FOLLOW HIM: LENT 2022

As I reflect on the idea of following Him I am called to consider how we follow people today. One way is through social media, where we "follow" people or groups. Whom do you follow on social media and how does that influence how you view yourself or others? Too often I have had conversations with people feeling unworthy based on what is seen while we scroll.

What we see are great acts of charity, families having great vacations, and people having it 'all together.' Yet, what we do not see is the melt down that happened right after that beautiful vacation moment, or the real life daily struggle of keeping life together, or the heartache that is felt because of the sick family member they don't mention. When we scroll through life we 'follow' an ideal of what we think life should look like and believe everyone has it—except me—when in reality most people only post snapshots of the good moments.

When we really start to follow Jesus we may begin by following what some people refer to as a "nice guy." As we read stories, like that of the adulterous woman, we may be drawn to how Jesus did not condemn her. As we continue to know Jesus, and sink into the scripture, we can be awakened to His compassion for us. Jesus meets us where we are, with His love and mercy while challenging us to be better, such as when he says to the woman "Go, and from now on do not sin any more" (John 8:11). Following Him is not easy, because following Him means being called to more. He calls us to open our hearts, see our own sinfulness or weakness, and carry daily crosses that we would prefer not to carry. What crosses did you carry this week? What weakness or sinfulness is He calling you to become more aware of and change?

News on the Elect

This weekend, the 3rd and final, RCIA Scrutiny is at the 5:00 pm Mass on Saturday. The Gospel reading for the Scrutiny is the Raising of Lazarus from the dead (John 11:1-45). Take some time to reflect on your own this week: Do I, like Martha, boldly process our faith in Jesus as the resurrection and the life? If Jesus called me to come out, what are the things that bind me and keep me from running to meet Him? How do I rise in Christ – do others see Christ through me?

This week in Lent 2022: Seek Him, Love Him, Follow Him –

- Wednesday – 5:30-6:30 pm Adoration; 6:30-7:00 pm Evening Prayer
- Friday – Fish Fry – 5:00-7:00 pm – Carry-out or Eat-in – good food and fellowship!

TWO APPEALS

Help Us Reach Our Goal!

Utility bills are not fun. They are not attractive or exciting, and yet, without our utilities, our quality of life would suffer. The Annual Diocesan Appeal is kind of like a utility—it is a bill that has to be paid, every year. And although it doesn't give us the warm fuzzies we like to get with our donations, it does improve the parish's quality of life. So, thanks to the 357 families (15% of our total) for meeting this need. We are at 51% of our goal. Let's hear from more of our families, so we can put this bill to rest, and move on to more exciting things!

Please consider making a gift online by visiting: dmdiocese.org/giving/annual-diocesan-appeal. Every gift helps us reach our goal of $280,975 (a decrease from last year).

Common Questions about the Ignite! Campaign

If the parish does not reach their monetary goal, is it responsible for the difference?

Parishes will not be assessed penalties if they do not reach their fundraising goal. The expectation is that parishes put forth a good faith effort to follow the recommendations of the campaign office in conducting the campaign.

Will funds for the Ignite! Campaign reduce offertory support for the parish?

It is important to emphasize that all gifts to this campaign should not reduce other giving commitments to the Church. A gift to the campaign is an extraordinarily generous gift made freely and faithfully to meet the extraordinary challenges and opportunities presented through the campaign.

DISCIPLE

5th Sunday in Lent

Is 43:16-21 | Phil 3:8-14 | Jn 8:1-11

GROW: AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

During Lent, we hear familiar stories: the event of Jesus' transfiguration, the prodigal son, and today the woman caught in adultery. Each reveals an aspect of God's perfect love for us and a glimpse of how we can reflect that love toward others. In today's Gospel, the Pharisees once again are testing Jesus, saying the law demands that the woman caught in adultery be stoned. Jesus responds, "Let the one among you who is without sin be the first to throw a stone at her." What a perfect response to the Pharisees, and to each one of us when we focus on the faults of another. Jesus' words teach and challenge us to look more closely at the ways we judge others – by appearance, a social media post, political party, for example – and ask ourselves whether we are truly doing so out of love. Closer to home, we may be quick to point out our spouse or children's perceived faults, without acknowledging our own. Jesus invites us to look at others – and ourselves – with the eyes of mercy.

GO: EVANGELIZE | PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Every time we go out to dinner, my son makes fun of me for agonizing over the menu: "You always regret what you pick!" Indeed, regret can be a powerful emotion. Fortunately, the dinner dilemma requires only that I mooch off of my son's entrée. However, deeper regrets can bog us down and prevent us from moving forward in faith. Today's readings challenge us not to wallow in past mistakes, preconceptions, or bad habits. As we hear in Isaiah, "The things of long ago consider not; see, I am doing something new!" We hear this idea again from St. Paul, who writes of "forgetting what lies behind" and straining forward toward "the prize of God's upward calling, in Christ Jesus." In the Gospel, Jesus doesn't dwell on the past sins of the adulterous woman other than to say, "Go, and from now on do not sin any more." Fortunately, our Church offers an antidote to regret and sin in the sacrament of reconciliation. Whether it's been a month or a decade, what better time than Lent to return to this sacrament and experience God's mercy and forgiveness?

ACT: Take advantage of the additional opportunities many churches offer for the sacrament of reconciliation during Lent. Rusty? Check out this excellent guide for adults and children: theightison.org/guide-to-confession.
