— Wherever you are on your journey, we Welcome you! —

Do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? We were buried therefore with him by baptism into death, in order that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might walk in newness of life.

A Note From Fr. Timothy

The End of the Christmas Season

Beginning on Monday, January 10th, we are officially in "Ordinary Time" in the Church liturgical calendar. Most likely, the church will no longer have up the Christmas decorations and the vestment color the priest wears will be green. So it seems that the celebration of the Baptism of the Lord on Sunday should be the last day of the Christmas season, right? Well, the answer is perhaps a little more complicated than that.

We can pretty much all agree that the Christmas season begins with the celebration of the Nativity of the Lord on December 25th. (Though some Eastern Rite Churches celebrate Christmas on the 25th of December of the Julian calendar, which means they observe Christmas Day on January 7th according to our current, Gregorian calendar – but that is a whole other story.) The knowing of the end of the Christmas season and when you should take down your decorations, however, is often a little more vague and might depend upon whom you ask.

First, we have the Octave of Christmas. It is the eight days, inclusive, from December 25th to January 1st, ending with the celebration of Mary, Mother of God on New Year's Day. This is considered all part of the Christmas Feast and are meant to be one continuous celebration of the birth of our Lord. Upon the conclusion of the octave begins the longer Christmas season.

The traditional idea of the 12 days of Christmas would run from December 25th to the eve of the celebration of the Epiphany on January 6th. Many Christian Churches still observe this as the totality of the Christmas season. However, in this country and in many other places, the celebration of the Epiphany has been moved to the Sunday between January 2nd and the 8th. That means that there might be more or less than 12 days between Christmas and Epiphany in any given year.

Additionally, while Epiphany used to commemorate the visit of the magi, the Baptism of the Lord, and his first miracle; now those items have been separated to provide more focus on each individual event. So, in the Roman Catholic calendar, the Baptism of the Lord is now celebrated on the Sunday following Epiphany – in effect extending the Christmas season. (The wedding feast at Cana is usually the Gospel reading of the Sunday after the Baptism – and it is actually counted as the second Sunday in Ordinary Time.)

Then, there is the traditional idea that the Christmas season does not end until the celebration of Candlemas, or the Presentation of the Lord, on February 2nd. That would make the Christmas season 40 days long – corresponding to the 40 days of Lent. It also follows the pattern of Lent/Easter where the penitential season is 40 days, but the celebratory season is longer at 50 days. If Advent (a penitential season) is approximately four weeks, then Christmas (a celebratory season) should be five weeks.

Some people observe the Christmas season in stages, going from highest to lowest. They feast for eight days, start putting away decorations after 12 days, take down the Nativity set after the Baptism of the Lord but put up an image of the infant Jesus until the Presentation after 40 days. However you and your family might celebrate this season, hopefully it is always filled with joy and hope. And may God continue to shine the light of his glory on you in the year ahead.

Together As One Social Justice Activities and Invitations to Service...

In this New Year, as we have put away our Christmas decorations, we are reminded that it is time to begin the work of Christmas. We also provide information about an opportunity to help "feed the hungry" through the YES Network.

The Work of Christmas Begins

When the carols have been stilled,
When the star-topped tree is taken down,
When family and friends are gone home,
When we are back to our schedules

The work of Christmas begins:

To welcome the refugee,
To heal a broken planet,
To feed the hungry,
To build bridges of trust, not walls of fear,
To share our gifts,
To seek justice and peace for all people,
To bring Christ's light to the world.

To feed the hungry. . .

The YES Network will be preparing meals at Kennedy Elementary School in St. Joseph from 2 - 4 p.m. on Wednesdays, beginning Wed., Jan. 12 and through the spring semester to May 25. Teams of 5 volunteers can be scheduled each Wednesday. Please call Rose Blesener at 266-1515 if you would like to volunteer.

St. Peter & St. Paul News

Dear St. Peter's parishioners, breakfast volunteers and attendees, and others:

After careful consideration it has been decided that we will CANCEL the St. Peter's Parish Breakfast that had been scheduled for this Sunday, January 9th. Given the current state of the pandemic it seems like hosting a large social gathering of that type right now is not the best idea. We also have a number of our regular volunteers who are currently dealing with either COVID or seasonal flu symptoms and we aren't sure we'd be able to have a crew large enough to adequately stage the event. Fr. LeRoy has been consulted on this and agrees. So, we will forego our Parish Breakfast this month, and hope that we are able to resume this event for our next scheduled breakfast on Sunday, February 13th.

Please help us spread the word on this as you are able, keep yourself healthy and safe, and pray for our friends and parishioners who are dealing with health issues of any kind at the present time.

Thank you for all your help and support. Blessings for a safe, healthy and Happy New Year!

KC Council 5548 Events

A VERY BIG Thank you to everyone who donated to our Coats for Kids drive. We have now completed our 2021 campaign and were amazed at the results. Over 860 coats were donated to this year's drive. Because of you there are many families who will have a coat to help keep them warm this winter. Because your generosity, those in need within our community have been blessed. Also, a great note of gratitude goes to Tom and Lone Jacobs who so graciously donate their time to coordinate this important cause for our area. May God bless you both!

For more information or questions, contact Tom Jacobs at 252-0126. Women can get information or join the Ladies Auxiliary by contacting Corine Meier at 761-7896.

Matthew Kelly's book "Life is Messy" is available for you. We generally do not need to be told that life is messy, we already know that by our own experiences - especially when dealing with a global pandemic and all other things. The book offers ways of dealing with that mess in more productive ways, so that we will not be so overwhelmed by it. We pray that you receive some inspiration from this book.
