MONTHLY SOCIAL TEACHING - The Dignity of Work & the Rights of Workers

The economy must serve people, not the other way around. Work is more than a way to make a living. It is a form of continuing participation in God's creation. If the dignity of work is to be protected, then the basic rights of workers must be respected - the right to productive work, to decent and fair wages, to the organization and joining of unions, to private property, and to economic initiative.

WEEKLY VIRTUE: Magnanimity

KNOW IT:

Seeking with confidence to do great things in God, literally 'having a large soul'.

LIVE IT:

Acknowledge the good in others when it is difficult; strive to do difficult tasks with God's grace.

PRAY IT: St Turibius, pray for us that we will use our abilities fully, to share the teachings of Jesus with others. Amen.

ST. TURIBIUS OF MOGROVEJO - born in 1538. He was a respected judge and law professor. King Philip II, head of the Church in Spain saw the need for a holy man in Peru and appointed him Archbishop of Lima. He soon set sail for his new land. When he arrived, he was shocked at what he found: priests were not caring for their people; the poor were neglected; rich Spanish landowners had enslaved many of the native people and treated them cruelly. Turibius decided to visit every parish. Sometimes he rode a mule from place to place, but mostly he traveled on foot. His journey through the diocese took him seven long years. At every parish, he gathered the people to celebrate the Sacraments. He preached about God's love and how to follow Jesus. He slept on dirt floors in the homes of Catholic families; he ate whatever food the poor but faithful people could provide. He learned the different languages spoken by his people so that he could speak to them in words they could understand. He supervised the building of many churches, schools, and hospitals. A catechism was written in different Peruvian languages so that the people could grow in their faith, plus learn how to read and write. The first seminary in the New World was opened in Lima in 1591 to train new priests. Everywhere he went, Turibius spoke out against the unjust treatment of the poor. Turibius died on March 23, 1606, while visiting one of his parishes in a small mountain village. His body was found to be incorrupt the next year. He was declared a saint in 1726, and is now regarded as the patron of native peoples' rights and Latin American bishops.

CHARISMS

We find fulfilment in loving others.

Charisms are those special gifts given to us at Baptism to build up the Body of Christ. Here is how it works:

1. You are invited to get involved. Charisms are graces that come when we serve others.
2. The discernment begins by taking a Charism workshop. You are taught how to see God working through you. The goal is to have each person discover & use 1 charism
3. Then you're ready to enjoy & can help others discern theirs.

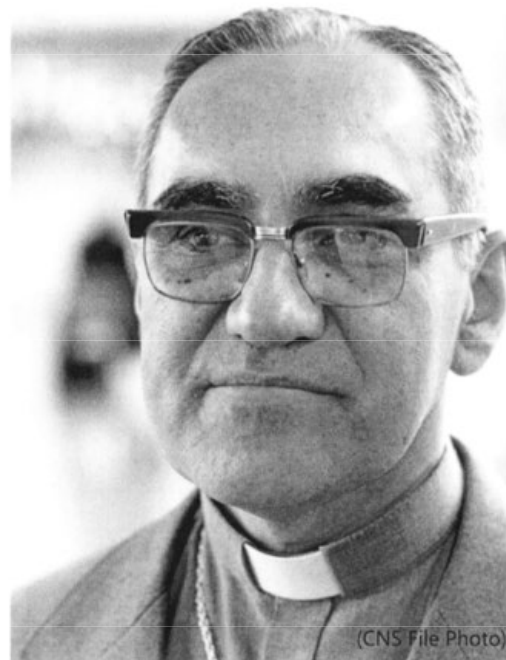

WITNESS TO FREEDOM BL. OSCAR ROMERO

*"May my blood
be a seed of liberty."*

When Monsignor Oscar Romero was installed as Archbishop of San Salvador, El Salvador in February 1977, he was thrust into a tumultuous situation. A military coup in October 1979 led to a gruesome, twelve year civil war. These events were precipitated by the great disparity between a small number of powerful, wealthy families – who were backed by local politicians and the military – and the rest of El Salvador's citizens. Many people suffered extreme poverty. Laborers worked for minimal pay for wealthy landowners, yet they could not hope to obtain land for themselves. The military terrorized the people in order ensure that the families held onto land and money. The Catholic Church became a target when some clergy began to defend the poor. In response to these injustices, some Salvadorans took up arms and fought against the military.

While some Latin American clergy promoted violence as a response to injustice, Archbishop Romero advocated for a different weapon: Christian love.

Before becoming archbishop, Monsignor Romero was not aware that the government was responsible for the deaths of many civilians. Because of his quiet nature, some thought that he would be good for the position, assuming he would not meddle in controversial affairs. However, shortly after his installation, his close friend, Fr. Rutilio Grande, a priest who openly opposed the unjust practices of wealthy landowners, was assassinated by gunmen while traveling with two people to celebrate Mass. This experience awakened Archbishop Romero to the reality of the corruption in his country and prompted him to take a stand for his people's freedom.

Archbishop Romero preached many homilies that were broadcast throughout San Salvador. He persistently defended the rights of the people, calling government leaders to conversion and challenging them to uphold God's law. He reminded the people that they were loved by God and that fighting back with Christian charity was the way to victory. His vocal response to government violence against the poor led to difficulties with other clergy members and his religious superiors as well as death threats from government accomplices. In spite of these challenges, he continued to speak out on behalf of the poor.

On March 24, 1980, Archbishop Romero was shot to death while celebrating the Eucharist in the chapel of Divina Providencia hospital. Blessed Oscar Romero was beatified by Pope Francis in May 2015.

Bl. Oscar Romero, pray for us!

SKI TRIP A SUCCESS!

On February 20, President's Day, 21 Holy Spirit kids joined others from the F-M Catholic Church community and enjoyed their day off from school skiing at Andes Tower Hills in Kensington, MN. The kids had a great time and came home with big smiles and spent energy. The two chaperones had as much fun and came home even more tired! Big Bonus... no injuries!

Stewardship Moment

"Not as man sees does God see, because man sees the appearance but the Lord looks into the heart."

~ 1 Samuel 16:7

How often do we invest our time, talent and treasure in creating an appearance that does not matter at all to God? We strive to impress with our clothing, home, career, possessions, car, and other marks of distinction. However, none of these illusions of greatness will impress God. Instead, He will look into our hearts to see how much we loved Him, how much we loved others and how we showed that love by the way we used our time, talent and treasure here on earth.
