3RD SUNDAY OF EASTER

Jesus said to them, "Come, have breakfast." And none of the disciples dared to ask him, "Who are you?" because they realized it was the Lord. Jesus came over and took the bread and gave it to them, and in like manner the fish. - Jn 21:12-13

MONTHLY SOCIAL TEACHING - Care for God's Creation

We show our respect for the Creator by our stewardship of creation. Care for the earth is not just an Earth Day slogan, it is a requirement of our faith. We are called to protect people and the planet, living our faith in relationship with all of God's creation. This environment challenge has fundamental moral and ethical dimensions that cannot be ignored.

WEEKLY VIRTUE: GOOD COUNSEL, JUDGEMENT & COMMAND

KNOW IT: Seeking advice from a reasonable person; Thinking rightly about a decision; Directly acting upon a sound decision

LIVE IT: Seek advice from trustworthy people; Carefully consider all the circumstances and ask "What am I to do now"; Take action after thoughtful deliberation

PRAY IT: May the Martyr Saint Boniface be our advocate, O Lord, that we may firmly hold the faith he taught with his lips and sealed in his blood and confidently profess it by our deeds. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

ST. BONIFACE - Saint Boniface was an English Benedictine monk who made it his life's mission to convert the Germanic tribes to Christianity. He was born in England about the year 673. Named Winfrith by his well-to-do English parents, Boniface was first professed in the monastic life in Exeter, Devon, England, but in 719 went to Germany to preach the Gospel. He made many converts there and was consecrated bishop, ruling over the church in Mainz. He attracted many companions by whose help he founded or restored dioceses in Bavaria, Thuringia, and Franconia. He also convened councils and promulgated laws. During a final mission to the Frisians, Boniface and 53 companions were massacred by pagans in 754 while he was preaching the Gospel and preparing converts for confirmation. His body is buried in the monastery of Fulda. Boniface is a male given name from a Latin word meaning "doer of good."

Our mission is to invite, form, and equip missionary disciples of Jesus Christ.

PRAYER

Prayer is the joy of the Christian life. Here are some basic steps to get there:

1. Start simply with 10 minutes each day in prayer or reading the Bible. It is so doable !
2. Transforming your relationship with God is next. The Prayer 101 experience is the concrete step.
3. The final step is complete commitment. This is achieved when we take a 1/2 hour of meditative/contemplative prayer each day to nurture our relationship with God.

MARY, OUR MOTHER

During the month of May the Church honors Mary with special devotions such as processions, crowning her Queen of our lives, through the hymns we sing at Mass, and by praying the Rosary. Through baptism, we are sons and daughters of the Father, and brothers and sisters of Jesus. Sacred Scripture gives us the foundation of our belief that Mary is our Mother. John's gospel takes us to the foot of the Cross and records some of the last words spoken by Jesus before he dies. As you recall, Mary and the beloved disciple, John, were together on Calvary at the crucifixion. John records it in this way, "When Jesus saw his mother, and the disciple whom he loved standing near, he said to his mother, 'Woman, behold your son.' Then he said to the disciple, 'Behold your mother.'" (Jn 19:26-27) Scholars and theologians throughout the centuries have confirmed that John is symbolic of the members of Christ's body, the Church. So it is that Jesus gives his mother to us, the Church, as our spiritual mother. His words, "Behold your mother." indicate that Mary IS our mother, not becoming our mother. Because she is our spiritual mother, we must imitate Jesus in honoring her, as the IV Commandment directs us.

St. Paul's writings also, (Colossians 1:18, Ephesians 4:15) help us understand the relationship we have with Mary. He teaches that Christ is the Head of His Body, the Church. We understand the Body to be all the members of the Church. If Mary gave birth to Jesus, and he is the head of the body (metaphorically) and we are the various parts of the Body, then, it can be said she gave birth to us. (No one is just a head or just a body—both are necessary and belong together.) Jesus received his physical life from Mary's fiat, her 'yes' to becoming the Mother of God at the Annunciation. God chose her as His Mother, and so we are blessed to claim her as our mother as well. It is pleasing to God that we put our trust and confidence in her because everything she does will always lead us closer to Him.

Many Christians misunderstand this relationship and think that Catholics worship Mary. The Church has never claimed or taught that Mary is equal to God. It would be grave sin to worship her, or anything other than God. We do ask her to intercede for us and to join us in praying to God for many things, as we would our earthly mothers or friends. She always directs us, as she did the stewards at the wedding in Cana to, "Do what ever He tells you." And as her children, it is our duty to obey.

Mary, Mother of the Church, pray for us.

As Catholics, we recognize that Mary is our mother, as well as who she is in God's plan of salvation, the Mother of God.

PARISHIONER HIGHLIGHT: THE POWER OF PRAYER BY SCOTT SOBOLIK

The reason of my writing to you, my Holy Spirit family, is first and foremost, to say thank you.

This is my ten-year anniversary since my stroke. Some of you who know me are aware of the ruptured brain aneurism that nearly ended my life. Some encouragement from our Pastor, Father Ross, has given me the courage to write my story. It is all about the power of prayer.

To all who prayed for my recovery I say thank you for your prayers, most notably the Holy Spirit prayer circle. (I use the prayer blanket every day that was crafted by a Mary's Mantle member).

I have been told of the many people and places that were praying for me. Prayer circles in Bismarck, Devils Lake, Minot, Park River (where both the Catholic and Lutheran Churches were praying for me).

Now for the wonder and amazement of my story!

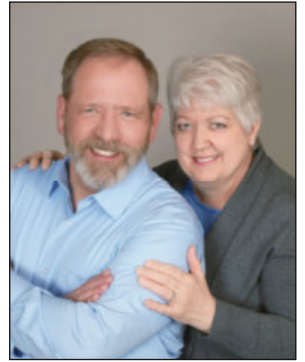

Cindy, my wife, was of course praying for me. My mother had died from the same type of brain aneurism I was suffering from, 5 days before my 13th birthday. Now Cindy had never known my mother except from stories told by my family and me. Being aware of my mother's young death and the love a mother has for her children, Cindy prayed to my mother for help.

I, now in a coma for the 4th day, am experiencing something very special. I see my mother above me; she is very small, standing behind someone pointing down at me. I look at the other person. It is Mary, the mother of our Lord. She looks down at me, hands held in front of her as if in prayer, nods her head yes, and I woke up.

Now I can't tell you if this was a dream, or a vision, or something else. I'm not trying to say that a miracle happened. But I will say it was something very special. I do believe it was from the power of prayer!!!

In conclusion, pray and believe!
With appreciation, Scott Sobolik

Last year we received a special donation of $100,000 so last year's giving exceeds this year so far. Despite the cold and snowy winter, we were over budget on snow removal and utilities, but overall the expenses are in line, due to a smaller staff in the office.

Stewardship Moment

"...Peter was distressed that Jesus had said to him a third time, 'Do you love me?' and he said to him, 'Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you.' Jesus said to him, 'Feed my sheep.'" - John 21:17

How often do you actually say the words "I love you" to Jesus, to family members, or to friends? We are made to be in relationship with God and each other. Sincerely telling someone that you love them is the best gift you can give them because it comes from your heart. You are giving them the gift of yourself. We all crave love. Tell someone you love them every day.
