MONTHLY SOCIAL TEACHING - Call to Family, Community & Participation

The person is not only sacred but also social. How we organize our society - in economics and politics, in law and policy - directly affects human dignity and the capacity of individuals to grow in community. Marriage and the family are the central social institutions that must be supported and strengthened, not undermined. We believe people have a right and a duty to participate in society, seeking together the common good and well-being of all, especially the poor and vulnerable.

WEEKLY VIRTUE: Prayerfulness

KNOW IT: Being still, listening, and being willing to talk to God as a friend

LIVE IT: Cultivate a spirit of prayer and recollection; maintain the proper posture (kneeling, sitting still, etc.)

PRAY IT: May God the Father, who made us, bless us. May God the Son, who redeemed us, send healing into our midst. May God the Holy Spirit, who gives us life, move within us. May God give us eyes to see to God, ears to hear God, and hands to bring God's work into the world. May we walk with God and preach the word of God to all. May the angel of peace watch over us and lead us at last by God's grace to the eternal Kingdom. Amen.

ST. DOMINIC - Born in Spain, Dominic was trained for the priesthood by a priest-uncle, studied the arts and theology, and became a canon of the cathedral at Osma, where there was an attempt to revive the apostolic common life described in Acts of the Apostles. On a journey through France with his bishop, Dominic came face to face with the Albigensian heresy. The Albigensians, or Cathari, "the pure ones", held to two principles: one good, one evil in the world. All matter is evil; hence, they denied the Incarnation and the sacraments. On the same principle, they abstained from procreation and took a minimum of food and drink. The inner circle led what some people regarded as a heroic life of purity and asceticism not shared by ordinary followers. Dominic sensed the need for the Church to combat this heresy, and became part of the preaching crusade against it. He continued this work for 10 years. His fellow preachers gradually became a community, and in 1215 Dominic founded a religious house at Toulouse, the beginning of the Order of Preachers or Dominicans. Dominic's ideal, and that of his Order, was to organically link a life with God, study, and prayer in all forms, with a ministry of salvation to people by the word of God. His ideal: contemplata tradere: "to pass on the fruits of contemplation" or "to speak only of God or with God."

Our mission is to invite, form, and equip missionary disciples of Jesus Christ.

STEWARDSHIP

Everything we have is from God. Jesus asks us to live in this truth by giving a portion back to Him, called a tithe. Here are some basic steps to get there:

1. Start with giving 1% of your income back to God such as to the Church or the poor.
2. The next step would be to step out in trust and give a half tithe or 5% of your income to God.
3. The last step would be to give God a full tithe (10%) as He asks of us. We are always able to give more but this provides a foundation.

MARRIAGE AND CHURCH LAW

The gift of the sacraments, including marriage come from God and are safe guarded by our Church. Here are a few of the laws that speak about marriage.

communion.

Canon Law pronouncement on Marriage

Its not every day that Canon Law changes. Canon Law is the universal law of the Catholic Church. Sometimes minor aspects of it are changed due to better understanding of the Church. The most recent adjustment regards the requirement of Catholics getting married. For some 400 years, it has been a universal law of the Church that Catholics require permission from the Catholic Church to get married. So much so that if they do not get permission, they are not married at all in the God's eyes even though they may enjoy some type of a civil union. This was because the Church thought so much of marriage and was worried because the recently formed Protestant communities did not recognize marriage as a sacrament. We put terms on this such as an invalid marriage or a marriage not blessed by the Church.

This law is staying the same but there is one minor adjustment to it. There use to be a kind of exception for people who had 'formally' left the Church. Such people would not be required by the 'form' or permission of the Catholic Church to get married. However what does it mean to 'formally' leave the Church? Canon Lawyers argued over what one would actually have to do to formally leave the Church. It was finally decided that this was all too difficult and the Church has now decided that all people baptized as Catholics, even if they have rejected their faith, must get married with the permission ('form') of the Church for them to have a real marriage. This makes us realize how important our baptism is and how much it connects us to our Church and to God.

Exert from the Diocesan law on sacraments

4.1.7.18 Celebration of the Rite of Marriage is to be done precisely as indicated by the liturgical texts, without the innovation of added symbols or ceremonies, which often detract from Christian worship and celebration of the sacrament.

1. Music – Each and every musical selection within the marriage celebration is to be sacred, that is, music whose purpose is to glorify God and sanctify the faithful (Cf. Musicam Sacram, 4 and Sing to the Lord, 216ff). Instrumental music ought not to come from a context in contradiction to the Sacrament of Marriage. As always, music in the liturgy is a personal act of worship, not a recording.

2. Symbols and ceremonies – The rite of Marriage, in itself, highlights the consent of the couple to enter in to marriage freely, with love and openness to children. Their unity is symbolized by joining hands and giving consent before God and his Church. No additional symbols or rituals (i.e. sand ceremony, etc.), beyond those specified below, are permitted to detract from the primary symbols and actions of the sacred rite. Pastoral concern and catechesis is necessary to educate couples concerning the inherent meaning in the rituals, readings, and prayers for Marriage, so that they may most fruitfully celebrate this rite.

3. Lawful local particular practices a. An expression of filial love and dedication to our Lady for her protection of a newly married couple, may be observed, after the prayer after

Stewardship Moment

"Because he himself was tested through what he suffered, he is able to help those who are being tested." – Hebrews 2:18

When we join a support group, there is comfort in sharing our pain with people who have experienced the same thing; they understand what we are going through. The next time you experience suffering, talk to Jesus. He has experienced more suffering than most of us, He understands. Plus, Jesus knows us better than we know ourselves. Only He can fill the hole you feel in your heart.

In today's Gospel reading Jesus shows us that we are called to place gospel values before any other values that might tempt us in life. We are to be willing to put our lives on the line for the truth of the gospel. Caring for the poor is indeed living the gospel values. In your personal prayer time this week ask the Holy Spirit to show you how you have responded to the call to live the gospel, and then ask him to show you what else you might do to visibly live the gospel values. Holy Spirit's St. Vincent de Paul society meets the first and third Monday of each month at 6:00 pm in the St. Therese Room. You are welcome to attend.
