- Lk 6:21

MONTHLY SOCIAL TEACHING - Rights & Responsibilities

The Catholic tradition teaches that human dignity can be protected, and a healthy community can be achieved only if human rights are protected, and responsibilities are met. Therefore, every person has a fundamental right to life and a right to those things required for human decency. Corresponding to these rights are duties and responsibilities - to one another, to our families, and to the larger society.

WEEKLY VIRTUE: Responsibility

KNOW IT: Fulfilling one's just duties; accepting the consequences of one's words and actions, intentional and unintentional

LIVE IT: Be accountable for one's personal actions and decisions at home, at school and in personal relationships

PRAY IT: Be O Lord, a guiding star above me, a smooth path below me, a kindly shepherd behind me and a bright flame before me; today, tonight and forever. Amen.

ST. COLUMBA - (7 December 521 – 9 June 597), was an Irish abbot and missionary credited with spreading Christianity in present-day Scotland. He founded the important abbey on Iona, which became a dominant religious and political institution in the region for centuries. He is the Patron Saint of Derry and is remembered today as one of the Twelve Apostles of Ireland. Columba died on Iona and was buried in 597 by his monks in the abbey he created. In 794 the Vikings descended on Iona. Columba's relics were finally removed in 849 and divided between Scotland and Ireland. The parts of the relics which went to Ireland are reputed to be buried in Downpatrick, County Down, with St Patrick and St Brigid. Columba performed various miracles such as healing people with diseases, expelling malignant spirits, subduing wild beasts, calming storms, and even returning the dead to life. Columba is historically revered as a warrior saint, and was often invoked for victory in battle.

Our mission is to invite, form, and equip missionary disciples of Jesus Christ.

CHARISMS

We find fulfillment in loving others. Charisms are those special gifts given to us at Baptism to build up the Body of Christ. Here is how it works:

1. You are invited to get involved. Charisms are graces that come when we serve others.
2. The discernment begins by taking a Charism workshop. You are taught how to see God working through you. The goal is to have each person discover & use 1 charism
3. Then you're ready to enjoy & can help others discern theirs.

St. Peter's Chair: Why a Celebration?

Did you ever celebrate a chair? Probably not, but we are not totally unfamiliar with the idea of a chair as a stand-in for its occupants, as well as for their role.

Today we celebrate the feast of the Chair of Saint Peter. Again, we are not celebrating a piece of furniture, but the role and office of Peter within the Church. And that office, presently held by Pope Francis, has been around for over 2,000 years and is both a source of authority and unity as well as a cause of significant tension among the followers of Jesus. So why celebrate it?

February 22 we celebrate the feast for several reasons. First, it is a day when we recognize who and what the chair stands for. The chair of Peter is not the chair of a local bishop, for the chair of the Bishop of Rome is in his cathedral of John Lateran. So, while the present occupant of the Chair of Peter is Pope Francis, we are not focusing on his role as the local bishop of the diocese of Rome. Rather, we're celebrating his role as shepherd or bishop of the universal Church, a role that is intricately one with, but not identical to, his position as bishop of Rome. So the chair of Peter is, first, a stand-in for the Pope as bishop of the world-wide Church.

We are also celebrating the authority of the universal bishop. It's the authority given by Jesus to Peter to lead and guide the Church in Jesus' place. For Jesus told Peter that "you are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church . . ." (Mt 16:18). In his Letter to the Galatians, we see Saint Paul acknowledging this fact by seeking Peter's approval for his ministry, for he recognized Peter as the first among the apostles (Gal 1:18). This authority and role, we believe as Catholics, is passed down and exercised by the pope, just as the authority and role of the apostles is passed down and exercised by the bishops in union with the pope.

Here, I think, it would be good to recognize the somewhat unique way in which our present pope views this position. Pope Francis sees his role primarily as a servant-authority uniting and guiding the Church members as we grow in the life of the Holy Spirit. He is less inclined to conceive of it as one of dictating or ruling-over others. He clearly believes in the sensus fidelium, the universal, gut faith of the entire Church inspired by the Holy Spirit. He views his role as pope as the coordinator and animator of that faith. He is not one to act autocratically, yet, he realizes that he is the supreme teacher and authority in the Church, for he exercises the office of Peter. It's just that he is not about flaunting his role, but, rather, about using it to serve the faithful. He is a rather conservative pontiff in many ways, especially when it comes to doctrine, for he certainly does not view the Church as a democracy and its doctrine as determined by popular vote. But he likes to listen and discern where the Holy Spirit is leading the Church.

Finally, we are celebrating the unity that the Chair of Saint Peter symbolizes. Since apostolic times, the various Churches founded by the original apostles were somewhat independent—partly due to distance and the lack of communication systems—yet united in faith under the leadership of Saint Peter. Today, for example, within the Roman Rite, we have the various national conferences of bishops who exercise a certain independence within the unity of the universal Church of Rome. In this, they exercise a unity without uniformity.

Ecumenically speaking, many of the churches have come to accept the value of the Chair of Saint Peter and all that it stands for, especially as a sign of unity without uniformity. Others still find it objectionable, if not offensive. But for the Catholic community, the feast of the Chair of Saint Peter stands as a celebration of the authority and unity that Jesus created for his Church on earth as exercised by our pope. An authority and a unity that does not totally depend on the person who presently holds the office, for it is an authority and a unity that is bigger than any one person. While the personality and temperament of a pope certainly can and does influence the position in very definite ways, the role will outlive him to see another occupant on the chair. Everything pointing to the fact that it is the Holy Spirit who truly runs the Church, but through various human beings who, of course, have their gifts and foibles.

We celebrate the feast of the Chair of Saint Peter rejoicing in the guidance and the role of the Holy Spirit, thanking Jesus for the authority he shares with mere humans, and we pray for the person God has chosen to occupy the Chair of Saint Peter at the present time.

Youth Discipleship:

Strength in Numbers NET Retreat

In January Holy Spirit hosted a NET retreat for our youth discipleship groups. The theme was Strength in Numbers: Authentic Friendship.

During the retreat the students heard from the missionary speakers, spent time sharing in small groups, and ended the evening with praise and worship and prayer during Adoration. Students from Sts. Anne and Joachim in Fargo, St. Leo's in Casselton, and St. Joseph's in Moorhead also joined our students for the event.

NET, National Evangelization Teams, is based out of St. Paul, Minnesota and trains missionaries from all around the country and the world to lead retreats for teens by traveling from parish to parish and diocese to diocese.

If your son or daughter is not connected to a youth discipleship group and you would like more information, contact Ashley Njaa at ashley@holyspiritfargo.com or call 701.232.5900.

Stewardship Moment

"Blessed are you when people hate you...exclude and insult you, and denounce your name...on account of the Son of Man." - Luke 6:22

All of us have been in situations when someone has made a negative comment or joke about God or our Catholic faith. How did you respond? Did you stay silent or pretend to go along with the crowd because you didn't want to cause waves and then, later, you felt bad? Know that God is with you all the time; the Holy Spirit will put the right words in your mouth. Pray for the strength and courage to proclaim our faith to others, especially during uncomfortable situations.

In the Gospel today, Jesus gives us the blessings of serving the poor, hungry and weeping people, for you will then rejoice and leap for joy. But Jesus also teaches us the decisiveness of choice: blessing or woe.

Those who are suffering may be the lonely or the homebound, persons in prison, people battling addictions. Can you extend your love to them? Choosing to help those who are suffering will fill your heart with the blessing of Jesus and indeed your reward will be great in heaven.
