MONTHLY SOCIAL TEACHING - Call to Family, Community & Participation

The person is not only sacred but also social. How we organize our society - in economics and politics, in law and policy - directly affects human dignity and the capacity of individuals to grow in community. Marriage and the family are the central social institutions that must be supported and strengthened, not undermined. We believe people have a right and a duty to participate in society, seeking together the common good and well-being of all, especially the poor and vulnerable.

WEEKLY VIRTUE: Loyalty

KNOW IT: Paying due honor and respect to one's country; with a willingness to serve

LIVE IT: Show respect for your country's flag; speak respectfully about government officials; recite the Pledge of Allegiance

PRAY IT: St Josaphat, you gave your life attempting to bring East and West together. Give us your spirit of unity so that our prayers bring all Christians into common union under the leadership of a common head, the successor of St Peter. Amen.

ST. JOSAPHAT - St. Josaphat was born in Lithuania about 1580 into a Catholic family. He promoted Catholic unity in a country divided between Orthodox and Catholic. He entered the Byzantine monastery of Holy Trinity in Vilna in 1604 and was elected Catholic archbishop of Polotsk in 1614. While clinging firmly to unity with Rome, he opposed those Latins who saw unity only in Latin terms and would suppress Byzantine traditions in the name of Catholic unity. He firmly opposed the Latinization of his people and made enemies and severe critics among the Latin clergy of Poland. He held firmly to Catholic unity against the Orthodox and just as firmly to Byzantine rights against the Latins. Politically, the Catholic and Orthodox clergy were rivals in Lithuania, and the archbishop of Polotsk was one of the contested sees; an Orthodox archbishop was appointed, and Josaphat was accused of taking office invalidly. Many of the Byzantine Catholics became Orthodox. Even the king of Poland wavered in his support of Josaphat. In Nov of 1623 Josaphat went to Witebsk, to bring about peace, preaching in the churches and trying to reconcile differences. On Nov 12, a mob broke into the house where he was staying, shouting hatred and violence. When he confronted them, he was struck in the head with a halberd and shot. His mangled body was dragged out and thrown into the river. He was canonized by Pope Pius IX in 1867.

Our mission is to invite, form, and equip missionary disciples of Jesus Christ.

CHARISMS

We find fulfillment in loving others. Charisms are those special gifts given to us at Baptism to build up the Body of Christ. Here is how it works:

1. You are invited to get involved. Charisms are graces that come when we serve others.
2. The discernment begins by taking a Charism workshop. You are taught how to see God working through you. The goal is to have each person discover & use 1 charism
3. Then you're ready to enjoy & can help others discern theirs.

MARRIAGE AND CHURCH LAW

The gift of the sacraments, including marriage come from God and are safe guarded by our Church. Here are a few of the laws that speak about marriage.

communion.

Canon Law pronouncement on Marriage

Its not every day that Canon Law changes. Canon Law is the universal law of the Catholic Church. Sometimes minor aspects of it are changed due to better understanding of the Church. The most recent adjustment regards the requirement of Catholics getting married. For some 400 years, it has been a universal law of the Church that Catholics require permission from the Catholic Church to get married. So much so that if they do not get permission, they are not married at all in the God's eyes even though they may enjoy some type of a civil union. This was because the Church thought so much of marriage and was worried because the recently formed Protestant communities did not recognize marriage as a sacrament. We put terms on this such as an invalid marriage or a marriage not blessed by the Church.

This law is staying the same but there is one minor adjustment to it. There use to be a kind of exception for people who had 'formally' left the Church. Such people would not be required by the 'form' or permission of the Catholic Church to get married. However what does it mean to 'formally' leave the Church? Canon Lawyers argued over what one would actually have to do to formally leave the Church. It was finally decided that this was all too difficult and the Church has now decided that all people baptized as Catholics, even if they have rejected their faith, must get married with the permission ('form') of the Church for them to have a real marriage. This makes us realize how important our baptism is and how much it connects us to our Church and to God.

Exert from the Diocesan law on sacraments

4.1.7.18 Celebration of the Rite of Marriage is to be done precisely as indicated by the liturgical texts, without the innovation of added symbols or ceremonies, which often detract from Christian worship and celebration of the sacrament.

1. Music – Each and every musical selection within the marriage celebration is to be sacred, that is, music whose purpose is to glorify God and sanctify the faithful (Cf. Musicam Sacram, 4 and Sing to the Lord, 216ff). Instrumental music ought not to come from a context in contradiction to the Sacrament of Marriage. As always, music in the liturgy is a personal act of worship, not a recording.

2. Symbols and ceremonies – The rite of Marriage, in itself, highlights the consent of the couple to enter in to marriage freely, with love and openness to children. Their unity is symbolized by joining hands and giving consent before God and his Church. No additional symbols or rituals (i.e. sand ceremony, etc.), beyond those specified below, are permitted to detract from the primary symbols and actions of the sacred rite. Pastoral concern and catechesis is necessary to educate couples concerning the inherent meaning in the rituals, readings, and prayers for Marriage, so that they may most fruitfully celebrate this rite.

3. Lawful local particular practices a. An expression of filial love and dedication to our Lady for her protection of a newly married couple, may be observed, after the prayer after

HOLY SPIRIT PARISHIONER CONTEMPLATES...

For over ten years, I've been starting my days in the "classroom of silence."

Expressing gratitude for the good things in my life. Asking God to forgive me where I have fallen short. To protect my wife and children, to help them overcome challenges. Thinking about the needs of my parents, family, friends, and coworkers. Praying for peace in our country. Reading the daily mass readings and meditating on the message.

Mostly asking God to help me through the day, to do his will, accept the things I cannot change, change the things I can and make me a better husband, father, son, leader, man.

I choose to believe it helps. But I'm a work in progress.

God make me an agent of your will and a conduit of your word today.

Make it a great day everyone!

Stewardship Moment

“Go, eat rich foods and drink sweet drinks, and allot portions to those who had nothing prepared...” - Nehemiah 8:10

Ezra's instructions to the people show us that God does not forbid us from enjoying the good things in life. He wants us to be happy! However, God expects us to be grateful for all that He has given us and to generously share our blessings with those who are in need. Now here's the hard part – to share all we have without expecting anything in return.
