24TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He summoned the crowd with his disciples and said to them, "Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me. For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake and that of the gospel will save it." - Mk 8:34-35

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD. ©LPi

Monthly Social Teaching - Solidarity

We are one human family whatever our national, racial, ethnic, economic, and ideological differences. We are our brothers and sisters' keepers, wherever they may be. Loving our neighbor has global dimensions in a shrinking world. At the core of the virtue of solidarity is the pursuit of justice and peace. Pope Paul VI taught that if you want peace, work for justice. The Gospel calls us to be peacemakers. Our love for all our sisters and brothers demands that we promote peace in a world surrounded by violence and conflict.

Weekly Virtue: Charity - St. Scholastica

Know It: Loving God with all your heart, mind, and strength, and your neighbor as yourself. Charity is gift given to us by God at Baptism.

Live it: Speak of others only in kindness, putting God first and foremost in our lives.

Pray It: O God, You caused the soul of Your blessed virgin Scholastica to enter heaven in the form of a dove, to show us the way of innocence. Grant us, by her prayers and merits, to live in such innocence, that we may deserve to attain eternal joys. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

St. Scholastica - Saint Scholastica was the twin sister of Saint Benedict. Scholastica helped her brother found a community of religious women about five miles south of his monastery at Monte Cassino, Italy. Scholastica and Benedict visited together only once a year. They would spend the day praying and speaking of God and the spiritual life. When Benedict said he had to return to the monastery, Scholastica begged him to stay and talk. Benedict refused. Heartbroken, Scholastica put her head on the table, and wept and prayed. A storm began so terrible that no one could venture out. Benedict and Scholastica continued their conversation and prayer until morning. Three days later, Scholastica died. Benedict had her buried in the tomb he had built for himself.
St. Gregory the Great said of Scholastica, "She could do more because she loved more."

Our mission is to invite, form, and equip missionary disciples of Jesus Christ.

PRAYER

We are made for prayer! Our parish strives to be a school of prayer in this way:

1. We first invite people into a deeper relationship with God.

2. Then we journey with them, teaching, encouraging and ultimately forming them in the habit of prayer. Ideally each person achieves enjoying 1/2 hour of meditative/contemplative prayer.

3. As each soul is formed in the habit of pray. Ultimately we equip them to share this gift of prayer with their loved ones.

Exaltation of the Holy Cross - September 14

The one symbol most often identified with Jesus and his Church is the cross.

We celebrate The Exaltation of the Holy Cross on September 14. This feast traces its beginning to Jerusalem and the dedication of the church built on the site of Mount Calvary in 335. But the meaning of the cross is deeper than any city, any celebration, any building. The cross is a sign of suffering, a sign of human cruelty at its worst. But by Christ's love shown in the Paschal Mystery, it has become the sign of triumph and victory, the sign of God, who is love itself.

When Moses lifted up the bronze serpent over the people, it was a foreshadowing of the salvation through Jesus when He was lifted up on the Cross. Our Mother Church sings of the triumph of the Cross, the instrument of our redemption. To follow Christ we must take up His cross, follow Him and become obedient until death, even if it means death on the cross. We identify with Christ on the Cross and become co-redeemers, sharing in His cross.

Believers have always looked to the cross in times of suffering. People in concentration camps, in prisons, in hospitals, in any place of suffering and loneliness, have been known to draw, trace, or form crosses and focus their eyes and hearts on them. The cross does not explain pain and misery. It does not give us any easy answers. But it does help us to see our lives united with Christ's.

We often make the Sign of the Cross over ourselves. We make it before prayer to help fix our minds and hearts on God. We make it after prayer, hoping to stay close to God. In trials and temptations, the cross is a sign of strength and protection. The cross is the sign of the fullness of life that is ours. At Baptism, too, the Sign of the Cross is used; the priest, parents, and godparents make the sign on the forehead of the child. A sign made on the forehead is a sign of belonging. By the Sign of the Cross in Baptism, Jesus takes us as his own in a unique way. Today, let us look to the cross often. Let us make the Sign of the Cross and realize we bring our whole selves to God—our minds, souls, bodies, wills, thoughts, hearts—everything we are and will become.

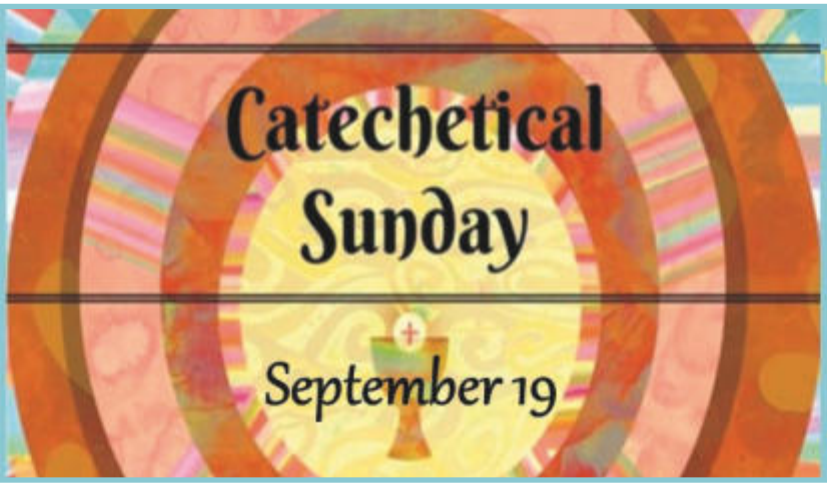
O cross, you are the glorious sign of our victory.

Through your power may we share in the triumph of Christ Jesus.

Things to Do:

- Study different symbols and types of crosses, history and/or significance. Then have an art project — creating own crosses, using different media, including paper.
- Learn and pray the prayer to Christ Crucified; pray the Stations of the Cross. Point out particularly the phrase repeated at each station: We adore You, O Christ, and praise You, Because by Your Holy Cross You have redeemed the world.
- Study the history of St. Helena and Constantine, especially St. Helena's quest for finding the relics of Jesus.
- Make sure that crucifixes are displayed prominently throughout your home. Point out the crucifix in every room even to the smallest ones. Your child's first word may be "Jesus"!
- Explain the meaning of the Sign of the Cross to your children and be sure that even the little ones are taught how to make it.
- Teach your children a short prayer such as "Through the sign of the Cross deliver us from our enemies".
- Make a dessert in the form of a cross, or decorated with a cross.
- Tradition holds that sweet basil grew over the hill where St. Helena found the Holy Cross, so in Greece the faithful are given sprigs of basil by the priest. Cook a basil pesto, tomato basil salad (with the last of the summer tomatoes) or some other type of recipe that includes basil, and explain to the family.

Say the Word and My Soul Shall be Healed



Please keep all our catechists in your prayers as they begin their ministry

Stewardship Moment

"Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me."
- Mark 8:34

Living a stewardship lifestyle means not only being responsible for my own life, but for the lives of others as well. We realize that our gifts are not intended for ourselves, rather they are meant to be shared with others. "Taking up my cross" means doing things when someone else needs me and not when it's convenient for me.

In today's Gospel Jesus says "Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me." The cross of Jesus and the crosses of his members can evangelize us: the sick, who bear illness with courage; the grieving, who hope against hope; the dying, who clearly trust in the resurrection; the suffering of our poor brothers and sisters who are hungry and homeless, but who still trust in God's love.

The intention of our SVDP Conference is to help our own parishioners as well as those in our parish boundaries. Don't hesitate to reach out to us for help-especially when dealing with a loss of job or illness. We are here to help!!
