FROM THE DESK OF FATHER DAVE

CELEBRATING OUR PATRONAL FEAST OF ST. BRIDGET JULY 23rd

It's that time of the year again when we celebrate our beloved St. Bridget of Sweden. She truly was a remarkable woman living in a difficult era for both the Church and for society.

So let's remember again, the story of this saint for whom our parish was named. Even though she was declared a co-patroness of all of Europe by Pope St. John Paul II in 1999, her life story still remains somewhat of a mystery to many. In essence her life might be understood as being divided into two distinct periods. The first would be from the time of her birth and childhood through the death of her husband.

Bridget was born in Sweden in 1303 and her father was the Governor of one of the principal Swedish provinces named Upland. Her mother died when she was twelve years old and at the tender age of fourteen entered into a marriage to her husband Ulf. Both of them had a spiritual mindset from an early age and after marriage they joined the third order Franciscans. Together they had a family of eight children (four boys and four girls) one of whom (Catherine) has also been declared a saint, but several others of those children brought great sorrow to Bridget by their lifestyle choices.

Around 1335 Bridget and her family were summoned to the court of the King of Sweden Magnus and his wife Blanche where she tried to exercise a positive influence on the young king and queen, but with limited success. Nevertheless, the King gave Bridget land and funds for the building of a monastery with the unusual arrangement of both monks and nuns living on the same campus but in separate buildings, yet coming together in a common church building for worship. Also rare was the fact that both the nuns and the monks were under the rule of a woman who served as the Abbess.

It was during this time Bridget began to receive a series of visions which continued to occur until the end of her life. These visions and directives from God were about a variety of topics, secular and religious, mundane and exalted, but some included reprimands about the king's behavior which caused whispers and gossip in the royal court such that eventually Bridget received permission to leave the court and resume a more normal life. That life included a love and service of the poor, often with her children participating.

Eventually she and her husband made a pilgrimage the shrine of St. James in Compostela, Spain. On the way home Ulf was taken ill and died shortly thereafter. This began the second phase of Bridget's life.

The monastery that Bridget founded evolved into an order of nuns called the Order of the Most Holy Savior, but commonly known as the Bridgettines. It still exists today. The rest of her life, mostly living in Rome at a time when the Popes lived in France, was spent travelling, writing, ministering to the poor and sick and seeking to obey the Lord's directives received in her visions. In her prophecies and revelations she addressed many of the hot political and religious topics of the day. She was fearless in her critique of royalty, hierarchy and ordinary society based on her divine visions. During a pilgrimage to the Holy Land she experienced shipwreck and the death of her favorite son, but continued on in grief to see many of the most holy places and received divine visions of what occurred at those sites.

In ill health Bridget made it back to Rome but continued to grow weaker and ultimately died at the age of 72 – an amazing woman who led an amazing life. In a talk about St. Bridget by Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI in October of 2010 he stressed how because of the great variety of her life, St. Bridget can serve as an inspiration for many people. She was a devoted daughter, a loving wife and mother, a Lady of the Court, a social activist, a mystic, a founder of a religious order, a world traveler, a fearless critic of religious, political and social events and persons, and a prophet who prayed ceaselessly while humbly delivering God's messages to all – rich and poor alike.

“There are the saints of every day, the ‘hidden saints,’ a sort of ‘middle class of holiness’...to which we can all belong.” (Pope Francis)

✠ Prayer to St. Bridget of Sweden

Loving Woman of God,
Thank-you for your life of faithful discipleship to Jesus Christ. Especially thank-you for your devotion to Jesus’ Birth and Passion through which you saw light for the whole world.

As a Mother, you understand a parent’s concern and compassion for children. As wife you know the deep love for your partner and best friend. As wife, you also understand the pain of loss for you lost your beloved husband early in life.

Make intercession for us that we might have your same love for the poor, unwed mothers and children, and the sick. Your creativity was ever present as you began a new order of Sisters. These Sisters were ready to share peace, consolation, care, hospitality and prayer and penance with others. Pray that we might creatively solve the moral problems of our day and have the courage to make a difference in our world.

Pray that we might have the grace to do kindness, create unity and good works which were a hallmark of your life. Most of all, ask God to give to us the gift of charity.

Pray for this parish of St. Bridget of Sweden so that like you we might be followers of Jesus who shines with the radiance of His light upon all of us who gracefully follow Him.

St. Bridget of Sweden,
Pray for us.

