leaves a lasting Christian legacy of fellowship – Acts 2:42

Dispensation to miss Mass due to Covid has ended

Prayer Teams on the 3rd Weekend of the Month

Do you need prayers? The Lord has given all of us the gift of prayer and one of beautiful things about that gift is the ability to pray with and for one another as brothers and sisters in Christ. Whether it's healing you're seeking, something big you're facing in your life, or you just feel like you could use some prayers, no prayer is too big or too small for God. After all the weekend masses on May 15 & 16, prayer teams will be available in the back of the Church by the staircase. Just approach a team member or sit in the back pew and a team member will approach you.

All graduating seniors and your families!

Baccalaureate Mass is at 9am on Sunday, May 16. A Brunch for our graduating seniors and their families will follow Mass. Please RSVP by Monday, May 10, if you have not yet done so.

Stewardship Moment

"This is my commandment: love one another as I love you. No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends" - John 15:12-13

Do you love Jesus? Do you consider Him your friend? Jesus says that if we love Him we would be willing to offer whatever we have to Him, not because we want praise and glory, but simply because we love Him. Does your giving seem mechanical out of obligation or do you share freely out of love?
