MONTHLY SOCIAL TEACHING - Care for God's Creation

We show our respect for the Creator by our stewardship of creation. Care for the earth is not just an Earth Day slogan, it is a requirement of our faith. We are called to protect people and the planet, living our faith in relationship with all of God's creation. This environment challenge has fundamental moral and ethical dimensions that cannot be ignored.

WEEKLY VIRTUE: PERSISTENCE

KNOW IT:

Taking the steps necessary to carry out objectives in spite of difficulties

LIVE IT:

Complete task from start to finish, stay with a task when it is hard, difficult or boring

PRAY IT: St Isaac Jogues, by your preaching and by your blood, the Eternal Word did consecrate the first-fruits of the faith in the vast regions of North America. Pray for us, O martyr of Christ, that by the example of our lives, we may bring others to follow Christ and so assist in increasing the harvest of souls, sown by you in America. Amen.

ST. ISAAC JOGUES - was a French Jesuit priest who chose to work with the Huron Indians. After his arrival in 1636 in upper state New York, he became ill and was blamed for starting an epidemic. Relations improved and for several years he successfully ministered to the Native Americans. In 1642, he was captured by Mohawk Indians, enslaved at their village, starved, tortured, and mutilated. He was forced to watch the killing of Christian converts. During his captivity it is claimed that he baptized a number of dying children, marking the first baptisms in the state of New York. He spent 13 months as a slave before Dutch settlers helped him escape and return to France. He did not stay and before returning as a missionary, the Jesuits requested a dispensation from the pope. According to Church law, a priest needs "canonical digits" to celebrate Mass, and several of his fingers had been cut, chewed, or burnt off. The pope granted the request, saying, "It would be shameful that a martyr of Christ not be allowed to drink the Blood of Christ." In 1646 he returned to New York as an ambassador to the Mohawks. Soon after concluding a treaty, he was captured by a band of hostile Mohawks because of their superstitions attributing the illness in the village to the evil they thought he left with them. He was given his freedom, only to be beheaded (near what is now Auriesville, NY) by a small group of Mohawks. Isaac Jogues was able to face unimaginable difficulty and martyrdom because he allowed Christ to fill him. His life is an inspiration to young Christians who may be facing persecution in secular society for their faith and is a saint for those who have been knocked down by life. Canonized in 1930, his feast day is October 19.

Sacred Triduum

Our mission is to invite, form, and equip missionary disciples of Jesus Christ.

PRAYER

Prayer is the joy of the Christian life. Here are some basic steps to get there:

1. Start simply with 10 minutes each day in prayer or reading the Bible. It is so doable !
2. Transforming your relationship with God is next. The Prayer 101 experience is the concrete step.
3. The final step is complete commitment. This is achieved when we take a 1/2 hour of meditative/contemplative prayer each day to nurture our relationship with God.

Holy Thursday In the Catholic Church, in the Mass of the Lord's Supper, during the Gloria all church bells may be rung and the organ played; afterwards, bells and organ are silenced until the Gloria of the Easter Vigil. After the homily of the Mass, "where a pastoral reason suggests it", a ritual washing of the feet follows. The Mass concludes with a procession of the Blessed Sacrament to the altar of repose. Eucharistic adoration is encouraged after this, but if continued after midnight should be done without outward solemnity. Some faithful travel to several churches to pray at their Altar of Repose, a practice called Seven Churches Visitation. Before Vatican II Mass concluded with a ritual stripping of all altars, except the altar of repose, but leaving the cross and candlesticks. In the present form as revised in 1955, the altar is stripped bare without ceremony later.

The liturgical color for the Mass vestments and other ornaments is white in the Catholic Church.

Good Friday On Good Friday, Christians recall the passion and crucifixion of Jesus. In the Catholic ritual, clergy traditionally begin the service prostrate in front of the altar. Mass is not celebrated on Good Friday and the communion distributed at the Celebration of the Lord's Passion is consecrated on Holy Thursday. Also in Catholicism, images of saints may, in accordance with local custom, be veiled throughout the last two weeks of Lent. Votive lights before these images are not lit. Crucifixes that are not movable are veiled until after the Good Friday service. Catholic faithful typically venerate the crucifix by kissing the feet of the corpus. Veneration of a simple wooden cross is common as well, with the faithful touching and/or kissing it. The Catholic Church uses red vestments, symbolic of the blood of Jesus Christ.

Holy Saturday Holy Saturday, also known as Black Saturday, is a commemoration of the day that Jesus lay in his tomb. In the Catholic Church, daytime Masses are never offered.

