MONTHLY SOCIAL TEACHING - The Dignity of Work and the Rights of Workers

The economy must serve people, not the other way around. Work is more than a way to make a living; it is a form of continuing participation in God's creation. If the dignity of work is to be protected, then the basic rights of workers must be respected - the right to productive work, to decent and fair wages, to the organization and joining of unions, to private property, and to economic initiative.

WEEKLY VIRTUE: INDUSTRIOUSNESS

KNOW IT:

Diligence, especially in work that leads to natural and supernatural maturity

LIVE IT: Diligently complete a task; set small goals along the way

PRAY IT: O God, who enlightened the Slavic peoples through the brothers Saints Cyril and Methodius, grant that our hearts may grasp the words of your teaching, and perfect us as a people of one accord in true faith and right confession. Amen.

STS. CYRIL & METHODIUS - born "Constantine" and "Michael" to a high ranking officer in the Byzantine Army, both studied at the Imperial School of Constantinople. They each carved out a successful career: Constantine (later Cyril) as professor of philosophy at the Imperial school; Michael, first as governor in Macedonia and then abbot of a monastery in Asia Minor (where he took the name Methodius). In 863, when they started their missionary work among the Slavs, they began using Slavonic in the liturgy. They translated the Bible into the language later known as Old Church Slavonic (or Old Bulgarian) and invented a Slavic alphabet based on Greek characters, which in its final Cyrillic form is still in use as the alphabet for a number of Slavic languages. The Slavonic liturgy and Bible made their way all over Eastern Europe and gave birth to the Bulgarian and Serbian Orthodox churches (which still use the Slavonic liturgy). Russia, which converted to Orthodoxy about a century after Methodius died, continues to use his Cyrillic alphabet to this day. Their missionary work among the Slavs laid the essential foundation for the later Christianization of Ukraine and Russia in 988. Such was their influence in Church history, through their evangelization efforts, that the late Pope John Paul II named the two brothers the patron saints of Europe along with 5th century monastic leader St. Benedict.

PRAYER

Prayer is the joy of the Christian life. Here are some basic steps to get there:

1. Start simply with 10 minutes each day in prayer or reading the Bible. It is so doable !
2. Transforming your relationship with God is next. The Prayer 101 experience is the concrete step.
3. The final step is complete commitment. This is achieved when we take a 1/2 hour of meditative/ contemplative prayer each day to nurture our relationship with God.

REPETITION WHEN PRAYING WITH SACRED SCRIPTURE: What it is and is not.....

WHAT IS A PRAYER REPETITION?

Repetition begins with recognizing a movement of the heart while praying with a passage of Scripture: consolation, confusion, anxiety, desolation, sadness, fear, joy...

Returning to that point in prayer where you sense the movement of your heart originated, allowing God to lead you to a deeper understanding of self, Him, others and ultimately to consolation.

EXAMPLES

While praying with the passage of Mary at the foot of the Cross the image of the gaze between mother and son grabbed my attention. My heart was drawn into that relationship shared between Mary and Jesus as I meditated on the gaze. A desire welled up in me to be a part of that gaze. Repeating the prayer many times following (and finding myself always, in praying the 4th Station of the Cross, desiring to stop and stay right there where a similar gaze between mother and son occurs) continues to bring me to a deeper understanding of the relationship of Jesus and Mary and my part of that gaze.

In praying over the hidden life of Jesus I notice that I could not get settled and that I was filled with intense distractions and anxieties, so the next prayer time, although I don't feel like it, I return to the same prayer passage and pray with it again.*

WHAT REPETITION IS NOT

It is not re-reading a scripture passage to see what else might be in it for me.

It is not a further study of the passage or opportunity to analyze* the scripture.

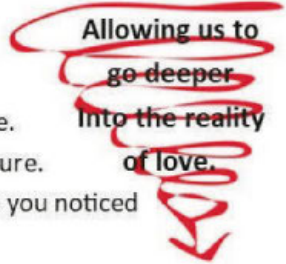

It is not a return to the entire passage. It is a return to only the place where you noticed a movement of the heart.

*Be aware that the temptation to analyze may be great. Resist it!!!

WHY REPETITION IS GOOD

Repetitions allow spiritual movements to take place · It helps us to notice interior movements · It is the way we can respect God's communication with us · It is a means by which desolation can become consolation. (darkness to light; sadness to joy; struggle to surrender)

How many times should I repeat the same prayer? Until you are satisfied!

YOUR PRAYER JOURNAL CAN ASSIST YOU GREATLY IN FINDING THE MOVEMENT OF THE HEART.

Scripture Meditations: Week One God's Creative Unconditional Love

This week we will reflect on God's work of Creation. The book of Genesis teaches that by God's Word what He desired to create came into being; that what God created is good-indeed-very good; that humankind is the pinnacle of his creation; and what God created he entrusted to man. Giving man the opportunity to express his love for God, He placed a tree in the middle of the garden (the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil) and instructed man not to eat from it, "lest you will die." Man chose self over a right relationship with God and was banished from paradise. But that did not stop God from loving us...His plan: to reconcile our relationship with Him by sacrificing His son.

MARCH 13-19

GENESIS 2:1-8 (creation)

CONTEMPLATION OF THE LOVE OF GOD (bulletin)

PSALM 139 (God fashioned me in womb)

GENESIS 3: 1-11 (sin enters world)

Grace to ask for at beginning of each prayer period this week:

To be able to receive a new depth of faith so that I can see in your love for me, anything that prevents me from participating in your love for me and neighbor.

