THE PROBLEM OF SIN

“No trial has come to you but what is human. God is faithful and will not let you be tried beyond your strength; but with trial he will also provide a way out, so that you may be able to bear it.”
~ 1 Corinthians 10:13 ~

There are two prevailing attitudes about sin in our culture. One, sin doesn't exist. It sounds something like this, “For me there is no moral evil, just bad choices or mistakes.” Accepting the truth about sin is often deflected with thoughts like, “I'm only human” or “I didn't know better.” Nonetheless, sin is real.

Two, sin is fun. Getting drunk with friends, talking poorly about others, shopping excessively, being sexually promiscuous, etc. are often glorified in today's culture. Advertisers even mock the idea of sin with sayings like, “Have some, it is sinfully delicious.” But sin is just a poor temporary fix that leaves us worse off than we were before. It is not fun for long.

So what is sin? The Catechism of the Catholic Church states, sin is “an offense to God as well as a fault against reason, truth, and right conscience.” Think about it. Does our world want us to live by reason, in the truth, and by right conscience?

The world doesn't want to talk about sin; it wants to talk about how we “feel”. And when feelings lead the way, we are in for catastrophe. When facts lead the way, feelings will eventually follow.

St. John Paul II said, “Sin constitutes man's misery.” In other words, when we believe the empty promises of temptation — like a fish following a lure full of hooks — we are caught and feel worse than if we'd followed our conscience.

Sure, sin makes God upset with us. But it also goes against the way we were made to live. Said positively, God loves us so much He does not want us to be separated from Him by sin!

Stewardship as a Way of Life:

“For where your treasure is, there also will your heart be” (Luke 12:34).

Jesus encourages us to build up our treasure in heaven. The world encourages us to build up our treasure in real estate, investments and material goods. How much time are you investing in building up a worldly treasure? How much time are you investing in building up a heavenly treasure? To invest more in the things of heaven, you must let go of some of the things of this world.

Jesus didn't come to ruin our fun. He didn't come to ignore the reality of sin. Rather, "Jesus is the Lamb of God, who takes away the sins of the world." What is the right attitude about sin? Sin is real and it leads us away from true happiness.

In our Father's hands,

PLEASE READ: We have several open hours that are in need of a Committed Adorer. If you visit the chapel on a regular basis or have felt a calling to enhance your prayer life, now is the time to prayerfully consider taking it to the next level. These hours need at least one or more people dedicated to spending that hour each week with our Lord at the Chapel. Right now we rely on volunteer subs during these hours every week to keep our chapel open throughout the day. If committing to one of these hours won't work for you, we have the Sub Calendar where you can help by occasionally just covering one of the varying hours that needs a sub each week. If you're planning a trip to the chapel anyway, why not check ahead to see if there is a sub request on the calendar that day that you could fill? Please feel free to contact one of us for any additional questions or information. God will surely bless you for considering a commitment to this ministry!
