The obligation to attend Sunday Mass and Holy Days of Obligation continues to be suspended as long as the pandemic continues. This means that you are not presently obligated to attend Mass. All COVID-19 positive persons, those who are symptomatic, and those living with them, must stay home.

UPDATED MASS DIRECTIVES

Face coverings are no longer required for those who attend Mass, Confession, and Adoration. You are welcome to wear a mask if that is your preference. Priests, deacons, and extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion will wear masks for the distribution of Holy Communion.

Social distancing is no longer required during Masses. Consequently, during our weekday and Sunday morning Masses, we will no longer leave open pews between seated pews. However, given that some people will still prefer social distancing, we will continue to leave open pews during our 5:00 p.m. Saturday Vigil Mass.

Collect for the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

O God, who in this wonderful Sacrament have left us a memorial of your Passion,
grant us, we pray,
so to revere the sacred mysteries of your Body and Blood that we may always experience in ourselves
the fruits of your redemption.
Who live and reign with God the Father in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God, for ever and ever.

Última Cena by Juan de Juanes (c. 1562).

O PRECIOUS AND WONDERFUL BANQUET!
FROM A WORK BY SAINT THOMAS AQUINAS

Since it was the will of God's only-begotten Son that men should share in his divinity, he assumed our nature in order that by becoming man he might make men gods. Moreover, when he took our flesh he dedicated the whole of its substance to our salvation. He offered his body to God the Father on the altar of the cross as a sacrifice for our reconciliation. He shed his blood for our ransom and purification, so that we might be redeemed from our wretched state of bondage and cleansed from all sin. But to ensure that the memory of so great a gift would abide with us for ever, he left his body as food and his blood as drink for the faithful to consume in the form of bread and wine.

O precious and wonderful banquet that brings us salvation and contains all sweetness! Could anything be of more intrinsic value? Under the old law it was the flesh of calves and goats that was offered, but here Christ himself, the true

God, is set before us as our food. What could be more wonderful than this? No other sacrament has greater healing power; through it sins are purged away, virtues are increased, and the soul is enriched with an abundance of every spiritual gift. It is offered in the Church for the living and the dead, so that what was instituted for the salvation of all may be for the benefit of all. Yet, in the end, no one can fully express the sweetness of this sacrament, in which spiritual delight is tasted at its very source, and in which we renew the memory of that surpassing love for us which Christ revealed in his passion.

It was to impress the vastness of this love more firmly upon the hearts of the faithful that our Lord instituted this sacrament at the Last Supper. As he was on the point of leaving the world to go to the Father, after celebrating the Passover with his disciples, he left it as a perpetual memorial of his passion. It was the fulfillment of ancient figures and the greatest of all his miracles, while for those who were to experience the sorrow of his departure, it was destined to be a unique and abiding consolation.

FATHER MARQUARD OUT THIS WEEK For the last two years, I have been scheduled to assist my friend Father Nathan LaLiberte on a pilgrimage to Poland. And for two years running, the pilgrimage has been postponed. Since the two of us had planned to be away from our parishes this week, we're taking advantage of the opportunity for some time away. While I am gone, we will have Mass coverage for all of our daily and weekend Masses. Please extend a warm welcome to the priests who will be offering Mass in my absence.

CROSS CATHOLIC OUTREACH

Delivering Food, Shelter and Hope to the Poorest of the Poor
Please welcome Father Steve LaCanne who will speak at all the Masses next weekend on behalf of Cross Catholic Outreach, which was founded to create a meaningful link between parishes in America and the priests and nuns working in the Church overseas in the Caribbean, Africa, Asia, and Central and South America. Please be generous in your response to Father's appeal. Brochures will be provided if you wish to support this worthy Catholic ministry.

Since Cross Catholic Outreach empowers existing Catholic missions, its program are extremely cost-effective, and the majority of the resources it collects go into program services that help the poorest of the poor around the world.

To learn more about Cross Catholic Outreach, please go to CrossCatholic.org/outreach or text BLESSINGS to 474747.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL DONATIONS/ITEMS NEEDED

VBS needs your help to run successfully this summer. We've compiled a sign-up genius and amazon wish list of various items needed for VBS 2021, which can be found at www.goodshepherdgv.org/vbs. Items range from empty cereal boxes to Mardi gras beads to children's Bibles and more. If you would like to make a monetary donation, please put it in an envelope marked VBS 2021 and drop it into one of the collection boxes in the gathering space (checks should be made out to Good Shepherd with VBS in the memo). Thank you for your support!

TUESDAY MORNING HOSPITALITY

At long last, our Tuesday Morning Hospitality will resume following the 7:30 a.m. Mass on Tuesday, June 22. All are welcome! Stop in for coffee and a treat. Catch up with old friends and meet some new!

PRAYER BEFORE HOLY COMMUNION

SAINT AMBROSE

I draw near, loving Lord Jesus Christ, to the table of your most delightful banquet in fear and trembling, a sinner, presuming not upon my own merits, but trusting rather in your goodness and mercy. I have a heart and body defiled by my many offenses, a mind and tongue over which I have kept no good watch. Therefore, O loving God, O awesome Majesty, I turn in my misery, caught in snares, to you the fountain of mercy, hastening to you for healing, flying to you for protection; and while I do not look forward to having you as Judge, I long to have you as Savior.

To you, O Lord, I display my wounds, to you I uncover my shame. I am aware of my many and great sins, for which I fear, but I hope in your mercies, which are without number. Look upon me, then, with eyes of mercy, Lord Jesus Christ, eternal King, God and Man, crucified for mankind. Listen to me, as I place my hope in you, have pity on me, full of miseries and sins, you, who will never cease to let the fountain of compassion flow.

Hail, O Saving Victim, offered for me and for the whole human race on the wood of the Cross. Hail, O noble and precious Blood, flowing from the wounds of Jesus Christ, my crucified Lord, and washing away the sins of all the world.

Remember, Lord, your creature, whom you redeemed by your Blood. I am repentant of my sins, I desire to put right what I have done. Take from me, therefore, most merciful Father, all my iniquities and sins, so that, purified in mind and body, I may worthily taste the Holy of Holies. And grant that this sacred foretaste of your Body and Blood which I, though unworthy, intend to receive, may be the remission of my sins, the perfect cleansing of my faults, the banishment of shameful thoughts, and the rebirth of right sentiments; and may it encourage a wholesome and effective performance of deeds pleasing to you and be a most firm defense of body and soul against the snares of my enemies. Amen.

PRAYER AFTER HOLY COMMUNION

SAINT THOMAS AQUINAS

I give you thanks, Lord, holy Father, almighty and eternal God, who have been pleased to nourish me, a sinner and your unworthy servant, with the precious Body and Blood of your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ: this through no merits of mine, but due solely to the graciousness of your mercy.

And I pray that this Holy Communion may not be for me an offense to be punished, but a saving plea for forgiveness. May it be for me the armor of faith, and the shield of good will. May it cancel my faults, destroy concupiscence and carnal passion, increase charity and patience, humility and obedience and all the virtues, may it be a firm defense against the snares of all my enemies, both visible and invisible, the complete calming of my impulses, both of the flesh and of the spirit, a firm adherence to you, the one true God, and the joyful completion of my life's course.

And I beseech you to lead me, a sinner, to that banquet beyond all telling, where with your Son and the Holy Spirit you are the true light of your Saints, fullness of satisfied desire, eternal gladness, consummate delight and perfect happiness. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Last week we celebrated Spring Spirit Week! It was so fun to celebrate a great year at Good Shepherd!
