PRAY THE ROSARY DAILY!

“There is no sinner in the world, however much at enmity with God, who cannot recover God’s grace by recourse to Mary, and by asking her assistance.” ~ Saint Bridget of Sweden

“Some people are so foolish that they think they can go through life without the help of the Blessed Mother. Love the Madonna and pray the Rosary, for her Rosary is the weapon against the evils of the world today. All graces given by God pass through the Blessed Mother.” ~ Saint Padre Pio
HOLINESS AT ALL AGES AND IN ALL STATES OF LIFE

On Tuesday of this week we celebrated the Memorial of Saint Bridget of Sweden, a woman who lived out her faith in various states in life – as a single person, a wife and mother, a widow, and a religious sister. Bridget began her devotion to the Lord at a young age and was especially drawn to the Passion of the Lord. When she was 10 years old, she was given a vision of our Lord Jesus on the Crucifix, who looked at her and said, “Look at me, my daughter.” She looked at him and asked, “Who has treated you like this?” Jesus answered her, “Those who despise me and refuse my love for them.” From that time on, Bridget made it her mission to prevent people from offending, despising, or rejecting Jesus. She married, and she and her husband raised eight children, including Saint Catherine of Sweden. After she was widowed, Bridget entered the consecrated religious life. Eventually she founded the Order of the Most Holy Savior, also known as the Bridgettines. Saint Bridget is a wonderful example of the reality that we can all strive after holiness whatever our age or state in life. The following prayer from Saint Bridget beautifully outlines what the Lord Jesus has done for us.

A prayer to Christ our Savior

“Blessed are you, my Lord Jesus Christ. You foretold your passion and death, and at the Last Supper you marvelously consecrated bread which became your precious body. And then you gave it to your apostles out of love as a memorial of your most holy passion. By washing their feet with your holy hands, you gave them a supreme example of your deep humility.

“Honor be to you, my Lord Jesus Christ. Fearing your passion and death, you poured forth blood from your innocent body like sweat, and still you accomplished our redemption as you desired and gave us the clearest proof of your love for all men.

“Blessed may you be, my Lord Jesus Christ. After you had been led to Caiaphas, you, the judge of all men, humbly allowed yourself to be handed over to the judgment of Pilate.

“Glory be to you, my Lord Jesus Christ, for the mockery you allowed yourself to be handed over to the judgment of Pilate. For our salvation you allowed your side and heart to be pierced with a lance; and from that side water and your precious blood flowed out abundantly for our redemption.

“Unending honor be to you, my Lord Jesus Christ. On the third day you rose from the dead and appeared to those you had chosen. And after forty days you ascended into heaven before the eyes of man witnesses, and there in heaven you gathered together in glory those you love, whom you had freed from hell.

“Blessed are you and praiseworthy and glorious for ever, my Lord Jesus. You sit upon your throne in your kingdom of heaven, in the glory of your divinity, living in the most holy body you took from a virgin's flesh. So will you appear on that last day to judge the souls of all the living and the dead; in the second coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, who sent the Holy Spirit into the hearts of your disciples and increased the boundless love of God in their spirits.

“Eternal praise be to you, my Lord Jesus Christ, for the time you endured on the cross the greatest torments and sufferings for us sinners. The sharp pain of your wounds fiercely penetrated even to your blessed soul and cruelly pierced your most sacred heart till finally you sent forth your spirit in peace, bowed your head, and humbly commended yourself into the hands of God your Father, and your whole body remained cold in death.

“Blessed may you be, my Lord Jesus Christ. You redeemed our souls with your precious blood and most holy death, and in your mercy you led them form exile back to eternal life.

“Blessed are you and praiseworthy and glorious for ever, my Lord Jesus. You sit upon your throne in your kingdom of heaven, in the glory of your divinity, living in the most holy body you took from a virgin’s flesh. So will you appear on that last day to judge the souls of all the living and the dead; you who live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit ever and ever. Amen.”