Easter Sunday A vigil service is held after nightfall on Holy Saturday, or before dawn on Easter Sunday, in celebration of the resurrection of Jesus. The ceremony of darkness and light is held at the beginning of the Easter Vigil Mass. The paschal candle, whose lighting symbolizes the resurrection of Christ from the dead, is lit from the new Easter fire. The solemn procession to the altar with the Paschal candle is formed. Once everyone has processed in, the Exsultet is intoned.

After the Exsultet, everyone is seated and listens to seven readings from the Old Testament and seven Psalms. At least three of these readings and associated psalms must be read, which must include the account of the first Passover from the Book of Exodus. These readings account salvation history, beginning with Creation.

In Catholic practice, during the Gloria at the Mass, the organ and church bells are used in the liturgy for the first time in two days. If the lights of the Church have been previously left off, they are turned on as the Gloria begins. The Paschal candle is used to bless the baptismal font to be used in the celebration of the sacrament of baptism. The Great Alleluia is sung before the Gospel is read, Alleluia being used for the first time since before Lent. People receiving full initiation in the Church, who have completed their training, are given the Sacraments of Christian initiation (Baptism, confirmation, and the Holy Eucharist). The Easter Vigil is an especially appropriate day for Holy Baptism.

In current practice, the use of lighting to signify the emergence from sin and the resurrection of Jesus varies, from the use of candles held by parishioners. Color of vestments is white, often together with gold, with yellow and white flowers often in use in many parishes.

Easter Masses are held throughout the day and are similar in content to the Easter Vigil Mass.

7 Spiritual Works of Mercy

FOCUSING ON BEARING WRONGS PATIENTLY

What are the 7?

- To instruct the ignorant.
- To counsel the doubtful.
- To admonish the sinners.
- To bear patiently those who wrong us.
- To forgive offenses.
- To comfort the afflicted.
- To pray for the living and the dead.

Bearing wrongs patiently is a difficult, yet ultimately rewarding act of mercy for all involved if practiced regularly. It is easy to grow resentful and bitter, wanting someone or something to blame for the setbacks and situations we face. It is also easy to become frustrated with those living with us in our homes day in and day out, but to seek patience, willingly riding through setbacks and focusing not on wrongs but on rights and reconciliation is much more fruitful in the long run, especially with those we see on a daily basis. Bearing wrongs patiently takes courage and a good starting point is to remind ourselves of the ways Christ has provided for us and forgiven us in the past, and reminding ourselves of this might make it a little easier to do the same for others.

Scripture Meditations: Week Three— Jesus' Passion and Death

As the meditations of the Third Week of our Lenten retreat continue, we encounter Jesus as he is betrayed by friends, scourged by soldiers, identified by thieves, and dies on the Cross. We are invited to walk with him, suffer with him, and to die to self, so He might live in us.

Grace to ask for at beginning of each prayer period this week: To clearly see the areas of my life that are controlled by my ego and invite Jesus to take over those areas.

APRIL 10-16

LUKE 22: 54-65 PETER BETRAYS JESUS

MARK 15: 16-19 SCOURGING—CROWNING

LUKE 23: 32-43 THIEVES ON THE CROSS

JOHN 19: 25-30 JESUS DIES ON THE CROSS

Repeat 3 passages After having prayed with each passage from this week's list, choose 3 of the passages to return to in prayer. Your choice may be determined by a deep experience in prayer, or a dryness in prayer indicating you need more time in order to hear what God is speaking to you.

RECORDING YOUR THOUGHTS, INSPIRATIONS, OR FRUSTRATIONS IN YOUR PRAYER JOURNAL WILL BE HELPFUL.

One Person's Experience While Praying with Scripture

It's difficult to put into words how I'm being blessed through the parish retreat...

In faith, I have been willing to daily open my heart and mind to the deeper truths in Scripture... to listen, converse with and sometimes wrestle before God my Father, Son, Holy Spirit, and Mother Mary.

Some days I may receive little added understanding, or much, and so I am learning to be content with whatever God may choose to reveal. Being surrendered and unsure of how God may surprise me in response to my seeking, be I at home or out and about, is truly becoming an anticipated daily adventure!

Stewardship Moment

"...I tell you, Peter, before the cock crows this day, you will deny three times that you know me." - Luke 22:34

How many times have you heard someone make a disparaging comment about God or our Catholic faith? How did you react? Do you remain quiet not to cause a disturbance? Or, because you don't want people to think negatively about you? Or, because you don't think you know enough about the Catholic faith? Pray for the courage to speak up and enter into a respectful dialogue when the opportunity arises. Joyfully share your faith with others.