I’m on a mission, so here is a “best of,” Consecration to The Terror of Demons

On May 1st, I completed my consecration to St. Joseph. This comes about three years after I consummated my consecration to Mother Mary. Why would you do that you might ask? Why wouldn’t you, I might respond?

Since he has been such a great patron saint for me, let’s talk about St. Joseph, what exactly is consecration to him, and just what does it mean? It basically means that I acknowledge St. Joseph as my spiritual father, and want to be like him. To demonstrate this, I entrust myself entirely to his paternal care, so that he can lovingly help me acquire his virtues and become holy. Total consecration to St. Joseph means that I have made a formal act of filial, or son-like entrustment to my spiritual father so that he can take care of my spiritual well-being and lead me to God. I wish to be as close to my spiritual father as possible, hoping to resemble him in virtue and holiness, and in return, he will give me loving attention, protection, and guidance. It almost sounds too good to be true, but as I write this on May 3rd, something’s different.

The importance of being consecrated to St. Joseph cannot be overstated, but I will leave it up to the saints to give it their best shot—

“When God wishes to raise a soul to greater heights, he unites it to St. Joseph by giving it a strong love for the good saint.”— St. Peter Julian Eymard

“Knowing by experience St. Joseph’s astonishing influence with God, I would wish to persuade everyone to honor him with particular devotion. I have always seen who honored him in a special manner make progress in virtue, for this heavenly protector favors in a striking manner the spiritual advancement of souls who commend themselves to him.”—St. Teresa of Avila

“So perfectly was he [St. Joseph] dead to the world and the flesh, that he desired nothing but the things of heaven.”—St. Bridget of Sweden

“I prayed to St. Joseph to watch over me. From my childhood, my devotion to him was mingled with my love for the Blessed Virgin. Each day I recited the prayer, ‘O Saint Joseph, father and protector of virgins.’ It seemed to me that I was well protected and completely sheltered from every danger.”—St. Therese of Lisieux

“This flower of Israel [St. Joseph] had the faith of Abraham, the piety of David his ancestor, the wisdom of the prophets, a patience more heroic than that of Job and of Tobias, and a zeal greater than that of Elijah for the glory of God.”—Blessed Gabriele Allegra

As you can see, I feel as if I’m in good company entrusting my spiritual life to “The Mirror of Patience, the Glory of Domestic Life, the Guardian of Virgins, The Pillar of Families, The Patron of the Dying, The Protector of the Holy Church, The Zealous Defender of Christ, The Spouse of the Mother of God, and The Terror of Demons.”

In October New Pathways will return to hosting families in person in our area churches. Our parish has been incredibly responsive to help meet the needs of these families during a difficult time. You have heard the cry of the poor and responded with overflowing generosity. The heart of Jesus is beating here at St. Bridget's. Thank you!

FAITH FORMATION HELP

We are planning ahead for upcoming volunteer needs while staff members are on leave. The volunteer positions we are currently organizing are volunteers in the parish office during Faith Formation Wednesday nights, Faith Formation bus duty volunteers, and drivers for those bus duty volunteers. Thank you for your consideration to help our 2022-2023 Faith Formation year run smoothly!

NFP AWARENESS WEEK

July 24th - 30th is Natural Family Planning Awareness Week! Natural Family Planning (NFP) is the general title for the scientific, natural, and moral methods of family planning that can help married couples either achieve or postpone pregnancy. NFP methods are based on the observation of the naturally occurring signs and symptoms of the fertile and infertile phases of a woman's menstrual cycle. Since the methods of NFP respect the love-giving (unitive) and life-giving (procreative) nature of the conjugal act, they support God's design for married love! Visit www.stbridgetofsweden.org/events-1 to learn more about NFP Awareness Week.

PARISH GIVING

We are so thankful for our parishioners' support and generosity in giving of their time, talent, and treasure. As we enjoy the beautiful Minnesota summer, a reminder that online donating is an option to continue to support St. Bridget's while you may be away. Visit the home page of www.stbridgetofsweden.org, scroll down and click on the tile that states "donate." From there you can donate easily online just like donating at weekend Masses. If you would like information about how to set up automatic giving, please contact the parish office. Thank you for your continued support of our parish community! God bless you!

BULLETIN ANNOUNCEMENTS

If you have an event or information to share with the parish community, you may email the announcement to lschaad@stbridgetofsweden.org. Utilizing the bulletin is a great way to keep our community informed about all that's offered here at St. Bridget's and in the Archdiocese!
