A Note From Fr. Timothy

The Holy Family

When Christmas and its Octave Day (January 1st) fall on Sundays, the feast of the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph gets moved from its normal celebration on the Sunday between Christmas and New Year's to December 30th. A solemnity (like Mary, Mother of God) takes precedence over a feast (like the Holy Family) and so the lower ranked celebration is moved. Having these major celebrations on Sundays is a beautiful way of connecting the mysteries of our faith into our weekly celebration, but it is possible that we might overlook other areas because of it.

Even though we do not celebrate the feast of the Holy Family on a Sunday this year, and even though many people likely did not have the opportunity (or awareness) to attend Mass for the feast this last Friday, we should all still take time to recognize the importance of the Holy Family and its role in our lives. As we celebrate the mystery of Mary being the mother of God, while being human herself, we can also remember her as the wife of Joseph. We can think about Joseph as a husband and father. And we can call to mind Jesus as a son of parents who love him.

The Holy Family may be saintly in its makeup, but that does not mean their lives were idyllic. They experienced hardship in their flight into Egypt. They likely knew fear and uncertainty about the future. Hard work was a natural part of life. Sorrow and grief were present at times as well. We do not know how old Jesus might have been when his father died, but it seems pretty clear that Joseph had passed before Jesus begins his public ministry. The Holy Family encompasses our lived human experiences, and meets them in such a way as to give us an example and encouragement on how to act when we are faced with similar situations.

Today, as much as any time in human history, the family is under attack in society. Rather than being supported and uplifted by governments, it is all too often restricted and isolated. More and more governments and people are willing to forcibly take children from their parents if those parents do not bow to the political ideologies of the day (think especially of gender issues). Families face destruction at every level, from the ease of no-fault divorce, to the elimination of children via abortion. Families are not valued, and people are more and more encouraged to have individualistic attitudes over family values.

We must stand firm in response to these attacks. Every compromise only further weakens the family, which is the core building block of society. A weakened family will more likely crumble, and those isolated, often broken,

Together As One Pastoral Care Ministry news.....

Dear friends;

We will call this article Forgiveness part II.

Continuing on the theme of forgiveness from the last column, as we begin a new year, we all resolve to change something in our lives, whether it be our weight, our organizational skills, or spending more time with loved ones.

How about we make 2023 a year of forgiveness? Forgiving someone (or the lack of forgiveness) of a past hurt of trauma can have a major impact on our overall health. It is like drinking a poison in our own bodies and expecting that other person to die!

I know that there are some hurts or unbearable experiences that we have all suffered that have left a scar on our hearts but to be able to forgive those that have damaged us can be as freeing as having a very heavy chain removed from us.

There is countless research and data that can back up the impacts of forgiveness on our health.

So, is there someone in your life either past or present that you need to free yourself from? Let's make 2023 the year we resolve to do this.

Be kind to one another, compassionate, forgiving one another as God has forgiven you in Christ. Ephesians 4:32

Our local Liturgical Press publishes Give Us This Day, which includes articles and reflections from area writers, morning and evening prayer, and mass texts. Lit Press, based in Collegeville, is an international leader in Catholic publications.

Parishioners in the ACC enjoyed using this daily resource while also accessing videos of evening prayer twice a week. Some of you have asked about getting more of the books. We encourage you to purchase them at the St. Cloud Bookshop, or you may want to get a subscription for the year. Please see the website giveusthisday.org for more information and to request a sample copy.

You may also consider a donation to Art & Soul to thank them for the spiritual support during Covid. You may place marked envelopes in the collection or bring them to your parish office.

TOGETHER AS ONE AREA CATHOLIC COMMUNITY

Youth and Adult Faith Formation

Happy New Year to All!

Faith Formation classes are Continuing to change the lives and families of our parishes, and what a great group of families we have! All are welcome to participate in the incredible growth God's love brings us each week. Faith formation, catechesis and Sacraments. Tell friends and family with kids...

its where Families Belong!

A special "THANK YOU" to the anonymous parishioners for the generous gift of Matthew Kelly's "The Wisdom of The Saints: 365 Days of Inspiration" book distributed throughout the parishes of St. Peter's, St. Paul's, St. Michael's and St. Joseph's this weekend. What a beautiful gift to give us hope with the examples of the Saints to become more beautiful and lovable in a world that needs hope and love more than ever.

Our theme this year is "Put on the Armor of God" from St. Paul's letter to the Ephesians. Each week we learn how to apply each piece of the Armor of God to our lives to avoid the tactics and snares of the evil one. Now, more than ever, we must equip ourselves as soldiers for Christ!

Community meal will resume with Faith Formation this Wednesday, January 4th, 2023.

First Sacrament students' focus will be on their First Eucharist, with a First Eucharist Retreat on January 14th from 9:00- 11:00 am at St. Peters. Please continue to pray for these students and their families as they prepare for this beautiful Sacrament of God's love and mercy.

Uniquely Catholic Topic: Each week we have a segment in our weekly presentation things that make us Uniquely Catholic. It focuses on the richness and beauty and depth of our Catholic faith. As we grow in our faith, our love of it will grow, and our lives will show it.

Catechesis of The Good Shephard (CGS), a program for students age 4 - grade 3 is a method of helping children enter into a relationship with God. CGS takes place in a room called the "Atrium". This is what the entrance space in Basilicas was called in ancient times. The Atrium is "more like a church than a classroom." It is a place where the children learn to contemplate God.

Confirmation Students are moving through their Discipleship Training classes and we have an outstanding group of students. They are working through many lessons. Please pray for our Confirmation students and mentors, that their efforts will lead these students to become the strong Catholic Saints that God calls us all to be.

Classes resume this Wednesday, January 11th, 2023.

JANUARY 1, 2023 | MARY, THE HOLY MOTHER OF GOD

Merry Christmas from the Churches of St. Peter, St. Joseph, St. Michael, and St. Paul

Please receive this book as our Christmas gift to you. I hope you enjoy The Wisdom of the Saints by Matthew Kelly and that it inspires you this year to hear the Word of God in your lives.

One important thing we can do for our faith lives is to have regular conversations about our faith with others. Prayer itself is a conversation with God. Talking with others helps make faith a lived reality. Reading the lives of the saints and the things they have written is like a daily conversation with them about faith. I hope that it will inspire many other conversations in your families and social circles. May it help us all grow in faith and love of God and each other.

Merry Christmas!
