Thank You Stephen Center Angels!

Many Holy Cross members have been cooking/baking meals twice a month at Stephen Center for the homeless since the 1980's. For all of you faithful angels who have cooked and served meals we want to thank you for the time and effort you contribute to the homeless, who are so appreciative of the evening meal we serve. May all the blessings of this Holiday Season fill your homes and family celebrations with the knowledge that you have helped so many men, women and children at the Center. Many thanks for your continued support of this ministry.

If you would like to volunteer contact
Marge Krawczyk 402-556-8733 or Marlene Mahoney 402-551-9284.

I HOPE I AM LIKE HIM

“Who is this Christ? Is he like you?”

Perhaps you've heard this story, often attributed to the life of St. Teresa of Calcutta. A sick man asked her this question, as he marveled at her tireless service to himself and others in the name of someone named Jesus Christ.

“He is nothing like me,” the saint is said to have answered. “But I hope I am like him.”

Though the authenticity of this exchange cannot be verified, its message rings perfectly true: all the value of our stewardship lies in its relativity to the one in whose name we perform it.

Consider the figure of John the Baptist — a magnificent, towering character even purely from a literary or historical perspective. A martyr who fed on wild locusts and boldly spoke truth to power — a man so great some mistook him for the Messiah.

But why is he great? Because he prepared the way. All his accomplishments and escapades mean nothing if they are taken out of the context of salvation history. He only makes sense relative to Christ — and this is exactly as he wanted it. “One worthier than I is coming,” he insists. And because of that humility and that total embrace of God’s will, he is given one of the greatest honors in the New Testament — he baptizes the Son of God.

Let's examine our lives in the light of their relativity to Christ. How do we prepare the way? When Christ comes to us, what do we do? How do we leave ourselves open to be actors in God's plan?

Archbishop's Annual Appeal Update

The first half of our Annual Appeal campaign has come to a very successful conclusion. After 6 months, Holy Cross parish is at 90% of our financial goal, just $5300 shy. While the finish line is just ahead, it will take all of us if we are to cross the line. At this time, only 1 in 4 families have participated. We need another 50-60 families to help carry us to the finish. Won't you please consider giving to this very worthwhile effort?