Repeat 3 passages After having prayed with each passage from this week's list, choose 3 of the passages to return to in prayer. Your choice may be determined by a deep experience in prayer, or a dryness in prayer indicating you need more time in order to hear what God is speaking to you.

RECORDING YOUR THOUGHTS, INSPIRATIONS, OR FRUSTRATIONS IN YOUR PRAYER JOURNAL WILL BE HELPFUL.

One Person's Experience While Praying with Scripture

One of the most profound experiences I've had while meditating on Sacred Scripture praying Lectio Divina, occurred during an 8-day silent retreat several years ago. The retreat master had given me the scripture from Luke's gospel in which St. Luke records the birth of our Lord. Following the retreat master's instruction to engage my imagination in preparation for reading the passage, I closed my eyes and placed myself in the stable. Looking around I became aware of the sounds, smells, sights of the people, animals and things in the barn. As I began reading the gospel passage I was stopped, dead in my tracks, Mary came to me with her newborn son and placed him in my arms as if to say, "I trust you with him." As I cradled the Infant in my arms and looked into his eyes, he wrapped his tiny hand around my forefinger and spoke these words in my heart, "I convert hearts with tenderness, not by brow beating." In this encounter with reality, God's gentle mercy penetrated my heart deeply and changed the way in which I was able to receive and share God's love with others. I often return to this scene to receive, again the gift of God's tender love.

CONTEMPLATION OF THE LOVE OF GOD

As you pray with “Contemplation on the Love of God” approach it as you would when praying with a passage from Scripture. Read through it slowly and meditatively following not only the promptings and directions within the text, but also following the promptings of the Holy Spirit. Take note of the movements of your heart, asking God to make clear what he is communicating to you through this work. You are encouraged to record your experiences in your prayer journal.

To prepare to contemplate God’s love, begin by asking God to let you become aware of yourself in His presence. Using your imagination, stand before the throne of God, aware of all the angels and saints that surround you. Notice how they all smile at you and direct you to the Lord. Ask God for a deeper understanding of yourself, and the realization that your life is a gift. Allow your heart to express the gratitude for this realization. Express your love for the Giver of love. Continue the contemplation in four parts.

FIRST PART: Again, engage your imagination and let your mind run through the splendors of the created world. Wonder at the beauty of nature: mountains, valleys, rivers, glaciers, clouds, snowflakes,...stars, planets, lakes....all of humankind. Remember that in His love he redeemed and is redeeming all people. Recall how much God has given you. Allow your heart to go to God. Consider that he lavishes life on you and desires to communicate His self to you. Think about your own life history. Recall that you are being created by this great God to live and function according to the Gifts poured out in and for you. What would be a right response to so great a love? Pray the prayer in the box below.

SECOND PART: Look at the great varieties of creatures on earth and in space. Through eons and eons God stayed present to each kind of living thing, energizing them with His divine presence. At this very moment God gives each order and kind of creature exactly what it needs. Now consider this: at the core of all creation flames the creative love of God. Return now to your own case—God present at your conception, your birth, your growth in infancy....and has remained faithful to you through every stage of life. God is the ground of your being; he is the core of yourself. As you wonder how to respond to so great a love, pray the prayer in the box below.

THIRD PART: Consider how God works busily in all creation. Let your mind run through all created things—far reaches of space, our galaxy, the earth, to the tiniest microbe. He keeps all of the created world alive! Let your heart go to God. How great He is. God labors and hopes and keeps sustaining us even when we destroy. Consider your own case. How has and is God laboring to keep you alive? To keep you growing and learning, believing and hoping? God never ceases to work in me and for me. As you say the prayer in the box, put your whole mind and strength into offering it as petition.

FOURTH PART: Consider that all the good that you see and know comes to be as a share in the Divine Good. (God) All power, beauty, mirrors the divine power and beauty and comes from its Origin. All holiness on earth is a fragrance of God present in and with all of us. Let your heart go out to God who pours out His own Self and all His gifts. Think about your own case and about how your gifts are a share of God your Lord and Creator. You are like a mirror reflecting the sun. All that you are and all that you have are a participation in God. Say the prayer in the box putting your whole mind, and strength into the offering of the petition.

THINGS TO REMEMBER ABOUT LOVE:

It is an act of the will.

Love is mutual sharing-giving-receiving-giving in return. (Relationship)

Love is willing the good of the other for the other’s sake.

Take Lord, and receive all my liberty, my memory, my understanding, and my entire will, all that I have and possess. You have given all to me. To You, O Lord, I return it. All is Yours, dispose of it wholly according to Thy will. Give me Thy love and thy grace, for this is sufficient for me.

Stewardship Moment

"I am the Lord who brought you from Ur of the Chaldeans to give you this land as a possession." - Genesis 15:7

Just as the Lord gave Abraham, Moses and the Israelites a land to possess, He has also given each of us a home. Whether your home is grand or humble, it is a gift from God. Abraham prepared a great sacrifice to the Lord in gratitude for the home God gave him. How do you show your gratitude to God for the home He has given you? Do you make a sacrifice of any kind? Do you return any of your finances to God, investing equally in your eternal home just as you invest in your earthly home?
