Our mission is to invite, form, and equip missionary disciples of Jesus Christ.

CHARISMS

We find fulfillment in loving others. Charisms are those special gifts given to us at Baptism to build up the Body of Christ. Here is how it works:

1. You are invited to get involved. Charisms are graces that come when we serve others.
2. The discernment begins by taking a Charism workshop. You are taught how to see God working through you. The goal is to have each person discover & use 1 charism
3. Then you're ready to enjoy & can help others discern theirs.

JOURNALING: AN AID TO OUR RESPONSE IN PRAYER

God speaks to us when we spend time in prayer. In order to hear Him we must be attentive. Journaling can be an aid in helping us learn to distinguish God's voice from the many other voices in our lives, and to dialogue effectively with Him; it helps draw our attention to the moments when God speaks to us. Journaling heightens our awareness of His presence and voice.

Simple guidelines for journaling

- Do not worry about spelling, punctuation, grammar, or even the content of what you are writing. Dismiss the fear of someone finding and reading your journal. Be totally honest even bold in expressing your deepest fears, anxieties, joys, disappointments, longings, etc.
- It is best to write in your journal following your prayer experience, not during it.
- Do NOT analyze! State simply what you experience
- Resist the temptation to allow yourself to become distracted with other reading materials or prayers, conversations, or duties.
- Reviewing your journal entries may be a path to deeper understanding or consolation as well.

7 Corporal Works of Mercy

FOCUSING ON FEED THE HUNGRY

What are the 7?

- To feed the hungry.
- To give water to the thirsty.
- To clothe the naked.
- To shelter the homeless.
- To visit the sick.
- To visit the imprisoned.
- To bury the dead.

Food is a fundamental and basic human need. Food is what nourishes us in order to be able to simply live. Feeding the hungry means providing nourishment through charity and hospitality. You can do this by:

- volunteer at a soup kitchen
- make sandwiches and hand them out to homeless people
- bring a meal to a family with a new baby or having a difficult time
- make dinner for your family
- don't throw a dinner party and donate the money you would have spent
- eat beans and rice for a week and donate your grocery money

Every Wednesday at 9am or Friday at 5:30pm, during Lent, we invite you to take a "spiritual pilgrimage" to the scenes of Christ's suffering and death to draw you further into the mystery of the season. What is An Annulment?

It's better to describe an annulment as a Declaration of Invalidity. It does not deny that a real relationship existed, nor does it imply that the parties entered the relationship with ill will or moral fault. The Church is saying that the relationship fell short of at least one element necessary to bring about what the Catholic Church understands as a true marriage. For questions or more info, contact the pastor or call the Diocese of Fargo Tribunal office at 701-356-7900.

Scripture Meditations: Week One God's Creative Unconditional Love

MARCH 6-12

Psalm 131 (child in his mothers' arms)

Ephesians 1:3-11 (chosen in Jesus)

John 1:35-39 (what do you seek)

Isaiah 43: 1-7 (precious in God's eyes)

Grace to ask for at the beginning of each prayer period this week:

Help me to be able to receive a new taste of knowing your intimate love for me.

As we begin praying with scripture through At Home with Jesus, you will notice that each passage speaks to us of God's deep and unconditional love for us. It is a love that is individual. It was His intention, from all time, to create each one of us. His desire is that we know that and that we each claim our true identity as His beloved child. Let your heart absorb the affection He has for you as you meditate on His word. He is crazy about you!

Repeat 3 passages (After having prayed with each passage from this week's list, choose 3 of the passages to return to in prayer. Your choice should be determined by a deep experience in prayer, or a dryness in prayer indicating you need more time in order to hear what God is speaking to you.)

RECORDING YOUR THOUGHTS, FEELINGS, OR FRUSTRATIONS IN YOUR PRAYER JOURNAL WILL BE HELPFUL.

Lectio Divina - Script

This Script could be read word for word or modified as you see is appropriate.

I. Introductory Prayer

Let us start. In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.
Let us place ourselves in God's presence. Close your eyes and imagine Jesus looking at you with love. Holy Spirit, we ask you to guide us through this meditation.
Lead us to encounter Jesus in our prayer. {Pause}

II. Instructions for the prayer – OPTIONAL

We will read the scripture passage 3 times. You may choose to imagine yourself in the scene. Focus on the details and let yourself be taken up in the story as it unfolds.

Take time to notice your surroundings- What do you see, hear, feel, smell?... When a word or phrase "jumps out at you" ponder it and talk to God about what you are perceiving.

III. Relaxing stage – OPTIONAL

Get comfortable ... Take a deep breath. Breath in God's infinite love for you, ...(pause for length of deep breath)... Breath out all worry and anxiety.

Imagine Jesus standing in front of you holding a large basket. Give Him everything that is occupying your mind at the present time as you prepare to receive what He desires to give you.

IV. Reading of scripture

Read the passage slowly and deliberately. Pause for a minute or two and say the name of the next person who is to read. Do the same for the last reading of the scripture.

V. Prayer time

Allow if possible the prayer to go for a good 20 to 30 minutes. 5 minutes before the end of the prayer, invite participants as follows. At this time, let us allow the Father to speak to us and say anything we might want to say to Him. (after 1-2 min.), now ask Jesus if He has anything He would like to say to you or tell Him anything on your heart. (after 1-2 min.), And now the same with Mary. (pause for another 1-2 min.)

VI. Sharing of graces

Now let us share some of the prayer. (Pause for a while and then ask people individually to share. Share yourself)

You are encouraged to record your thoughts and experiences in your prayer journal after each prayer time.

Some good questions to consider:

How did you sense God's presence as you were praying?

Did any imagine themselves in the scene? What did you imagine?

What things "jumped out at you"?

What feelings did you have during the prayer?

VII. Closing prayer

Let us close with the Glory Be. Glory be

Stewardship Moment

"I have now brought you the first fruits of the products of the soil which you, O Lord, have given to me."

- Deuteronomy 26:10

This line from the Old Testament offers two challenges. First, do you give to God from your "first fruits" - the first and best that you have to offer, or do you give from what you have leftover? Second, do you realize that everything you have and that everything you are has been given to you by God? Ask God for a grateful and generous heart, every day, in all circumstances.

In today's Gospel, Jesus overcomes the temptations to wealth, power and esteem. As we begin Lent, may we open our hearts to the grace of prayer, fasting and almsgiving.

Please pray for our parish's ministry to the poor through our St Vincent de Paul conference. Could you say a Hail Mary after your meal blessing for the poor/need in F/M area? Also, pray for our Vincentians serving those in need.
